

This photograph, taken in the Legislative Council Chamber at Quebec, shows the formal investiture of Lord Byng as Governor General of Canada and commander in chief of Canadian forces. Capt. Balfour (at Lord Byng's right) is reading the King's warrant
International.

At left—Miss Peggy Perkins, as a balloon vender, at the annual street fair held for the benefit of Southampton's local hospital.
Wide World Photos.

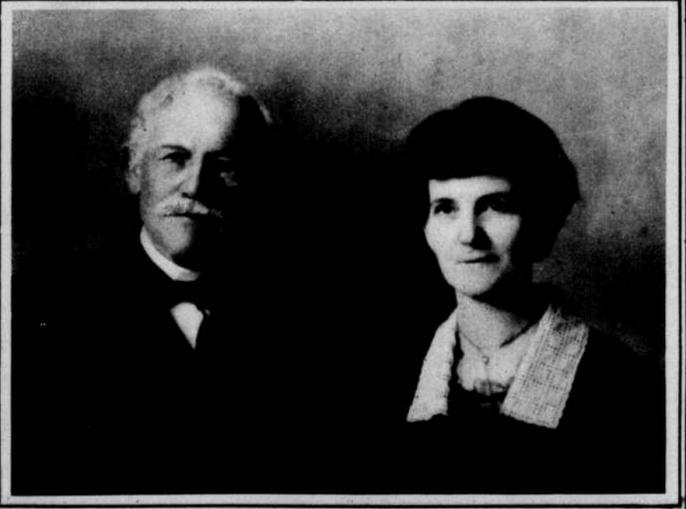

Mrs. M. H. Parsons of Eastern Point, Conn., photographed in the costume she wore at the Black and White ball given at the Griswold Hotel, New London.
Underwood & Underwood.

Above—Cardinal Mercier reading his address at the laying of the cornerstone of the library of Louvain. President Nicholas Murray Butler of Columbia is seated in the front row at the Cardinal's left.
Excelsior.

The procession, led by Cardinal Mercier, on the way to the cornerstone laying at Louvain. To the right of the Cardinal, in the order named, are the King of the Belgians, Queen Elizabeth, and the Prince of Monaco
Excelsior.

At right—Dr. George T. Harding, President Harding's father, and his bride, who was Miss Alice Severns, a nurse in his office. Dr. Harding is 76 years old. The wedding took place at Monroe, Mich.
(c) Vall, from Kadel & Herbert.

The Prince of Wales speaking at the unveiling in England of a monument to the Dover Patrol, which rendered valiant service in the war by guarding the passage of troops from England to France
Keystone View Co.

Mlle. Suzanne Lenglen, French tennis champion, photographed in action at the West Side Tennis Club at Forest Hills, Long Island.
International.

Another photograph of Mlle. Lenglen, taken on the occasion of her first appearance in the United States. Her remarkable lightness of foot, which contributes to her speed, is well shown in this picture.
International.