

Above—American balloonists who sailed on the Finland for Belgium to compete in the international race for the James Gordon Bennett trophy. From left to right: Willard B. Seiberling, Ward T. Van Orman, Bernard T. Homan, Ralph H. Upson, C. G. Andrus and J. S. McKibben.

This view of the superdreadnought Washington shows her on the ways of the New York Shipbuilding Corporation, Camden, N. J., ready for launching. She is electrically propelled, displaces 33,000 tons and is designed to make twenty-one knots. Her main battery consists of eight 16 inch guns. N. Y. Shipbuilding Corp.

At Left—Swearing in the new Ulster Government. From left to right: Rt. Hon. T. W. Brown, Attorney General; Rt. Hon. Denis Henry, Lord Chief Justice, Northern Ireland; Gerald Horan, K. C., Clerk of the Crown; Lord Chancellor Sir John Ross. Underwood & Underwood.

Mrs. De Valera, wife of the Irish Republican leader, opened the Garden of Ireland bazaar at Delgany, County Wicklow. She is walking with Father Seannell. Underwood & Underwood.

Sir Edward and Lady Carson, photographed at a cricket match held at Canterbury, England. The Ulster leader is at present more or less of a spectator of events in Ireland. (c) Keystone View Co.

Above—Mr. and Mrs. E. Berry Wall of New York and Paris among the promenaders on the boardwalk at Deauville. Underwood & Underwood.

Among the contestants in a recent tournament of writers and artists at the Pelham Club were Grantland Rice, J. G. Anderson and Irvin S. Cobb, who are shown in the order named, from left to right. Mr. Cobb is driving from the ninth tee. Edwin Levick.

Moslems in England, who include men of many races, recently celebrated the sacrifice of Abraham, the great Mohammedan festival. The photograph shows Lord Headley, head of the English Moslems, talking to a fellow Mohammedan. Underwood & Underwood.

At Left—Wilhelm Cuno, general manager of the Hamburg-American Steamship Company, who denies that he will be appointed either German Finance Minister or Ambassador to the United States. (c) A. L. Pach.