

BISHOP MANNING UPHOLDS DRY LAW

Calls on Clergy and People to Give Their Strength to Enforcing It.

SEES HARM IN EVASION

Believes With American Bar That Anarchy Lies in Illegal Sales.

GAILOR IS WITH HIM TOO

Episcopal Prelate Contents True Citizens Will Not Encourage Bootleggers.

Bishop William T. Manning, at one of the regular Lenten services in the Cathedral of St. John the Divine yesterday afternoon, stated his position with regard to the enforcement of prohibition, and called upon "all our clergy and all our people" to stand with all their strength for the upholding of the law, no matter what their personal views on the wisdom of its enactment.

His statement, he said, was made in answer to a request for his opinion as to whether it is our duty to obey the prohibition laws. Bishop Manning declared that the position of Bishop Thomas F. Gailor, presiding Bishop of the Episcopal Council, has been misrepresented and that no man stands more strongly than he for the principle of respect for law.

"I have never been in theory, a prohibitionist. I do not agree with the extremists, who say that to drink wine or beer is a sin in itself. From actual observation in the army, however, I believe that prohibition will be of great practical and moral benefit to the life of our country. From information coming to me from many sources I believe that prohibition is working great moral and practical benefit in the homes and conditions of life among the working people of our country as a whole.

But the question now is not whether we believe in prohibition or not, but whether we believe in keeping the law of the land. Upon this question there is no room for two opinions. If we disapprove the prohibition laws we have the right to say so, and to work for their repeal. But none of us has the right to evade or disobey the law as it stands, and we cannot do this without working grave harm to our national life.

This committee, composed only of judges and speaking, as it declares, for all the judges, says that law and enforcement of law depend mainly upon the ideals and customs of those who occupy the vantage ground of life in business and society. The people of the United States, by solemn constitutional and statutory enactment, have undertaken to suppress the age long evil of the liquor traffic. When for the gratification of their appetites or for the promotion of their interests, lawyers, bankers, great merchants and manufacturers, and social leaders, both men and women, disobey and scoff at this law, or by any other law, they are aiding the cause of anarchy and promoting mob violence, robbery and homicide; they are sowing dragons' teeth, and they need not be surprised when they find that no judicial or police authority can save our country or humanity from reaping the harvest.

"As Bishop of the United States, I most solemnly associate myself with those words. As true citizens we cannot take any other position. I call upon all our clergy and upon all our people, whatever their views about prohibition, whatever their station in life and whatever their religion, to stand with their whole strength for the sacred principle of respect for law, upon which the life of our country depends.

"And let me add in this connection that the position of the presiding Bishop upon this question has been misrepresented. I have not consulted him, but I know well that Bishop Gailor stands as strongly as I or any one else for the principle of respect for law, which I call upon all our people to stand.

JERSEY METHODISTS WILL VOTE DRY TICKET

Bishop Berry Predicts Party Lines Will Be Ignored.

ATLANTIC CITY, March 10.—Members of the New Jersey Methodist Episcopal conference will go to Atlantic City on Monday as dry rather than as Republicans or Democrats, Bishop Joseph P. Berry of Philadelphia, presiding officer at the conference here, predicted in an address today.

"Whether the man is a Republican or a Democrat," said the Bishop, "the candidate who is for prohibition—or the true type of the one who will get our united support at the polls."

DR. LORENS IN BROOKLYN.

Dr. Adolph Lorens made his final appearance in Brooklyn yesterday at the Kings County Hospital, where he performed operations on two children and placed a stilet in the spine to correct the spinal trouble. His next stilet will be at the Board of Health in Manhattan on March 17, and then he will leave for a tour of Western cities, Detroit being his first stop.

White Plains Rector Denounces Anderson

THE Rev. Frank H. Simmonds, rector of Grace Episcopal Church, one of the largest churches in White Plains, gave out today a copy of a letter he had sent to William H. Anderson, in which he flays the Anti-Saloon League head for his attack on Bishop Thomas F. Gailor, a man who is sending a questionnaire to Episcopal clergymen. The letter says in part:

"I am glad of this opportunity to register my protest and indignation at your insulting and ill bred attack on the Right Rev. Thomas F. Gailor, a man who is your superior in every way. Had I ever been in favor of prohibition the fact that it has defeated the clergy's efforts of years to educate toward temperance, coupled with its evident unpopularity, would have changed my views. Gailor is not to act as auxiliary police or publicity agents for the enforcement of prohibition.

"The work of the church is to preach the Gospel of Jesus Christ, not to act as auxiliary police or publicity agents for the enforcement of prohibition.

NURSERY IN CHURCH FOR PARKING BABIES

Heavenly Rest Rector Takes Away Parents' Excuse for Staying Home.

When the Rev. Dr. Henry V. B. Darlington came from St. Barnabas's Episcopal Church in Newark to become rector of the Church of the Heavenly Rest, Fifth avenue and Forty-fifth street, he made two discoveries that interested him.

One of them was that his new parish boasted an efficient and numerous Mothers Club. The other was that there were a number of parents who used to be quite regular in their attendance and who were no longer at worship because "they couldn't leave the children alone."

Dr. Darlington has decided to give his Mothers Club more work. Yesterday he announced that hereafter anybody in New York city whose sole reason for staying away from church of a Sunday night was represented by children who might not be left alone should bring such offspring to the Church of the Heavenly Rest, where, in the assembly room in the basement, a nursery has been fitted out under the direction and supervision of the Mothers Club.

"It seemed the obvious thing to do," said Dr. Darlington yesterday. "There will be everything provided for the child's physical and mental comfort—games, milk and the constant attention of women who are mothers and know how to care for babies. We have not decided to extend this nursery work to the morning services quite yet. We shall wait and see how it works out in the evenings."

PRESBYTERIANS WANT $14,500,000 FOR YEAR

Presbyterians will start a nation-wide canvass to-morrow for church benevolences, seeking $14,500,000 for church work from April 1.

The denomination several years ago adopted the budget method so the mission boards know in advance what money to expect by the end of the church year, March 31. In the last two years the actual money contributed for this work has risen from $3,945,000 to $10,253,000.

The New Era Movement of the church will direct the canvass and regional offices are in touch with pastors in every State. Teams of two visitors, men or women, will visit about ten families each and ask for pledges of weekly contributions.

Posters, circulars, advertising for newspapers will be sent to all of the churches.
