Things Decidedly NEWWhy Go to Pinehurst?

Why, indeed, go to Pinehurst when one can conduct one's own little championship game at home—with a Tip Top Golf set:

This game one plays at the table with five golf sticks which one spins instead of swings, to make a score.

An excellent new indoor sport . . . $3.50 per set

Umbrellas Take to Stripes

Because its imported top takes to stripes, this new sun-and-rain umbrella follows with a duplicate striped border on its heavy silk covering.

Everything matches in color the umbrella and the striped top and border. In black, blue, purple or green.

About the New Collar

As many of the Spring style shows feature monk collars adapted to bateau necklines, so, of course, we find the same in the newest house frocks.

A cheerful Spring costume of broadly checked crepe with organdie collars and cuffs. One makes one's own decision whether it's to be a frock of pink-and-white, lavender, yellow or blue checks.

A New Edition of Lace Hose

From Paris, Madame, the new edition of lace hose. And this season we observe it is a delicately embroidered panel set between two lace panels of hand-drawn work.

It looks "decidedly new."

"Cosi Fan Tutte"
(They All Do It)

Cosi Fan Tutte, as Mozart says when it comes to wearing gauntlet gloves this season!

And we're certain it's Spring when the new Kayser silk gloves appear. The new gauntlet glove reaches almost to the elbow, with a smart exaggerated cuff in contrasting color.

Paris says "drapery" for Spring, and Lanvin interprets the elusive spirit of Youth in the dextrous use of gold thread. We have combined both ideas in

Women's Smart Frocks

—of Crepe de Chine and Canton Crepe—

at 39.50

As should be, for slenderness, the silhouette is straight, emphasized by a fringed cascade drapery at one side. Threads of gold embroidery add an oriental touch to the frock's otherwise solid color.

Hand embroidery in self-color is used unsparingly—as Paris dictates—on this other frock of Canton crepe, with its straight lines relieved by slender side draperies. Both styles pictured.

In navy, black and the new castor shade. Sizes 36 to 44.

Women's Riding Habits

reach the heights of smartness

at 49.50

Riding habits that are correct in every detail, appealing to the sportswoman who wants her habit as correct as it is smart. These are both!

Hand tailored, too—in straight line or flare models—developed in finest imported all wool chevots, tweeds and gabardines in light and dark tan, oxford and brown.

250 Marcasite Trimmed
Moire Bags

most exquisite in designing, offered around town at $45.00 to $65.00, and presented

Monday at 29.50

The frames were made in Paris expressly for Saks & Company—which means they are refreshingly individual and novel in design. The bags themselves were developed there, of Pekin striped and antique effect moires—and for this reason only can we offer them at such a low price.

There are so many models that selection will be an easy matter, the majority beautifully lined in a contrasting color silk and fitted with a center compartment for change—as well as mirror or vanity purse.

Misses' Frocks of Crepe Romaine

capture the mode for Spring, reflecting late imports in their styling—

Special, 39.50

Crepe Romaine takes first place in fashionable dress circles, and weaves the threads of Youth into its soft texture.

One model is slender of silhouette, with tucks that Paris advocates, and side drapery. The other takes colored crystal beads around neck and sleeves, and voluminous handkerchief drapery as a skirt.

Colors: Rust, cornflower, mauve, caramel, navy and black. Sizes 14 to 18 years.

Tricotine and Twill cord are high in Fashion's favor! We feature for Monday

Tricotine and Twill Cord
Suits for Women

—every one splendidly tailored and hand-finished—
at 59.50

One may vary the Spring suit mode with designs that are either severely tailored, dashingly trimmed with braid, or effectively adorned with sou-tache or hand-embroidery—for in this collection there are 22 models from which to choose, each in the front rank of Fashion.

They have snugly fitting shoulders and collars, perfectly proportioned sleeves, and the right amount of care is shown in the tailoring, down to the minutest detail. They are the last word in Paris-inspired suits for Spring, remarkably priced. Lined with crepe de chine. In navy and black.

Misses' sizes 14 to 20. Women's sizes 34 to 44.
