

The Marquise de Charette, formerly Susanne Henning of Kentucky, painted by the Marquise de Frayasseix Mazeries. Keystone.

Celebrating the 400th anniversary of Lutherism at Wittenberg, Germany, the house of Martin Luther. This photograph shows a procession of students carrying the old imperial standard. International.

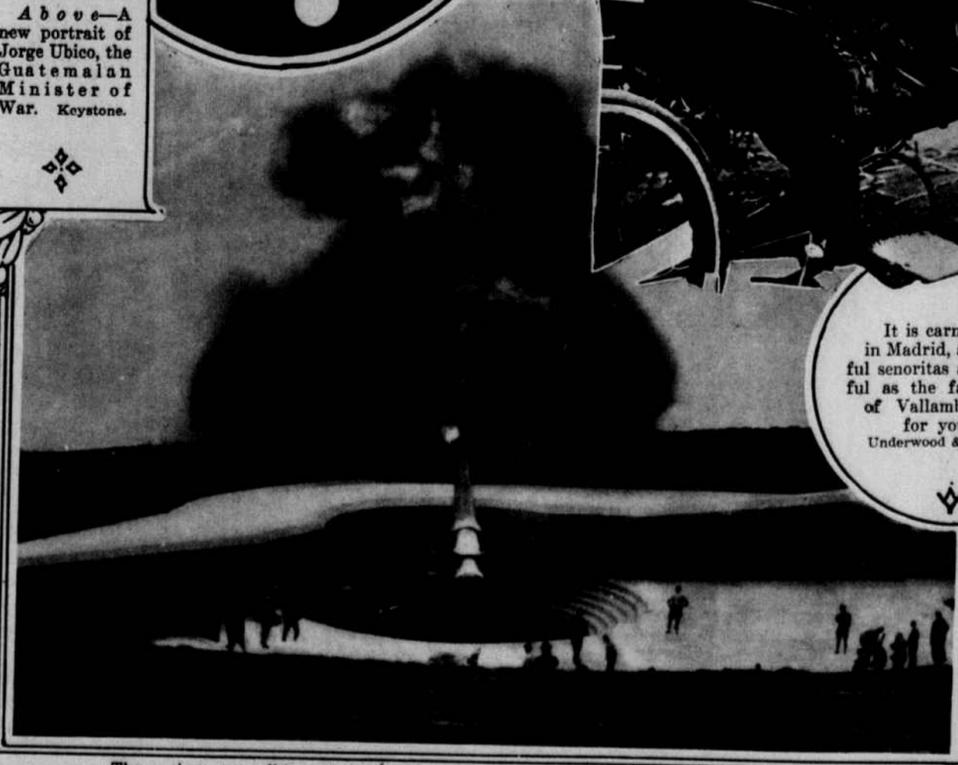

Above—A new portrait of Jorge Ubico, the Guatemalan Minister of War. Keystone.

It is carnival day in Madrid, and beautiful señoritas are as plentiful as the famous leaves of Vallambrosa—see for yourself. Underwood & Underwood.

Prince Frederick of Denmark is engaged to Princess Olga of Greece. He is shown here at the railway station in Paris on his way to meet the Princess. He is the tall man on the right. The young lady is the Princess of Parma. Underwood & Underwood.

The nations are talking disarmament, but here is a sample of what our coastal fortifications can do in case of need. This is a 14-inch gun at Fort McArthur in spring target practice. Underwood & Underwood.

Fuad, the new King of Egypt, has assured Egyptologists that he will aid them in their quest. He is shown here (in gray) with M. Lacon, noted historian, inspecting the submerged Temple of Philae.