

LAST OF HOLDOUTS AGREES TO TERMS

Meets Col. Huston on Luks and Announces He Is Ready for Work.

SETTLE DETAILS LATER

Babe Ruth Will Leave To-day for New Orleans to Go Into Training.

Special Dispatch to The New York Herald. HOT SPRINGS, Ark., March 8.—Yankee contract troubles, so far as the Hot Springs holdouts are concerned, are over. Wally Schang, the last one to do any putting, signed his 1922 working papers to-day. Schang has been holding out for a sum a trifle above the figures handed him by Col. Huston.

The Colonel and Schang met by accident on the golf links to-day and Schang immediately announced that he had decided to accept the Colonel's terms. Huston invited Schang to call at his hotel later, where Schang signed the agreement to play.

Babe Ruth and Col. Huston will leave for New Orleans to-morrow, where Babe will go into real training. He is scheduled to play in exhibitions on March 11 and 12.

Home Run Baker Sees Team Stage First Practice Game

Special Dispatch to The New York Herald. NEW ORLEANS, La., March 8.—There was lots of action in the Yankee training camp to-day. In the first place J. Franklin Baker, who reigned supreme as monarch of swatdom until the mighty Ruth appeared upon the diamond, arrived here from Hot Springs. J. Franklin said his batting lamps were all trimmed and in proper adjustment and that it was his ambition to keep the home run fire burning during the five weeks vacation of the big Babe. Along with Baker came Mrs. Baker, Mike McEally and Mrs. McNally and Al De Vornier.

At the arrival of these notables were not enough Manager Huggins chose this day for his first practice game, which turned out to be a closely contested affair and one that gave the midget manager a fine opportunity to look over his horde of youngsters. Much to the dismay of the Penn State twins, they were separated for the first time since their arrival in camp. Manager Hugg placed Killinger shortstop on one team and Haines at centerfield on the other. Both college boys played magnificently in the field and Hinesy in addition lined out on a fly.

Killy went to bat four times, but failed to register a safety, although he made one good bid for one which, as luck would have it, was nabbed by Pat Hinkley after a long run.

The pitching burden was divided between big Jim Jolley and George Grishy for Killy's teams and Lefty Wilson and George Quinn for Hinesy's nine. All four twirlers used a fair assortment of curves and the ball banged into the catcher's mitt with goodly speed for March.

Murray Best of Boxmen. It was generally agreed among the grandstand experts that Murray made far the best showing of the boxmen, although Lefty Wilson, too, displayed considerable skill.

Jolley served up a complicated bunch of benders, allowing only three hits during the five innings he worked. However, it was only due to a lucky break, however, that Big Jim escaped being scored upon. There were two out and two on in the second when Myers, a New Orleans player who was called in for the Haines outfit, caught one of Jim's hooks squarely and smashed the ball over Grishy's head in the left for the game was produced in the eighth inning, which Bob Meusel opened with a two bagger to center. The Coast boy sped to third on Tucker's infield throw and finished the journey around the bases on Ed Meusel's hit. Wilson's first base line on which Wally Pipp failed to cover first.

Three Double Plays. Features of the game were three double plays, manipulated by the Killingers. In two of which Johnnie Mitchell played the initiative, and the same running of Chick Fawcett, who pilfered second neatly in the seventh.

The lineup and score by innings follows: KILLINGERS—Fawcett, 2b; Grishy, 1b; McMillen, 3b; Bob Meusel, rf; Hoffmann, c; Jolley and Murray, pitchers. HAINES—Haines, cf; Mitchell, ss; Ward, 2b; Pipp, 1b; Miller, 3b; Skinner, rf; O'Dowd, lf; Myers, c; Wilson and Quinn, p.

Big Jim Jolley was the first strikeout victim of the day. Lefty Wilson was the savior as the pitcher who turned the trick. Big Jim returned the compliment by fanning Wilson later in the game.

Killinger handled six chances without an error, and at least two of these were difficult ones. The Penn State lad appeared to do better in an actual game than in practice.

Haines, the other Penn State twin, raced all over the outfield and pulled down a total of four scoring flies.

Schmidt a Holdout. Monro, Cal., March 8.—Walter Schmidt, star catcher of the National League, to-day announced that he again had turned down a contract from Barry Trevis, president of the Pittsburgh team. Schmidt said he was not anxious to play ball again, and added that if Pittsburgh wanted his services the salary would have to be over $10,000 a season for three seasons at least. Schmidt has purchased considerable real estate hereabouts.

McGraw Has Grand Lot of Recruits Under Wing

Much Good Material Among Rookies in Giant Camp at San Antonio.

Special Dispatch to The New York Herald. SAN ANTONIO, Tex., March 8.—Having rushed the Giants for the last week at a record and relentless pace and brought them along just a bit too fast, John McGraw to-day ordered only a single session at League Park, and that one of comparative ease. McGraw himself was confined to his room with a cold while Dave Bancroft kept him company while he lollied about in the clubhouse. McGraw's assistant coach of the second baseman stepped to the plate five times and hit safely the first four times up. In the seventh inning he was in the ruts by one of Gordon's throws, and then came a second and a third, and then a fourth. Andy Hill contributed a triple and a single and Hood and Nels each made a three bagger.

During the game Tommy Griffith twisted his left knee when he stepped on a stray ball in the outfield while he was chasing a fly. Tom retired from the game after a few minutes. He may be out of action for several days.

Nothing has been heard from either Burleigh Grimes or Jimmy Johnston, who left for New York on Friday. They here by Friday morning President Ebbetts may suspend them. The score: Regulars... 0 0 0 1 0 1 0 1 0 4 1 0 9 Yankees... 0 0 0 1 0 1 0 1 0 4 1 0 9

DOGGER REGULARS VICTORIOUS AGAIN

Beat Yannigans for Second Time, 14 to 4—Olson Batting Star.

Special Dispatch to The New York Herald. JACKSONVILLE, Fla., March 8.—In the Doggers' afternoon practice session to-day Manager Wilbert Robinson staged the fourth battle between the Regulars and the Yannigans and it resulted in another triumph for the Regulars. The score was 14 to 4 and loose fielding on the part of the Yannigans accounted for most of the tallies hung up by the winners.

Mamaux, Decatur and Gordiner pitched for the Yannigans and the slab work for the Regulars was done by Hockett, Dell, Bishop and Vance. Hockett, who is 19 years old and a left hander, turned in the most brilliant performance.

He pitched the first three frames against the Yannigans and not a hit was made off his delivery. Not a ball went into the outfield by the Yannigans while he was hurling and the only thing that marred his work was poor control which he displayed in the third round when he hit a batter and filled the bases by passing two others. Janvrin came to bat with the sacks loaded, but made the third out with an easy grounder which the youngsters took off.

The Regulars scored five runs off Mamaux in the second round and were aided by poor fielding on the part of the Yannigans. In the third round they made two more runs off Mamaux and an error by Ward helped them in their scoring. In the seventh round the Regulars fouled out the Yannigans and the blows, coupled with an error by Janvrin, resulted in four more tallies.

The individual batting hero was none other than the veteran catcher, George Stanton, who batted from first. He went to the plate five times and hit safely the first four times up. In the seventh inning he was in the ruts by one of Gordon's throws, and then came a second and a third, and then a fourth. Andy Hill contributed a triple and a single and Hood and Nels each made a three bagger.

PUBLIC PICKS A MAJORITY OF THE WINNERS, KELSEY RIDING TWO.

Special Cable to The New York Herald. HAVANA, Cuba, March 8.—Torrential rains, which set in last night, left the track very muddy to-day and brought about many withdrawals. The public hand a good one on the underdogs, and the results show, the favorites being successful in a majority of the events.

Robin Creek made an exhibition of the field in the opening. Kelsey rushed him to the front when the break came and the further he went the further he gapped on the field, and at the finish led Functional by eight lengths.

Mack Garner proved an easy winner of the second when he beat Billy Boots a couple of lengths. The winner, ridden by Fred Wain, was a 2 to 1 favorite.

Atharven and Carrie Baker fought it out in the stretch run in the third. Atharven proving the gamer and winning by a head. This was Kelsey's second winning mount of the afternoon. The results: FIRST RACE—Three-year-olds and upward; claiming, purse $700; five and a half furlongs: Robin Creek, 115 (Kelsey), 4 to 1; Billy Boots, 110 (Wain), 2 to 1 and even; first: Functional, 110 (Burke), 8 to 1; 2 to 4 and 1 to 8; Kelseyman, 112 (Pribble), 4 to 1; 8 to 5 and 4 to 5; third: Time, 1:12 2-5. LAUGHTER. We're born with tears—the baby cries At catching first his new found breath, And ever after in his eyes Tears lie in wait for pain or death, For sorrow which this world may bring, For bitter cups that he must quaff; But laughter is a different thing: We're born with tears—we learn to laugh.

There is a thing Which we should like to know: Whence comes the spring, And where does winter go?

The moon is on its first quarter. This falls to console the man who is on his last.

Harry Courtney is a pitcher who is said to be showing signs of increased effectiveness at the camp of the Washington Senators this spring. Courtney's pitching motion somewhat resembled the heave of a shot putter and never pleased Clark Griffith very much. Yet the big leaguer once knew a distinguished athlete who always appeared to shove a ball rather than throw it. His name was Wagoner, and the big Dutchman could put speed enough on the sphere just about to remove mitt and hand from the party who tried to stop it.

Cleveland has no less than ten pitchers who, when standing by an ordinary building, have to stoop over to look down the chimney. A couple of them are so tall that there always is danger of a fly ball hitting them on the
