

Goodwood Races
Promise Gay Week
for London Society

King George to Attend—
American Widow of Admiral
Hood to Be Hostess.

Special Cable to The New York Herald.
Special Cable to The New York Herald.
Special Cable to The New York Herald.

Debutantes Have a Scare.

There was a little social tempest during the week when the report spread that the debutantes present at this garden party could not count themselves as separate entities.

Americans Will Play a Part.

Americans also will play an important part in the Goodwood entertaining. Lady Hood, American widow of Admiral Hood, lost in the battle of Jutland, also will be seen.

ARRIVALS AT BEVERLY.

Senora de Milano, wife of the Ambassador of Spain, will pass a few days in the city.

IN THE WHITE MOUNTAINS.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Douglas are at the Mount Washington.

PICNIC AND TEA AT LENOX.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Douglas are at the Mount Washington.

MOJORITYS AT WATERBURY.

Special Despatch to The New York Herald.
Special Despatch to The New York Herald.

ENGAGEMENTS ANNOUNCED.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Widenbach of Beechmont Park, New Rochelle, N. Y., have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Augusta Regina Widenbach.

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS.

Special Despatch to The New York Herald.
Special Despatch to The New York Herald.

ARRIVALS AT GEDNEY FARM.

Special Despatch to The New York Herald.

PERSONAL INTELLIGENCE.

Mr. Bertram G. Work has returned to Oyster Bay, L. I., from Akron, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander S. Webb are passing the summer in Westbury, L. I.

Mr. and Mrs. James F. D. Lanier, who are in Florida, will return to New York in the middle of September.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Townsend, who are at Locust Valley, L. I., will make a tour of the country by automobile in August.

Miss Laura Wheeler, who has been passing the summer in New York, has returned to her home in Sharon, Conn.

Mr. and Mrs. Stoddard Hoffman are passing the summer in Lawrence, L. I., where they have taken a house for the summer.

Major-General Charles F. Roe and his daughter, Mrs. Prescott Roe, will be at the headquarters after their stay in California.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Williams are spending the summer at their home in London, England, where they will remain for several weeks.

Mr. William A. M. Burden and family will go to their country house in Mount Kisco, N. Y., from North East Harbor, Me., in the first week in September for the autumn.

Mr. Clara Steichen will return from Europe in the autumn and occupy the house she bought at 68 Park avenue, which was the former home of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Stokes.

Mr. Harold Walker has returned to her cottage in Nonquitt, Mass.

The Counselor of the Polish Legation and Mrs. Kowalewska are returning to Bar Harbor, Me., for a fortnight's stay.

J. de Lagerberg, secretary of the Swedish Legation, has returned from Southampton, L. I.

Capt. and Mrs. Harry T. Brown, who have just returned from two years in Paris, have arrived in Washington to establish a permanent home.

Miss Denise Barakow has returned to Washington after passing several weeks at Watch Hill, R. I., with Mrs. Lawrence C. Phelps, wife of the Senator.

Mr. Charles D. Helmhold announces the engagement of her daughter, Mrs. Marjorie Helmhold Mahood, to Mr. Joseph H. Colman of La Crosse, Wis. Mrs. Mahood is the widow of Capt. George Mahood, U. S. A.

Senora de Milano, wife of the Ambassador of Spain, will pass a few days in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Miller of New York have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Isaac T. Mann at their summer home at Coolidge Point, Manchester.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Johnson of Spyneton, Dayton, O., are at the Ocean House at Watch Hill, R. I.

Mr. and Mrs. George von L. Meyer, who has been spending the early season with her son-in-law and daughter, Signor and Signora Giuseppe Brambilla, in Rome, has opened her home, Rick Maple Farm, at Hamilton.

Miss Costin is to give the first of a series of musicals on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Henry F. Sears at Chapman's Corners, at the Cove.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Miller of New York have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Isaac T. Mann at their summer home at Coolidge Point, Manchester.

Mr. and Mrs. George von L. Meyer, who has been spending the early season with her son-in-law and daughter, Signor and Signora Giuseppe Brambilla, in Rome, has opened her home, Rick Maple Farm, at Hamilton.

Dr. and Mrs. Rice
Give Dinner Party
at Newport Villa

Mr. and Mrs. John P. Aspegren
Also Entertain Friends—
Bailey's Beach Crowded.

Special Despatch to The New York Herald.
Special Despatch to The New York Herald.

NEWPORT, R. I., July 24.—Dr. and Mrs. Alexander Hamilton Rice gave a dinner for thirty-two at Miramir Villa and Mr. and Mrs. John P. Aspegren entertained twenty friends.

Mr. and Mrs. John P. Aspegren entertained twenty friends. Mrs. Frederick Pearson gave a luncheon for nineteen, and Mrs. Andrew M. Moreland one for twelve.

Nearly everybody in the cottage colony went to church this morning. A few of those at Trinity were Gen. and Mrs. J. Fred Pierson, Mrs. Marston J. Perry, Mrs. George Gordon King, Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. T. Buffen Taylor, Mrs. Stuart Duncan, the Right Rev. and Mrs. James Henry Darlington, Mrs. Joseph P. Stone and her granddaughter, Miss Alexandra Beroldinger, accompanied by the Misses Wilson, daughters of Mrs. Richard T. Wilson; Miss Emma Stone, Mrs. Arthur B. Emmons and Miss Elizabeth E. Emmons; Miss Angelica Gerry, Mrs. William E. Glyn, Mrs. Charles H. Baldwin and Miss Helen Moran.

Registered at the Casino were Mr. H. C. McCarty of Boston, who is stopping with Mr. and Mrs. Sumner Gerard; Mr. and Mrs. Pierre Chauvet of Bordeaux, France, stopping with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Walton; Mr. and Mrs. Rosalie and Clara Barclay, the former of whom will be introduced to society in New York next winter. Mr. and Mrs. William W. Wilcock, who recently arrived from New York, were with Mr. and Mrs. George A. H. Churchill of Rumson, N. J., who had not been in Southampton in many years, and Mr. Water Mill with Mrs. James F. Fargo.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Baralay, who recently returned from Honolulu, had with them Mr. and Mrs. Rosalie and Clara Barclay, the former of whom will be introduced to society in New York next winter. Mr. and Mrs. William W. Wilcock, who recently arrived from New York, were with Mr. and Mrs. George A. H. Churchill of Rumson, N. J., who had not been in Southampton in many years, and Mr. Water Mill with Mrs. James F. Fargo.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Baralay, who recently returned from Honolulu, had with them Mr. and Mrs. Rosalie and Clara Barclay, the former of whom will be introduced to society in New York next winter. Mr. and Mrs. William W. Wilcock, who recently arrived from New York, were with Mr. and Mrs. George A. H. Churchill of Rumson, N. J., who had not been in Southampton in many years, and Mr. Water Mill with Mrs. James F. Fargo.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Baralay, who recently returned from Honolulu, had with them Mr. and Mrs. Rosalie and Clara Barclay, the former of whom will be introduced to society in New York next winter. Mr. and Mrs. William W. Wilcock, who recently arrived from New York, were with Mr. and Mrs. George A. H. Churchill of Rumson, N. J., who had not been in Southampton in many years, and Mr. Water Mill with Mrs. James F. Fargo.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Baralay, who recently returned from Honolulu, had with them Mr. and Mrs. Rosalie and Clara Barclay, the former of whom will be introduced to society in New York next winter. Mr. and Mrs. William W. Wilcock, who recently arrived from New York, were with Mr. and Mrs. George A. H. Churchill of Rumson, N. J., who had not been in Southampton in many years, and Mr. Water Mill with Mrs. James F. Fargo.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Baralay, who recently returned from Honolulu, had with them Mr. and Mrs. Rosalie and Clara Barclay, the former of whom will be introduced to society in New York next winter. Mr. and Mrs. William W. Wilcock, who recently arrived from New York, were with Mr. and Mrs. George A. H. Churchill of Rumson, N. J., who had not been in Southampton in many years, and Mr. Water Mill with Mrs. James F. Fargo.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Baralay, who recently returned from Honolulu, had with them Mr. and Mrs. Rosalie and Clara Barclay, the former of whom will be introduced to society in New York next winter. Mr. and Mrs. William W. Wilcock, who recently arrived from New York, were with Mr. and Mrs. George A. H. Churchill of Rumson, N. J., who had not been in Southampton in many years, and Mr. Water Mill with Mrs. James F. Fargo.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Baralay, who recently returned from Honolulu, had with them Mr. and Mrs. Rosalie and Clara Barclay, the former of whom will be introduced to society in New York next winter. Mr. and Mrs. William W. Wilcock, who recently arrived from New York, were with Mr. and Mrs. George A. H. Churchill of Rumson, N. J., who had not been in Southampton in many years, and Mr. Water Mill with Mrs. James F. Fargo.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Baralay, who recently returned from Honolulu, had with them Mr. and Mrs. Rosalie and Clara Barclay, the former of whom will be introduced to society in New York next winter. Mr. and Mrs. William W. Wilcock, who recently arrived from New York, were with Mr. and Mrs. George A. H. Churchill of Rumson, N. J., who had not been in Southampton in many years, and Mr. Water Mill with Mrs. James F. Fargo.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Baralay, who recently returned from Honolulu, had with them Mr. and Mrs. Rosalie and Clara Barclay, the former of whom will be introduced to society in New York next winter. Mr. and Mrs. William W. Wilcock, who recently arrived from New York, were with Mr. and Mrs. George A. H. Churchill of Rumson, N. J., who had not been in Southampton in many years, and Mr. Water Mill with Mrs. James F. Fargo.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Baralay, who recently returned from Honolulu, had with them Mr. and Mrs. Rosalie and Clara Barclay, the former of whom will be introduced to society in New York next winter. Mr. and Mrs. William W. Wilcock, who recently arrived from New York, were with Mr. and Mrs. George A. H. Churchill of Rumson, N. J., who had not been in Southampton in many years, and Mr. Water Mill with Mrs. James F. Fargo.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Baralay, who recently returned from Honolulu, had with them Mr. and Mrs. Rosalie and Clara Barclay, the former of whom will be introduced to society in New York next winter. Mr. and Mrs. William W. Wilcock, who recently arrived from New York, were with Mr. and Mrs. George A. H. Churchill of Rumson, N. J., who had not been in Southampton in many years, and Mr. Water Mill with Mrs. James F. Fargo.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Baralay, who recently returned from Honolulu, had with them Mr. and Mrs. Rosalie and Clara Barclay, the former of whom will be introduced to society in New York next winter. Mr. and Mrs. William W. Wilcock, who recently arrived from New York, were with Mr. and Mrs. George A. H. Churchill of Rumson, N. J., who had not been in Southampton in many years, and Mr. Water Mill with Mrs. James F. Fargo.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Baralay, who recently returned from Honolulu, had with them Mr. and Mrs. Rosalie and Clara Barclay, the former of whom will be introduced to society in New York next winter. Mr. and Mrs. William W. Wilcock, who recently arrived from New York, were with Mr. and Mrs. George A. H. Churchill of Rumson, N. J., who had not been in Southampton in many years, and Mr. Water Mill with Mrs. James F. Fargo.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Baralay, who recently returned from Honolulu, had with them Mr. and Mrs. Rosalie and Clara Barclay, the former of whom will be introduced to society in New York next winter. Mr. and Mrs. William W. Wilcock, who recently arrived from New York, were with Mr. and Mrs. George A. H. Churchill of Rumson, N. J., who had not been in Southampton in many years, and Mr. Water Mill with Mrs. James F. Fargo.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Baralay, who recently returned from Honolulu, had with them Mr. and Mrs. Rosalie and Clara Barclay, the former of whom will be introduced to society in New York next winter. Mr. and Mrs. William W. Wilcock, who recently arrived from New York, were with Mr. and Mrs. George A. H. Churchill of Rumson, N. J., who had not been in Southampton in many years, and Mr. Water Mill with Mrs. James F. Fargo.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Baralay, who recently returned from Honolulu, had with them Mr. and Mrs. Rosalie and Clara Barclay, the former of whom will be introduced to society in New York next winter. Mr. and Mrs. William W. Wilcock, who recently arrived from New York, were with Mr. and Mrs. George A. H. Churchill of Rumson, N. J., who had not been in Southampton in many years, and Mr. Water Mill with Mrs. James F. Fargo.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Baralay, who recently returned from Honolulu, had with them Mr. and Mrs. Rosalie and Clara Barclay, the former of whom will be introduced to society in New York next winter. Mr. and Mrs. William W. Wilcock, who recently arrived from New York, were with Mr. and Mrs. George A. H. Churchill of Rumson, N. J., who had not been in Southampton in many years, and Mr. Water Mill with Mrs. James F. Fargo.

Largest Crowd of Season at the Bathing Beach at Southampton

Sojourners Attend Musicals at Home of Mr. and Mrs. L.
E. Woodhouse.

Special Despatch to The New York Herald.
SOUTHAMPTON, N. Y., July 24.—The bathing beach gathering today at St. Andrew's Dune Church, where the Rev. Dr. Milo H. Gates of New York preached, was the largest thus far this season and fully two hundred motors were parked just outside the pavilion.

Mr. and Mrs. Lydia Hoyt came with her sister, Mrs. Jewett King. Mrs. Hoyt wore a gown of white embroidered chiffon over pale lemon color taffeta and a hat of natural straw wreathed with yellow flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Lydia Hoyt came with her sister, Mrs. Jewett King. Mrs. Hoyt wore a gown of white embroidered chiffon over pale lemon color taffeta and a hat of natural straw wreathed with yellow flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Lydia Hoyt came with her sister, Mrs. Jewett King. Mrs. Hoyt wore a gown of white embroidered chiffon over pale lemon color taffeta and a hat of natural straw wreathed with yellow flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Lydia Hoyt came with her sister, Mrs. Jewett King. Mrs. Hoyt wore a gown of white embroidered chiffon over pale lemon color taffeta and a hat of natural straw wreathed with yellow flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Lydia Hoyt came with her sister, Mrs. Jewett King. Mrs. Hoyt wore a gown of white embroidered chiffon over pale lemon color taffeta and a hat of natural straw wreathed with yellow flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Lydia Hoyt came with her sister, Mrs. Jewett King. Mrs. Hoyt wore a gown of white embroidered chiffon over pale lemon color taffeta and a hat of natural straw wreathed with yellow flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Lydia Hoyt came with her sister, Mrs. Jewett King. Mrs. Hoyt wore a gown of white embroidered chiffon over pale lemon color taffeta and a hat of natural straw wreathed with yellow flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Lydia Hoyt came with her sister, Mrs. Jewett King. Mrs. Hoyt wore a gown of white embroidered chiffon over pale lemon color taffeta and a hat of natural straw wreathed with yellow flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Lydia Hoyt came with her sister, Mrs. Jewett King. Mrs. Hoyt wore a gown of white embroidered chiffon over pale lemon color taffeta and a hat of natural straw wreathed with yellow flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Lydia Hoyt came with her sister, Mrs. Jewett King. Mrs. Hoyt wore a gown of white embroidered chiffon over pale lemon color taffeta and a hat of natural straw wreathed with yellow flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Lydia Hoyt came with her sister, Mrs. Jewett King. Mrs. Hoyt wore a gown of white embroidered chiffon over pale lemon color taffeta and a hat of natural straw wreathed with yellow flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Lydia Hoyt came with her sister, Mrs. Jewett King. Mrs. Hoyt wore a gown of white embroidered chiffon over pale lemon color taffeta and a hat of natural straw wreathed with yellow flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Lydia Hoyt came with her sister, Mrs. Jewett King. Mrs. Hoyt wore a gown of white embroidered chiffon over pale lemon color taffeta and a hat of natural straw wreathed with yellow flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Lydia Hoyt came with her sister, Mrs. Jewett King. Mrs. Hoyt wore a gown of white embroidered chiffon over pale lemon color taffeta and a hat of natural straw wreathed with yellow flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Lydia Hoyt came with her sister, Mrs. Jewett King. Mrs. Hoyt wore a gown of white embroidered chiffon over pale lemon color taffeta and a hat of natural straw wreathed with yellow flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Lydia Hoyt came with her sister, Mrs. Jewett King. Mrs. Hoyt wore a gown of white embroidered chiffon over pale lemon color taffeta and a hat of natural straw wreathed with yellow flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Lydia Hoyt came with her sister, Mrs. Jewett King. Mrs. Hoyt wore a gown of white embroidered chiffon over pale lemon color taffeta and a hat of natural straw wreathed with yellow flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Lydia Hoyt came with her sister, Mrs. Jewett King. Mrs. Hoyt wore a gown of white embroidered chiffon over pale lemon color taffeta and a hat of natural straw wreathed with yellow flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Lydia Hoyt came with her sister, Mrs. Jewett King. Mrs. Hoyt wore a gown of white embroidered chiffon over pale lemon color taffeta and a hat of natural straw wreathed with yellow flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Lydia Hoyt came with her sister, Mrs. Jewett King. Mrs. Hoyt wore a gown of white embroidered chiffon over pale lemon color taffeta and a hat of natural straw wreathed with yellow flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Lydia Hoyt came with her sister, Mrs. Jewett King. Mrs. Hoyt wore a gown of white embroidered chiffon over pale lemon color taffeta and a hat of natural straw wreathed with yellow flowers.

Sumptuous Scenes
in Elinor Glyn's
First Screen Story

Romantic Tale of the West
Also Shows Flashes of Dramatic Power.

Inviting scenery forms the background of the movies at the principal cinema palaces this week, suggesting the peril that audiences, having seen the cool greenery of one picture, won't want to see others, but immediately will rush off to the woods. Elinor Glyn, who came to this country in order to fabricate her first original screen story, "The Great Moment," at the Rivoli this week, appears to have gone over in a body to the party of professional Western scenery boosters.

"In return for the nice way these Western people have treated me," she says, "I have said to herself, 'I'll certainly give their landscapes a free ad in my first picture.'"

And she has, for she has brought her heroine, an English girl with a half portion of Russian eyes, blood, all the way to the West for no particular purpose except to admire the vistas, which are certainly handsome enough to bring out all the romanticism which is always latent in a Glyn heroine, to mention her kypsy blood. The latter, however, does not come to the surface until she is bitten by a rattlesnake. Trust Mrs. Glyn to get her heroine into a compromising situation alone in a desert shack, even if she has to use a snake bite to do it.

The poison is drawn from the wound by a young American mining engineer, who has been standing with her, ogling the view until it almost drives him to taking her in his arms, even as she snatched off a young Englishman. Then the antics come in their garden of Eden. Part of his method of curing the girl, of course, is to use a quart bottle of raw milk, which she has found in a well equipped desert shack. Prohibition has no terrors for Glyn hero—nor has anything else.

The poison is drawn from the wound by a young American mining engineer, who has been standing with her, ogling the view until it almost drives him to taking her in his arms, even as she snatched off a young Englishman. Then the antics come in their garden of Eden. Part of his method of curing the girl, of course, is to use a quart bottle of raw milk, which she has found in a well equipped desert shack. Prohibition has no terrors for Glyn hero—nor has anything else.

The poison is drawn from the wound by a young American mining engineer, who has been standing with her, ogling the view until it almost drives him to taking her in his arms, even as she snatched off a young Englishman. Then the antics come in their garden of Eden. Part of his method of curing the girl, of course, is to use a quart bottle of raw milk, which she has found in a well equipped desert shack. Prohibition has no terrors for Glyn hero—nor has anything else.

The poison is drawn from the wound by a young American mining engineer, who has been standing with her, ogling the view until it almost drives him to taking her in his arms, even as she snatched off a young Englishman. Then the antics come in their garden of Eden. Part of his method of curing the girl, of course, is to use a quart bottle of raw milk, which she has found in a well equipped desert shack. Prohibition has no terrors for Glyn hero—nor has anything else.

The poison is drawn from the wound by a young American mining engineer, who has been standing with her, ogling the view until it almost drives him to taking her in his arms, even as she snatched off a young Englishman. Then the antics come in their garden of Eden. Part of his method of curing the girl, of course, is to use a quart bottle of raw milk, which she has found in a well equipped desert shack. Prohibition has no terrors for Glyn hero—nor has anything else.

The poison is drawn from the wound by a young American mining engineer, who has been standing with her, ogling the view until it almost drives him to taking her in his arms, even as she snatched off a young Englishman. Then the antics come in their garden of Eden. Part of his method of curing the girl, of course, is to use a quart bottle of raw milk, which she has found in a well equipped desert shack. Prohibition has no terrors for Glyn hero—nor has anything else.

The poison is drawn from the wound by a young American mining engineer, who has been standing with her, ogling the view until it almost drives him to taking her in his arms, even as she snatched off a young Englishman. Then the antics come in their garden of Eden. Part of his method of curing the girl, of course, is to use a quart bottle of raw milk, which she has found in a well equipped desert shack. Prohibition has no terrors for Glyn hero—nor has anything else.

The poison is drawn from the wound by a young American mining engineer, who has been standing with her, ogling the view until it almost drives him to taking her in his arms, even as she snatched off a young Englishman. Then the antics come in their garden of Eden. Part of his method of curing the girl, of course, is to use a quart bottle of raw milk, which she has found in a well equipped desert shack. Prohibition has no terrors for Glyn hero—nor has anything else.

The poison is drawn from the wound by a young American mining engineer, who has been standing with her, ogling the view until it almost drives him to taking her in his arms, even as she snatched off a young Englishman. Then the antics come in their garden of Eden. Part of his method of curing the girl, of course, is to use a quart bottle of raw milk, which she has found in a well equipped desert shack. Prohibition has no terrors for Glyn hero—nor has anything else.

The poison is drawn from the wound by a young American mining engineer, who has been standing with her, ogling the view until it almost drives him to taking her in his arms, even as she snatched off a young Englishman. Then the antics come in their garden of Eden. Part of his method of curing the girl, of course, is to use a quart bottle of raw milk, which she has found in a well equipped desert shack. Prohibition has no terrors for Glyn hero—nor has anything else.

The poison is drawn from the wound by a young American mining engineer, who has been standing with her, ogling the view until it almost drives him to taking her in his arms, even as she snatched off a young Englishman. Then the antics come in their garden of Eden. Part of his method of curing the girl, of course, is to use a quart bottle of raw milk, which she has found in a well equipped desert shack. Prohibition has no terrors for Glyn hero—nor has anything else.

The poison is drawn from the wound by a young American mining engineer, who has been standing with her, ogling the view until it almost drives him to taking her in his arms, even as she snatched off a young Englishman. Then the antics come in their garden of Eden. Part of his method of curing the girl, of course, is to use a quart bottle of raw milk, which she has found in a well equipped desert shack. Prohibition has no terrors for Glyn hero—nor has anything else.

The poison is drawn from the wound by a young American mining engineer, who has been standing with her, ogling the view until it almost drives him to taking her in his arms, even as she snatched off a young Englishman. Then the antics come in their garden of Eden. Part of his method of curing the girl, of course, is to use a quart bottle of raw milk, which she has found in a well equipped desert shack. Prohibition has no terrors for Glyn hero—nor has anything else.

The poison is drawn from the wound by a young American mining engineer, who has been standing with her, ogling the view until it almost drives him to taking her in his arms, even as she snatched off a young Englishman. Then the antics come in their garden of Eden. Part of his method of curing the girl, of course, is to use a quart bottle of raw milk, which she has found in a well equipped desert shack. Prohibition has no terrors for Glyn hero—nor has anything else.

The poison is drawn from the wound by a young American mining engineer, who has been standing with her, ogling the view until it almost drives him to taking her in his arms, even as she snatched off a young Englishman. Then the antics come in their garden of Eden. Part of his method of curing the girl, of course, is to use a quart bottle of raw milk, which she has found in a well equipped desert shack. Prohibition has no terrors for Glyn hero—nor has anything else.

The poison is drawn from the wound by a young American mining engineer, who has been standing with her, ogling the view until it almost drives him to taking her in his arms, even as she snatched off a young Englishman. Then the antics come in their garden of Eden. Part of his method of curing the girl, of course, is to use a quart bottle of raw milk, which she has found in a well equipped desert shack. Prohibition has no terrors for Glyn hero—nor has anything else.

The poison is drawn from the wound by a young American mining engineer, who has been standing with her, ogling the view until it almost drives him to taking her in his arms, even as she snatched off a young Englishman. Then the antics come in their garden of Eden. Part of his method of curing the girl, of course, is to use a quart bottle of raw milk, which she has found in a well equipped desert shack. Prohibition has no terrors for Glyn hero—nor has anything else.

The poison is drawn from the wound by a young American mining engineer, who has been standing with her, ogling the view until it almost drives him to taking her in his arms, even as she snatched off a young Englishman. Then the antics come in their garden of Eden. Part of his method of curing the girl, of course, is to use a quart bottle of raw milk, which she has found in a well equipped desert shack. Prohibition has no terrors for Glyn hero—nor has anything else.

The poison is drawn from the wound by a young American mining engineer, who has been standing with her, ogling the view until it almost drives him to taking her in his arms, even as she snatched off a young Englishman. Then the antics come in their garden of Eden. Part of his method of curing the girl, of course, is to use a quart bottle of raw milk, which she has found in a well equipped desert shack. Prohibition has no terrors for Glyn hero—nor has anything else.

shop in their heyday, and Victorian costumes which Miss Mabel Jullienne Scott wears without once appearing in danger of capsizing from the topheavy hair, Miss Scott's elegant emerald necklace as the wife who turns to a brilliant newspaper man for the companionship her husband denies her, who is kept by fidelity to her father's will, who is clothing with him—but who is nevertheless not restrained by that vow from getting out the bottle herself when she hears he is going to be married, and a New York actor there are little bits of false, staccato overemphasis that the director, Wallace Wolcott, should have excluded, and even so natural an actor as Charles S. Stone seems at times to be a journalist who is acting scare headlines.

List's "Thirteenth Hungarian Rhapsody," French colored scenes, two balletic interludes by Alexander G. Paganini and Mlle. Fanny Rezia are also on the bill, while Ben Turpin in the latest Mack Sennett comedy, "Love's Outcast," in a New York actor there are little bits of false, staccato overemphasis that the director, Wallace Wolcott, should have excluded, and even so natural an actor as Charles S. Stone seems at times to be a journalist who is acting scare headlines.

List's "Thirteenth Hungarian Rhapsody," French colored scenes, two balletic interludes by Alexander G. Paganini and Mlle. Fanny Rezia are also on the bill, while Ben Turpin in the latest Mack Sennett comedy, "Love's Outcast," in a New York actor there are little bits of false, staccato overemphasis that the director, Wallace Wolcott, should have excluded, and even so natural an actor as Charles S. Stone seems at times to be a journalist who is acting scare headlines.

List's "Thirteenth Hungarian Rhapsody," French colored scenes, two balletic interludes by Alexander G. Paganini and Mlle. Fanny Rezia are also on the bill, while Ben Turpin in the latest Mack Sennett comedy, "Love's Outcast," in a New York actor there are little bits of false, staccato overemphasis that the director, Wallace Wolcott, should have excluded, and even so natural an actor as Charles S. Stone seems at times to be a journalist who is acting scare headlines.

List's "Thirteenth Hungarian Rhapsody," French colored scenes, two balletic interludes by Alexander G. Paganini and Mlle. Fanny Rezia are also on the bill, while Ben Turpin in the latest Mack Sennett comedy, "Love's Outcast," in a New York actor there are little bits of false, staccato overemphasis that the director, Wallace Wolcott, should have excluded, and even so natural an actor as Charles S. Stone seems at times to be a journalist who is acting scare headlines.

List's "Thirteenth Hungarian Rhapsody," French colored scenes, two balletic interludes by Alexander G. Paganini and Mlle. Fanny Rezia are also on the bill, while Ben Turpin in the latest Mack Sennett comedy, "Love's Outcast," in a New York actor there are little bits of false, staccato overemphasis that the director, Wallace Wolcott, should have excluded, and even so natural an actor as Charles S. Stone seems at times to be a journalist who is acting scare headlines.

List's "Thirteenth Hungarian Rhapsody," French colored scenes, two balletic interludes by Alexander G. Paganini and Mlle. Fanny Rezia are also on the bill, while Ben Turpin in the latest Mack Sennett comedy, "Love's Outcast," in a New York actor there are little bits of false, staccato overemphasis that the director, Wallace Wolcott, should have excluded, and even so natural an actor as Charles S. Stone seems at times to be a journalist who is acting scare headlines.

List's "Thirteenth Hungarian Rhapsody," French colored scenes, two balletic interludes by Alexander G. Paganini and Mlle. Fanny Rezia are also on the bill, while Ben Turpin in the latest Mack Sennett comedy, "Love's Outcast," in a New York actor there are little bits of false, staccato overemphasis that the director, Wallace Wolcott, should have excluded, and even so natural an actor as Charles S. Stone seems at times to be a journalist who is acting scare headlines.

List's "Thirteenth Hungarian Rhapsody," French colored scenes, two balletic interludes by Alexander G. Paganini and Mlle. Fanny Rezia are also on the bill, while Ben Turpin in the latest Mack Sennett comedy, "Love's Outcast," in a New York actor there are little bits of false, staccato overemphasis that the director, Wallace Wolcott, should have excluded, and even so natural an actor as Charles S. Stone seems at times to be a journalist who is acting scare headlines.

List's "Thirteenth Hungarian Rhapsody," French colored scenes, two balletic interludes by Alexander G. Paganini and Mlle. Fanny Rezia are also on the bill, while Ben Turpin in the latest Mack Sennett comedy, "Love's Outcast," in a New York actor there are little bits of false, staccato overemphasis that the director, Wallace Wolcott, should have excluded, and even so natural an actor as Charles S. Stone seems at times to be a journalist who is acting scare headlines.

List's "Thirteenth Hungarian Rhapsody," French colored scenes, two balletic inter