idea venture is the belief that it provides a technical avenue of escape from his repeated objections to previous undertakings.

HARDING WARNED FORDNEY AGAINST ANY BONUS LOAN

Special Dispatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD

Bonus Congressmen assert that by "postponing" the actual read of the Treasury for three years they will be adhering to the spirit, if not the letter, of the President's recommendation that the bonus project be laid aside unless a sales tax feature is included in it.

In his letter to Chairman Fordney on February 16 President Harding suggested the adoption of a sales tax and the postponement of bonus legislation. The sales tax suggestion already has been rejected.

In expressing his objection to the issue of additional Treasury notes as provided in the latest bonus project the President said: "Inasmuch as the Treasury is to be called upon to meet more than $6,000,000,000 of maturing obligations in the sixteen months immediately before us, it is not possible to recommend the issue of several hundred millions of additional short time notes."

"Further excessive borrowing would likely undo all that has been accomplished in readjusting interest rates and stabilizing the financial world, both vitally essential to the resumption of industrial and commercial activities."

and bear a rate of interest of 4 1/2 per cent. compounded annually. "In case of the death of the soldier the full amount of the value of the policy at the end of twenty years shall be due to the beneficiaries and payable on the date of the soldier's death."

"Cash will be paid to the soldier who is to receive less than $50. "All other provisions in the bill as originally introduced remain unchanged except a few minor particulars which are beneficial to the soldiers."

Three Benefits Emphasized. "In this change in the bill are found three especially beneficial provisions. It will give the soldier a larger opportunity to secure a larger lump sum of money than they would have been able to do under the provisions of the bill in its original form; it imposes no immediate burden upon the Federal Treasury and it will impose no additional taxes upon the people."

"It is hoped and believed that when these insurance certificates become due and payable the money may be obtained by the sale of public property and securities owned by the Federal Government and without any special charge on the Treasury. This plan seems to meet the approval of the members of the House of Representatives as well as the public generally."

Mr. Fordney's statement that the latest bonus scheme "meets the general approval of the public" was not confirmed by members of the two houses, who are beginning to hear from the folks back home. Many hundreds of telegrams were delivered to Senators and Representatives, many of them emphasizing objections to the bonus raid on general principles but specifically condemning the latest scheme developed to finance it.

Another change made in the bill was that the highest rate of interest that can be charged by banks shall not exceed 2 per cent. above the 4 1/2 per cent. which the certificates will bear, and which will be compounded annually.

Not Bothered About Final Cost. Just how much money the new bonus enterprise would cost the Government at the end of twenty years, the date of maturity proposed, none of the members of the committee has tried to figure out. They are not interested in that phase of the problem. Another feature which is not really regarded as important is the framing of a provision to prevent the certificates from falling into the hands of pawnbrokers, loan sharks and usurers. That is going to be done, according to the members of the committee, but just how is "something else."

Another criticism which will have to be met will be to devise some method for compelling banks to lend money on the certificates when their resources will not permit it. Then the only way open to a soldier demanding immediate cash would be that he will have to look for a market elsewhere until he can present his certificate to the Treasury Department at the end of three years and get a loan of 85 per cent. of it.

Analyzed from various points, financial experts expressed their doubt as to the ability of the committee to frame a safeguard that would prevent a soldier holding a certificate from selling his own property to the best available purchaser. It is quite probable that the certificates may be made non-transferable and non-negotiable.

If this is done and a soldier cannot negotiate a loan with a bank he will be confronted with one of two other alternatives. One will be to keep his certificate for three years, when he can take it to the Treasury. The other is to make a private deal with a pawnbroker, usurer or loan shark and pay a bonus out of his Government bonus for the "accommodation" he is not able to obtain at a bank.

Loose Ends Admitted. Members of the committee admitted this afternoon that the new bonus venture is far from perfect. They concede the existence of many "loose ends" and the development of unexpected problems that were not revealed until the scheme was subjected to expert analysis.

The only information forthcoming from Mr. Fordney this afternoon left much to be desired in the way of explanation according to Treasury officials and independent financial experts. What Mr. Fordney said was this: "In a full meeting of the majority of the members of the Ways and Means Committee a unanimous agreement was reached on the bonus bill. "Substitute for the cash provision of the bill as introduced the following provisions: That the certificate of insurance shall have a loan value of 50 per cent. above the compensation value from the date of issue if presented to any national bank or trust company or bank organized under State laws. The highest rate of interest that can be charged by the banks under the provisions of the bill shall not exceed 2 per cent. above the rate charged by the Federal Reserve Bank in ninety day loans in the district where such loans are made. This safeguards the soldiers' rights and prevents usury."

"These loans will not extend beyond a period of three years, or the maximum date of February 28, 1925, on the date which time the holder of the certificate may borrow not to exceed 85 per cent. of its value from the Federal Government. The certificates are to run twenty years from their dates

BOSTON DEPOSITORS SAVED. Court Orders Transfer of Large Sum to Prudential Trust.

Boston, March 3.—The savings depositors of the Prudential Trust Company, with claims amounting to about $1,000,000, are assured of payment almost in full as the result of a decision by the Supreme Court to-day. The court directed the transfer from the commercial department to the savings department of $28,419 that had been shifted to keep the commercial department going.

The court held that this transfer was without regard to requirements of law, adding that the savings department trust company acts in the capacity of trustee.

BANKERS SAY BONUS PLAN VIOLATES LAW

Free State President Forced to Flee—Annexation to Italy Next Step.

Rome, March 3 (Associated Press).—The Italian Nationalists (Fascisti), headed by Deputy Giunta, to-day attacked the Government palace in Rome. They fired twenty cannon shots into the building, whereupon those besieged in the palace hoisted the flag of surrender. Giunta gave them three minutes in which to surrender unconditionally. President Zanelli was then obliged to yield.

Later Zanelli issued the following declaration: "As a result of to-day's events, which have compelled me to surrender to the revolutionary forces, I have resigned my office as President of the city and have formed a national citizens' committee of defense which stood up to this movement."

Former legionnaires from Fiume, led by Gabriele D'Annunzio, have telegraphed D'Annunzio to come to Rome Sunday to participate in a procession. The procession will march to the tomb of Italy's Unlucky Soldier, the late General Giuseppe Garibaldi, who was proclaimed by the demonstrators.

Reports received by the Giornale d'Italia say the Fascist revolutionaries are in the city and have formed a Government. The Zanella police attempted a sortie from the palace but were repulsed and the palace then was besieged.

A Fiume dispatch to the Stefani Agency says that the committee of national defense has issued a proclamation reading: "In consequence of the capitulation of the Provisional Government, which occurred Friday after severe fighting from Fiume, the Provisional Government declares the Provisional Government and constituent assembly are definitely dissolved."

The committee has assumed full powers conferred on it by the official head of the Government of Fiume and has entrusted maintenance of order and security to the carabinieri and Royal Guards and requested the Italian Government to assure administration of the city by the appointment of a representative who alone would be in a position to guarantee order and tranquility.

Italian troops now are maintaining order in Fiume and a national guard of armed citizens has been formed. Public services will be resumed tomorrow.

FLORENCE, Italy, March 3 (Associated Press).—Theodore Paolucci, in a demonstration to-day on behalf of the members of their party in Fiume, stoned the Serbian Consulate, smashed the windows of the Italian Legation and over a door, meanwhile shouting "Viva Fiume, Viva Italy." Royal Guards finally dispersed the mob.

HARDING DECLINES TO INFORM SENATE Will Not Reveal Instructions to Gen. Russell.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—President Harding, in a communication to the Senate to-day, declined to make public the specific instructions given to Brig. Gen. John H. Russell of the Marine Corps, who recently was appointed American High Commissioner to Haiti, on the ground that it would not be compatible with public interest.

President Harding forwarded to the Senate the communication issued to Gen. Russell and added: "The information conveyed will satisfactorily convey such information as the Senate desires, because I very respectfully submit that it would not be compatible with public interest to make public the specific instructions under which he (Gen. Russell) is charged with the performance of his duties as American High Commissioner."

DEMOCRATIC DEFENSE FOR HAYS UNDER ATTACK Retiring Cabinet Official Is Called a Disappointment.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—An attack on Postmaster-General Hays was made to-day by Representative Carl G. Ausburn (Ill.), Republican, who declared the retiring Cabinet officer "has been the one disappointment of the first year of the Republican Administration."

"To-day marks the close of the career of Mr. Will Hays as a member of the Cabinet," said Representative Ausburn, "and it is a day of thanksgiving and rejoicing."

Representative Blanton (Texas), Democrat, and Representative Field (Ind.), Republican, came to the defense of the retiring Postmaster-General, and praised his services as a Cabinet official. Mr. Blanton declared Mr. Hays was being "stabbed in the back" by members of his own party, who should congratulate themselves on having had him at the head of the Post Office Department.

Mr. Fairfield contended that both as a private citizen and as a public official Mr. Hays had shown himself to be of the highest caliber.

CARRIED UNCONSCIOUS TO GALLOW'S; HANGED Church Practically Dead When Trap Was Sprung.

Special Dispatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD. Chicago, March 3.—Seminarily unconscious, Harvey W. Church was carried into the gallows this afternoon and there languished for the murder of Bernard J. Dougherty and Carl O. Ausburn.

The stupor which spared Church the strain of waiting for death persisted to the end. He made no sign when the sheriff asked him if he had anything to say to all appearances was unaware of his fate when the gallows trap was sprung.

Dr. Max Thorek, Chicago noted surgeon, who examined Church prior to the execution, said the result of the execution, said the killer was dead in everything but mechanical physical functions at the time that the trap fell.

HARDING FAVORS CLOSER TIES WITH COLOMBIA

WASHINGTON, March 3.—President Harding, it was announced to-night, sent a telegram to Acting President Hugueta of the republic of Colombia, expressing the hope that as a result of the exchange of ratifications of the treaty with Colombia "all misunderstandings which may have existed may vanish and all obstacles which could prevent a resumption of the historic friendship between the people of the United States and the people of Colombia may be swept away and that from this time on the ties between the two nations may be closer and more cordial than ever."

Free State President Forced to Flee—Annexation to Italy Next Step.

Bankers' View. "As a purely business proposition I would not consider making a loan on an 'adjusted compensation' certificate. "The Government might set up Federal loan bureaus for advances to ex-service men against certificates. But after witnessing results of state control of railroads and of the Shipping Board experiment, I am not particularly enthusiastic about having the Government enter the banking business."

CRIPPLED VETERANS PROTEST TO HARDING

Special Dispatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD

Attend to Us First' Is Demand of Delegation at White House.

Washington, D. C., March 3.—Working girls here have risen in rebellion against the idea of clothing themselves on $80 or $90 a year.

Protesting against statements of store managers that that amount was sufficient, nearly 200 girls employed in the Santa Fe general offices and other Topka offices stormed two department stores last night.

Stockings were shown to them, but one of the girls threw them on the floor with the announcement that they were "not fit for a dog" to wear.

The girls said a budget calling for $188 for a year's clothing was about right.

NEW WILL CHAMPION FOUR POWER TREATY

Indiana Senator Picked as Spokesman by Administration Senators.

Special Dispatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD. Washington, D. C., March 3.—Administration Senators to-day abandoned the policy of silence hitherto adopted regarding the treaties growing out of the armament conference and hereafter will meet argument with argument on the Senate floor.

Administration Senators to-day it was decided to put Senator Harry New (Ind.) forward as the Administration spokesman. Senator New will explain the purpose of the four Power Pacific treaty, will analyze its contents and answer the arguments that have been made against ratification in an exhaustive speech which will be delivered next Monday.

This decision followed the unexpected show of strength by the Senators opposing the treaty yesterday, when Senator Hitchcock (Neb.) and Senator Jones (N. M.) joined the opposition.

Both Senators Johnson (Cal.) and Borah (Idaho) are planning to make complete arguments against the treaty and other Senators, among them France (Md.) and Watson (Ga.) will argue on the floor against ratification.

Senator Lodge, chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee, will lead in the running debate, supported by Senators New, Lenroot (Wis.), Kellogg (Mich.) and others. The treaty was not discussed in the Senate to-day.

It is not the present purpose of Administration supporters to have any more speeches made in behalf of the treaty than are essential to put the facts correctly before the public and prevent any misconception of the purpose and character of the four Power agreement resulting from attacks made upon the Senate floor.

The speech made yesterday by Senator Hitchcock, in which he said he would not vote for the pact as it stands and would insist on material changes either as amendments or reservations, suggests the form the attacks will take. The opposition will seek to awaken popular opposition to the treaty by formal attacks upon it and will then seek to amend it. Failing in this, as will inevitably happen, it will be sought to attach reservations to the document.

AGREE ON ALLOCATION OF THE GERMAN CABLES

Washington Reports Indicate Problem Is Solved.

Special Dispatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD. Washington, D. C., March 3.—It was indicated to-day that the problem of the allocation of former German cables in the Atlantic has been solved. The plan provides for the construction by Italy of a cable from Rome through the Straits of Gibraltar to the Azores, where it will connect with the transatlantic cables to New York.

The initial installment for the Mediterranean cable would be paid out of the fund accumulating from the receipts of the former German cables, which Disability Rating. "We, therefore, petition with all the sincerity and power at our command, the executive and legislative branches (without regard to party lines) of the national Government, for which we were the uniform, to take positive and aggressive action to halt all measures pertaining to world war veterans, including the bill for adjusted compensation, unless and until all legislation affecting the disabled is finally acted upon by the two houses of Congress and the President.

"Believing that the definition of a permanent and total disability rating, as it at present exists in the code, is unfair, unjust and misleading and contrary to the intents of Congress and the American people, we respectfully but earnestly urge the adoption of the following as the proper instruction to be made a part of the law.

"Any claimant who has been hospitalized for twelve months or who has been rated as a disabled and temporary rating, shall be rated as permanent and total back to the date of discharge and this shall continue for one year in the future. He shall then be examined and if his physical or mental condition has not been materially improved his rating shall continue unchanged for one calendar year. This procedure shall be repeated annually for five years. In case of no material improvement at the expiration of this period he shall be rated as permanent and total for life.

"In case of material physical or mental improvement his rating shall be sealed down according to the existing regulations of the Veterans' Bureau. The annual examinations shall be made by a committee of three doctors, one of whom shall be selected by the claimant. In case the claimant does not select a physician or surgeon from the staff under the direction of the Veterans' Bureau, the bureau shall pay a fee of one dollar to make a medical examination for each annual examination."

Further installments to the construction company laying the cable would be paid by Italy over a considerable period of time, preferably from the earnings of the cable. There is no provision in the plan for turning over to Italy the Brest-Azores-New York cable, for which Italy has contended.

Want a Good Wagon— You Needn't Even Sing!

For almost less than the proverbial Song, you can get a used Knickerbocker wagon as full of "go" as a two year old. We build our own wagons—build them for hard usage and long wear—and there's practically no wear out to them. About 50 out of 500 wagons have been replaced by automobiles. This puts on the market custom built wagons of the best material and workmanship—all in excellent working condition—at prices a little above "wheelbarrow."

If you have the bargain instinct, visit our Brooklyn shops, 4th St. and 1st St.—pick out your wagon. Say how you want it repainted and with what name to "letter" it. Our shops will turn you out an as-good-as-new-wagon, with no extra charge for the doing over. Sup't. Bradley, Telephone Nevin 2740, will be glad to talk "wagons" with you.
