

Three aged members of the party that sailed from New York last week on the way to Palestine. They are taking with them agricultural implements and other supplies valued at $200,000.

Underwood & Underwood.

President Harding being congratulated on his election to the presidency of the American Red Cross by Dr. Livingston Farrand. In the group, from left to right, are Surgeon General Ireland, Dr. Farrand, the President, Elliot Wadsworth and Admiral E. R. Stitt.

(c) Harris & Ewing.

President Thomas A. Masaryk of Czechoslovakia delivering an address in Prague on the return of Czechoslovak legionaries.

W. Gircke.

A recent photograph of Hugo Stinnes, German industrial magnate, who has active agents in the United States, showing him walking in Berlin with a companion.

The Polish city of Lemberg, grateful for the labors of the American Relief Administration, conferred honorary citizenship on Chairman Herbert Hoover. It was accepted for Mr. Hoover by M. W. Gwynn, chief of the Polish mission, who is in the centre of the picture. Archbishop Bilewski is at the right.

American Relief Administration.

A new photograph of Dr. Wirth, the German Chancellor.

Russian children being fed by American Friends' Service Committee in Moscow. Throughout the former Russian Empire there are, according to relief workers, 25,000,000 children in need.

© Y. W. C. A. Photo Service.

Above — Gray Samaritans who are returning to Poland to resume relief work. Right to left: Miss Tapping, Miss Kopec, Miss Kosobucka, Miss Andrejewake, Mrs. Bremer, Miss Krutewicz, Miss Michalowska, Miss Tarkowska.

At left — Walter Lyman Brown, who, by agreement with Maxim Litvinoff in behalf of the Soviet Government, has begun the work of distributing American relief supplies to Russia's starving millions.

Keystone View Co.