

Above — Colonel Charles Beecher Warren, newly appointed Ambassador to Japan, photographed in Washington shortly after he had taken the oath of office at the State Department.
International.

British dreadnoughts that are to be sold for what they will bring, under the revised naval estimates. From left to right they are: Hercules, Colossus, Neptune, St. Vincent, Collingwood and Temeraire.
Underwood & Underwood.

At Right — H. M. S. Colossus, one of the huge British battleships which are to be scrapped, is shown firing a broadside while steaming at full speed.
Underwood & Underwood.

Premier Lloyd George works on holidays, too. The photograph shows him walking up and down with one of his secretaries at Chequers, the Prime Minister's country house, and puffing a pipe as he dictates.
International.

Photograph from the air of President Harding's home town, Marion, Ohio. The office of the Marion Star, the President's newspaper, is marked with an X.
International.

Above — Mrs. Mildred Clemens-Schenck of Berkeley, Cal., who is a cousin of the late Mark Twain, has been honored by the Royal Geographical Society as a result of her work in the distribution of geographical knowledge.
Wide World Photos.

Mrs. Frederick Dalziel, an American woman, has returned to civilization from a six months' hunting trip in what was formerly German East Africa. The photograph shows her beside a rhinoceros, which she killed as it charged.
International.