

Horse Show, Teas, Dances and Tennis at White Sulphur

Cotillon, Leap Year Ball and Masquerade Draw Crowds of Sojourners.

Special Despatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD.
WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va., Aug. 27.—The season is now at high tide here, the events of the week including a succession of balls, teas, bridge and sporting contests that are rounding out the summer in a whirl of activities. In the qualifying round of the Old White summer championship, which was followed with the greatest interest by the visitors, Frederick Snares of Englewood, N. J., turned in a medal of $3 for the eighteen holes and winning second place, Johnson M. Frazier of Philadelphia making low for the field with a card of 81. Others qualifying were Henry W. Taft, T. H. Watkins, H. C. Newland, George B. Thurnauer, T. Johnson Ward of Philadelphia and Dwight R. Meigs, head of the Hill School at Potstown and trophy winner for the Greenbrier summer championship in July.

The horse show held this week at Ronecverte in connection with the Greenbrier Valley fair was attended by a large crowd, many motoring over to see the entries of society folk from the resort. Miss Hope Bush, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irving T. Bush, rode in the three gaited saddle class, winning the blue ribbon. Lawrence Lewis won first prize for the jumpers, Miss Elizabeth Van Hagen of Chicago, a niece of Mr. and Mrs. Thornton Lewis, also winning a first.

Miss Nellie R. Farwell of New Orleans entertained this week at Kate's Mountain Club at one of the largest luncheons of the season, forty guests attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward R. Stettinius are returning this week.

Summer Championship Tennis.

A large gallery was out to watch the summer tennis championship games this week. Among the New York entries were Mrs. Arnold W. Koehler, Miss Hope Bush, Miss Gwendolyn King, Miss Marcel Burton, Miss Louise Iolin and A.
Maverick Graves, Garrett B. Wall, Jr., of Richmond was winner of the trophy, defeating Donald McLeod of Indianapolis in the last round.

The children's fancy dress ball, which is the last of a series of events for the junior visitors, was held on Thursday night, and was most successful, having an attendance of 500. Miss Ethel Roster of Norfolk gave a number of solo dances.

Mrs. George T. Smith and Miss Natalie Y. Smith entertained a large number of guests at cards and tea at the Casino this week. Among those present were Mrs. Henry W. Taft, William Sinclair, Charles D. Donohue, Oliver Harriman, Charles Hopper, L. Roberts, Ayres Hoffman and William Fleming.

The horse show cotillon, an attendant feature of the Greenbrier horse show, held at the Meadows, was attended by a large gathering. Mr. Thomas Paine of Atlanta led several of the figures with Miss Bess Haldeman of Louisville, who was also the partner of Judge Milton C. Elliott of Washington. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Harriman, Mr. and Mrs. James D. Weil of Charleston, Mr. and Mrs. Henry W.
Taft, Mr. and Mrs. Irving T. Bush and Miss Hope Bush, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest P. Iolin, Mr. and Mrs. George T.
Smith and William Rhinelander Stewart.

Another successful feature of the week was the Leap Year ball given on Tuesday night in the Old White, which was decorated with flowers and lanterns. It was attended by about seventy-five couples. Among those entertaining at the ball were Mrs. Ayres Hoffman, Mrs. L. W. Maverick and Miss Laura Maverick, Miss Gwendolyn King, Mrs. Charles Hopper, Mrs. Henry W. Taft, Miss Louise Iolin, Mrs. Leve-ronce Lewis of St. Augustine, the Misses Beas and Isabel Haldeman, Miss Marjorie Cowen and Miss Mary Miller Brown of Louisville.

Brilliant Masquerade Ball.

Mr. Alexander P. Witty of Louisville and Dr. John Freeland were the hosts at a masquerade ball given at the Casino this week in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Monahan of Louisville.
The entertainment was one of the most brilliant of midsummer, 200 guests dancing in the ballroom, which was beautifully lighted, and having a buffet supper on the veranda at midnight.

Miss Hope Bush wore a Spanish costume with mantilla and shawl. Other masqueraders were J. E. Borden Harriman, John Harriman, Miss Natalie Smith, Miss Stella Bonediet, John S. Cohen, editor of the Atlanta Journal, his daughter, Miss Mary Clarke Cohen, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Paine of Atlanta, Miss Douglas Paine and Mrs. Kenna Elkins of Washington.

Dr. Freeland also entertained at Kate's Mountain Club in honor of his friend, Mrs. William Fitz Hugh Lee of Richmond, and Mrs. Joseph J. Washington. The tea was attended by about seventy-five guests, including Justice and Mrs. Edmund Washburn, Mrs. Thomas M. Rutherford, Mrs. Venable Boykin of Richmond, Mrs. Michajah Woods of Nashville, Mrs. Louis McLane Tiffany, Mrs. Alexander Brown, Mrs. William Jones, Mr. and Mrs. De Courcy Thoro of Baltimore, Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Taft, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Harriman, Mr. and Mrs. George T. Smith, Mr. and Mrs.
Ernest P. Iolin and Senator and Mrs.
Simon Guggenheilm.

Several brides and luncheon parties were given during the week. Mrs. William Watson of Baltimore entertained at luncheon at Elmhurst Farm a party of eleven, including Mrs. Andrew Melville Rolt of Baltimore, the aunt of Gen.
Joffre. Miss Mary E. Maxwell of Washington was hostess to a party of twelve luncheon on the Casino lawn during the Saturday concert. A luncheon at Elmhurst Farm was given by Mrs. Pearl Lewis of Norfolk to a party of twelve, including Mrs.
Taswell Taylor, Mrs. R. T. Thoro of Norfolk, Miss Elizabeth Lowndes of Cumberland, Mrs. Leavelle MacCampbell of Louisville and Mrs. George W. Rus-ling of Baltimore.

One of the largest entertainments was that given by Mrs. Thomas M. Rutherford of Richmond, who was hostess at a morning brides and luncheon.
Mr. and Mrs. Richard N. Cadwalder, who were here four weeks ago with Charles M. B. Cadwalder, have rejoined the Philadelphia colony for a short time.
Mrs. Archibald McCrea and Miss Margaret Dunlop have joined the New York circle here.

New French
Beaded Bags
$10

(Tax Additional)

An almost unbelievable low price for these smart and lovely beaded bags.

We were fortunate in securing imported bags of such quality to sell at a price we have not seen equalled in several years.

The coloring is unflinchingly tasteful, soft and subdued in tone, with wide use of the new blues, reds and browns.

Durable linings of changeable silk are completed by an inside mirror and shirred pockets.

Four styles include the melon, pictured above and square, with frames, at left below, also the pouch, pictured below, and draw string, sketched at the right, each in a new and charming version.

The new panier

Newly Imported Laces

From Which to Fashion
The Loveliest Gowns

Lacier and still more lacy!
Such is the dictum of fashion for the most beautiful gowns of Fall and Winter. This importation of lace flouncings and bandings presents an exquisite variety in colors light and dark.

Cire Metal Laces

Paris is using these silver and old gold laces for her new capes and evening gowns, reveling in the richness of design and quality. 36 inches wide yard $16.50

Metal Flouncings

On metal meshes, thin as a spider's web, Paris embroiders beautiful designs in Cire metal or silk. Silver and gold are varied by bright colors.
All display the uneven hem line. 10 to 36 inches wide.
Yard, $2.75 to $15

Spanish Laces

Most recent of the recent arrivals—these flouncings and bandings that reveal the Spanish influence in design and color. Nickel embroidery on a navy blue mesh; two shades of blue, two of rose or henna—these are suggestive of their charm.

Widths from 9 to 36 inches.
Bandings $1.25 to $3.95 yard Flounces $3.95 to $7.95 yard

Bohemian Laces

Genuine Bohemian patterns are made up for the first time in silver and old gold flouncings. These are very, very new and oh! so charming. Other lovely Bohemian laces are developed in the newest colors, cornflower or King blue, rust, pongee. Some favor the panel effect and uneven hem line, others new Van Dyck designs.

Spain Again!

This time it is in alluring colors, both the dull rich shades and soft pastel colors $3.95 to $7.95

Black Chantilly

Beautiful lace flouncings in many new designs, 36 inches wide.
$3.95 to $7.75 Yard

Chantilly Shawls

Paris smiles with favor upon this new fashion in capes. They are black, of course, and very graceful . . . $28

Spanish Shawls

Another favorite of Paris for capes.
These are black too, but they are square with hand-run designs. $35

Correct Tweed Suits for Women and Misses are Emphatic Values at $38

The tailored suits that are being so widely sought after by women, for town and country wear and by misses for school wardrobes, are offered in an important Sale tomorrow morning, $38.

There are 10 different models—correct for street and sports wear. The shades are blue, brown, grey and henna.

Even an English tailor would approve the cuts, the tailoring and the materials—tweeds, mixtures and homespuns, the majority of which are imported fabrics.

We believe these values to be exceptional and know them to be considerably below the price of comparable suits a few months ago.
