

LABOR TO SEE HOW ITS SAVINGS WORK

Inquiry Into Insurance Firms and Banks Ordered by A. F. L. Council.

'MAN, NOT DOLLAR, FIRST'

Big Non-Partisan Political Body to Take Part in Elections Over Nation.

Special Despatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD. ATLANTIC CITY, Aug. 27.—Methods of banks and insurance companies in handling funds entrusted to them for investment and saving by wage earners will be investigated by the executive council of the American Federation of Labor.

The council intends that the savings of the workers shall no longer be used to deprive them of their constitutional and economic rights and opportunities, said a statement, adding that the time for subjecting big corporations to the closest scrutiny has arrived.

The council in the afternoon contemplated financial, commercial and industrial corporations, especially those employing large working forces. It approved of granting charters to corporate undertakings and praised accomplishments of corporations which could not have been realized by individual effort or enterprise. It denounced attempts being made to block further application of the principle of cooperation in business life, complaining "that wage earners are denied the rights and privileges that are enjoyed by those in control of the corporate wealth of the nation."

"Corporate industries," the statement continued, "presents the situation of where those corporate organizations of industry receive every possible protection and encouragement from the Government where the wage earners receive only discouragement and are met on every hand with the active hostility on the part of those entrusted with the sacred function of administering our affairs of Government in an impartial and human way."

The organized wage earners do not alone protest against this intolerable and inhuman discrimination, but assert that if preference is to be given to any element or factor in our social and industrial life that labor, not capital—service not wealth—man not the dollar, should receive that higher consideration, encouragement and protection.

"In order that corporate industries conducted under corporate grants shall be operated for the common good and not merely for the profit of a class and the executive council proposes to investigate this entire subject so that the people of our land may be fully and accurately apprised of the real situation of affairs and so that a comprehensive plan may be advanced for the correction of the grave dangers and great evils that have fastened themselves like barnacles upon our people."

A considerable portion of the statement dealt with collective bargaining and the rights of wage earners to form and affiliate with unions, and it declared that "to deny such rights to workmen is a perversion, misuse and abuse of corporate power never contemplated in the original conception underlying the granting of corporate charters."

After referring to the Kansas Court of Industrial Relations statute as "a clear violation of the constitutional rights of the wage earners to freedom of contract," the council said it will give "careful review and analysis" to all such laws and legal doctrines with a view to having all anti-combination law and "conspiracy doctrines" attacking the rights of workmen removed from statute books.

For Political Organization.
A permanent "non-partisan political campaign organization" will be formed by organized labor, it was announced. Work will start immediately on plans to make the organization nationwide.

The organization, according to the authoritative announcement, will function in all local, State and national elections. The campaign committee will be in Washington. The programme for perfecting the organization will be made public soon. The federation by this means hopes to take a prominent part in the elections and obtain recognition as such a factor.

MAYORALTY RIVALS END WEEK ACTIVELY

Curran Confident; La Guardia, Haskell and Bennett Deny Declinations.

LOCKWOOD CINCH GROWS

Senator Seems Sure to Have Practically Clear Field in G. O. P. Primaries.

The several independent candidates for the Republican nomination for Mayor wound up the week with strenuous campaigning, to inspire their forces to make as bold a showing as possible just before the final day for declarations. Those efforts were directed mostly to the purpose of impressing one another, according to political speculation, in order to hold a position of advantage in event of any last minute effort at a fusion of the independent candidates for a solid front against the Republican-Coalition ticket.

Each candidate, F. H. La Guardia, President of the Board of Aldermen, Judge Reuben L. Haskell and former Senator William M. Bennett, maintained stoutly yesterday that nothing less than war to the bitter end would suit them, despite current reports that their declaration day will see one or more of them out of the running.

The Republican-Coalitionists devoted part of yesterday to preparation for a continuation of speaking campaigns this week, and apparently were not excited about the activities of the independents. The waning of what little opposition there was to Senator Charles C. Lockwood, Republican-Coalition designee for Comptroller, indicated that Senator Lockwood virtually will have a clear field. Although Judge Haskell declared he would not give his support the competition of the Haskell and Bennett men for Comptroller is not regarded seriously in the Republican-Coalition camp.

2 ALDERMEN QUIT RACE FOR NEW MAN

Compromise Candidate Will Be Chosen in Third District by Tammany Club.

EX-SERVICE MAN WANTED

McCourt and Roberts Unable to Get Murphy to Choose Between Them.

Exercises commemorating the 145th anniversary of the battle of Long Island were held yesterday under the auspices of the Long Island Historical Society in the Music Grove, Prospect Park, Brooklyn. Francis P. Bent, who spoke as the representative of Mayor Hylan, made flattering mention of the Mayor in his address.

"There are Tories in the present time as there were in the days of the Revolution who are trying to tie this country up to foreign nations," said Mr. Bent. "Rather than follow the policy that was advised by Washington, that they should at all times beware of foreign entanglements, they care not what is for the best interests of the great mass of people."

"As in those times, too, we find leaders who are trying to work for the interests of the people. I think you will agree with me that the greatest friend the people in New York have seen for many a day is John P. Hylan."

Other speakers were Herbert L. Bridgman, one of the Regents of the State, whose topic was "The Battle of Long Island," and Col. L. R. Burgess, C. A. C., in command of the Fort Hamilton army post.

2 ALDERMEN QUIT RACE FOR NEW MAN

Compromise Candidate Will Be Chosen in Third District by Tammany Club.

EX-SERVICE MAN WANTED

McCourt and Roberts Unable to Get Murphy to Choose Between Them.

The only contest over Charles F. Murphy's phone booth ticket which met with Murphy's approval, was eliminated yesterday when it was announced that Alderman Stephen F. Roberts of the old Third District and Alderman John F. McCourt of the old Fifth District had filed their declinations for renomination in order to make way for a compromise candidate. The new candidate will be selected at a meeting to-morrow night at the Democratic clubhouse at 301 West Twelfth street.

It was predicted yesterday that the selection will be an ex-soldier, though what his name is could not be learned. The committee on vacancies which will decide is composed of Frank J. Goodwin, William Dalton and Charles W. Calkin. The candidate, under the rotation agreement of the triplicate leadership of the district, will come from Calkin's territory.

The contest between Roberts and McCourt was friendly from the first and was precipitated by the relocation of Aldermanic district lines by the last session of the Legislature, so that both Aldermen were thrown into the same district, the new Third district. The Aldermen put the problem up to Murphy to decide which should run, but, both being good Tammany Aldermen, Murphy refused to settle the matter and told them to fight it out in the primary. Finally Roberts and McCourt decided to solve the question by withdrawing in favor of a new candidate.

Other contests of which Murphy is said to disapprove strongly, however, are gaining such momentum that the insurgents said yesterday Murphy is getting alarmed. Joseph Shiflet, manager for James J. Hines, Eleventh Assembly District leader, who is out to defeat Murphy's phone booth designee for President of the Borough of Manhattan, said that by way of letting the public know who's who, he made a direct challenge to Arthur H. Murphy, which he had contracted was "not available." Shiflet charged also that he wrote in the "copy" for the poster the question: Are you going to let Murphy pick a candidate for you? When the proof came, he said, it had been changed to read: Are you going to let Tammany pick a candidate for you?

Patrick J. Kane, Democratic leader of the Third Assembly District, The Bronx, who is running independently against the machine selection for Sheriff of Bronx County, announced yesterday that all efforts to get him out of the race would be unavailing. His candidacy is looked upon as a direct challenge to Arthur H. Murphy, Democratic leader of The Bronx.

A revolt in Brooklyn which apparently was quelled when the Board of Elections refused to permit the names of John H. Smith and Michael F. Buckley, insurgent candidates respectively for Register and Sheriff of Kings County, to go on the ticket, bobbed up again yesterday. The insurgents obtained from Justice Frank S. Gannon, of the Supreme Court, an order requiring the Board of Elections to show cause why their names should not be reinstated on the board's list of candidates. A board contended that their petitions lack a sufficient number of valid signatures.

G. O. P. AT HARMONY IN ESSEX COUNTY

Naming of L. F. Dodd for Freeholder Ends Friction of Many Years.

WETS AND DRYS AT ODDS

Solid Party Front Now Is Seen at the Primaries Next Month.

Harmony was established yesterday in Republican ranks of Essex county, N. J., for the first time in many years, through the selection of Louis F. Dodd, former Mayor of Montclair, and vice-chairman of the Republican County Committee, for Freeholder. The County Committee and the Republican League, representing the wet and dry factions, respectively, of Republican politics in Essex county, had been at odds for more than a month over the selection of a third candidate for Freeholder. The designation of Mr. Dodd affected a unity between the factions, which assures a solid Republican front at the primary polls next month.

Although the selection of Mr. Dodd gives the two factions a complete slate and eliminates the possibility of a fight between them, attack from another direction was sensed when the name of Robertson S. Ward, leather merchant of Newark, was mentioned in connection with another ticket that may be put in the field by anti-prohibition forces. A meeting will be held Tuesday evening, at which this "new ticket," which, it is said, will have the backing of City Commissioner Thomas L. Raymond, Director of Public Improvements, will be discussed. The Republican designees for Freeholder are Ernest A. Reed of Newark, Mrs. Elizabeth A. Harris of Glen Ridge and Mr. Dodd. Lewis G. Bowden, City Supervisor, was designated for reelection. Mr. Dodd was the Republican League's candidate for County Chairman when Jesse R. Salmon was elected to the position. There was but one vacancy on the ticket announced by Mr. Salmon, and that was on the Assembly slate, which, by agreement, will be filled by the County Committee.

Republican leaders of Essex county refused to take seriously the hint that Mr. Ward might enter the primaries as the head of an anti-prohibition ticket. They pointed out that his so doing would be foolhardy, as he would have the combined forces of the County Committee and the Republican League against him, with the result that success at the polls virtually would be impossible.

Blue Salon Third Floor Annex

Parisian Hats For Fall

Assembled in the Blue Salon For First Showing

Fresh from France—just off the liner, Paris—has come one of the largest and most beautiful collections of French Chapeaux we have imported.

You are cordially invited to the exhibition of these chapeaux in our Blue Salon, beginning Monday, the twenty-ninth.

Each model in the collection is a choice creation selected personally by our buyer from some exclusive Parisian modiste. All, though inimitably French, are wearable types that require no modification to the American woman's taste.

Many are of tailored feeling. Others are demidress affairs or strictly formal in appearance. Dark tones for street, afternoon and evening wear are prominent, though many of the hats are richly colorful, revealing those unusual, glorious hues that only Paris can devise.
