The January Sale of White

Begins Tuesday With Values and Selections Unequaled in Years

THE unprecedented preparations which have been made for this event insure a muslin-wear sale that will delight every woman in the Greater City. The savings are great, for in every instance the A. & S. January Sale of White has proven itself to be the greatest event of its kind of the season—for PRICES, for VARIETY, and for QUALITY—and when we feel we can say "This is the greatest of them," we know we have accomplished much.

THE 1922 January Sale of White promises to be better and bigger in every sense than any of its predecessors—our old stocks are cleaned away by pre-White Sale Clearances—and every bit of merchandise in this great Sale is new and crisp and desirable. The Prices are new and we believe them to be the lowest for the quality given in all New York. Thus, we introduce the Greatest of White Sales.

Tuesday Is the First Day of the Great

January Clearance of Domestic Rugs

at Savings of 20% to 30%

IMMEDIATELY after inventory (December 31) we close out from our stocks all the odd rugs at very low prices. This event is yearly, and Tuesday will be the first day of this big event for 1922. This sale is specially noteworthy this year owing to the fact that the assortments are more complete—some discontinued patterns are included and some rugs that have been in stock too long. Every rug is PERFECT and fully worth its regular price.
