MRS. KELLY GOULD BACK TO FIGHT DIVORCE AND ACT AGAIN

Announces She Will Appear With English Company in 'Needles and Pins.'

Mrs. Edith Kelly Gould arrived yesterday by the United States Line's steamship Panhandle from London to appear in court proceedings for the reopening of her litigation to try to prove that she is still the wife of Frank Gould, who got a divorce in France, which was sustained here by a ruling of Justice Munson.

Copyright Keystone. Mrs. Edith Kelly Gould.

Eugene E. Sperry, attorney for Mrs. Gould, announced yesterday that a motion will be made in the Supreme Court to-morrow for leave to amend the reply in the notice of divorce which she brought in this State and which was dismissed because her husband had already obtained a divorce in France. The judgment of dismissal was granted on the pleading in the divorce which she brought in this State and which was dismissed because her husband had already obtained a divorce in France. The judgment of dismissal was granted on the pleading in the divorce which she brought in this State and which was dismissed because her husband had already obtained a divorce in France.

Mr. de Courville said he is bringing over the same number of the original London cast to support Mrs. Kelly, who, he declared, had lost none of the vivacity which made her attractive to New York audiences in "Havana" and "Cavito" and elsewhere more than a dozen years ago. It was about that time her romance with Mr. Gould, a son of Jay Gould, culminated in their marriage. Mrs. Gould retired from the stage and lived much of the time abroad with her husband in France until their separation and divorce.

Two European musicians of note were among the passengers arriving yesterday on board the Mancharita of the American Line. Arthur Schlabach, a Viennese pianist, who intended to make his first visit here in 1914 but was prevented by the war, arrived to appear in several concerts throughout the city. During the war he appeared in the neutral countries and recently was in Sweden and Norway, his last concert being given in Christiania. His program at Carnegie Hall, where he will make his debut Christmas Day, will be a romantic one, he said, with selections from Schumann, Schubert and Brahms.

Jean Aron of Paris arrived for the first time in New York, Montevideo and Buenos Aires to-day. The officers of the ship have provided accessories for a Christmas celebration at sea.

Among the passengers will be the French actress, Mlle. Yvonne, the French banker, and Mrs. Von Hemert; Dr. C. R. Radmore, Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Bowring, Mrs. James Byrne, Mrs. W. T. Carrington, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Corlies, George Doubleday, John H. Iselin, Mrs. Charles E. Miller and Mrs. H. T. Shelton of New York; John F. Freeman, Jr., of Providence; David F. Houston, Jr., of Washington and St. Louis; Mrs. Richard Russell of Boston, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Munson and Robert W. Wigton of Philadelphia.

The Huron of the Munson Line will sail for Rio de Janeiro, Montevideo and Buenos Aires to-day. The officers of the ship have provided accessories for a Christmas celebration at sea.

The detention at Ellis Island of more than 1,300 immigrants because the quotas of their countries under the American immigration law have been exceeded, was one of the chief themes discussed yesterday at a long and earnest conference at the island between Robert E. Tod, Commissioner of Immigration; James J. Davis, Secretary of Labor, and W. W. Hubbard, Commissioner-General of Immigration. Secretary Davis intimated that it would take some time to consider not only this problem but others relating to increasing the efficiency of the immigration station here.

Before the discussion Secretary Davis and his subordinates made an inspection of the island. The Secretary learned that it was likely a partying throng of about 1,700 would be on the island on Christmas Day, and doubtless many also would be held on incoming ships. The immigrants of the Italian steamship Regina d'Italia, which arrived on Monday, were landed at the island yesterday. They are a fine looking lot, taken as a whole, and nearly all of the 1,600 were admitted. The quota for Italy for the fiscal year ending next June probably would be filled within a month or so and there might be five months in which Italian immigration would be completely suspended.

The White Star liner Cedric's immigrants, about 200, also passed through the Harge Office portals yesterday, reducing to about 1,600 the number of immigrants detained aboard ship at Ellis. Most of the Cedric's immigrants were British, and there is little probability of folks of this class coming swiftly enough to exceed the rather large allowance for the British Isles. In regard to the imposition of fines on steamship lines responsible for bringing in immigrants from countries whose quotas have been exceeded, Secretary Davis did not care to say anything. This, it is believed, was another subject discussed at the conference.

Christmas Day on the island will be marked by a festival supervised by Commissioner Tod. A Christmas tree almost forty feet tall was taken to the island yesterday and will be trimmed to-day by well-wishers who will present to-morrow, kindergarten day, to the detained children toys, candy, fruit and clothing.

How a Finance Committee Can Afford to guarantee a college, a hospital, or a missionary society that it will never lose any of the principal that the committee invests for it.

There is only one way that is safe. It is not only safe, but it is much wiser and less wearing than to take the responsibility of investing in fluctuating, even if gilt-edged, bonds.

The way is to buy First Mortgages with principal and interest guaranteed by the Bond and Mortgage Guarantee Company (Capital and Surplus $12,000,000).

More than 100,000 persons and individuals have bought more than $700,000,000 of these mortgages during the past thirty years and have never lost a single dollar. This Company sells upwards of $50,000,000 a year, always has them on hand, and can start interest on the investment immediately.

DR. LORENZ GAINING STRENGTH IN AMERICA Says He Now Is Able to Get Along With Food Here.

Seventy-five cripples, most of them children, were examined yesterday by Dr. Adolf Lorenz at the Brooklyn building of the Health Department, Flatbush avenue extension and Willoughby street. The next clinic will be at the Health Department Building at 505 Pearl street to-morrow morning. Many who went to see Dr. Lorenz were disappointed, but were told to return to-day for an elimination clinic. Cases not regarded as particularly suited for Dr. Lorenz will be referred to other surgeons. Dr. Lorenz said at night at the Murray Hill Hotel that he was feeling stronger; that the food was agreeing with him better than at first, and that he was beginning to take a keener pleasure in his visit.

SPECIAL MILK STRIKE REPORT IS CRITICIZED Nathans Says Aldermen Do Not Get the Facts.

I. Elkin Nathans, secretary of the New York Milk Conference Board, yesterday criticized the report made to the Board of Aldermen by the special committee investigating the milk strike as misleading to the public. He said the distributors no longer recognized the existence of a strike. Since 8,700 men are employed by the affected companies, while slightly over 8,000 were employed before the walkout on November 1. He asserted that but 288 police are now assigned to milk strikes, which were only lightly touched on at the public hearings which it conducted.
