Sisters 'Friendly Enemies' in New Rochelle College

Amateurs to Give 'Royal Vagabond' on Staten Island

Misses Dwyer Are President and Vice-President of the Sophomore and Freshman Classes and Family Is 'Divided' on Sports.

FRIENDLY ENEMIES" is the nickname which has been given by the students at the New Rochelle College to the Misses Allys and Catharine Dwyer, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Dwyer of 2772 Marion avenue, New York city.

A basketball game held not long ago at the institution inspired the students to bestow that name on the sisters. The game was whether the freshman class or the sophomore class was to boast of the championship of the college, and as Allys is president of the sophomore class she took no pains to deny the fact that she was entirely confident of the outcome of the game. Nor did her sister Catharine, who is vice-president of the freshman class, display any great desire to keep secret her opinion that the freshmen were unquestionably better.

After a period of enthusiastic cheering on both sides Catharine approached her sister, threw her arms around her and admitted, to the students' great delight, that the sophomores had the better team, all of which goes to show that the students were extremely wise in their choice of the nickname.

Miss Dwyer is treasurer of the Brunswick-Balke-Collender company. H. Lippincott, Mrs. H. A. Smith and Mrs. T. J. Taylor. On the entertainment committee were Miss Mary E. Tiny Patroness for Ball in Aid of Italian Orphans

Miss Giovanna Bernardi, 17 Months Old, Will Preside at Ballo di Primavera Apr. 22.

EMULATING little Miss Gloria Caruso, who was "first patroness" of the Gloria ball at the Hotel Vanderbilt last spring, another tiny girl is to head another charity ball, and also bear the title of "first patroness." The new "first patroness"—she is 17 months old—is Miss Giovanna Bernardi, the daughter of the Italian Consul-General at New York, Tomislavo E. Bernardi, who will serve at the Ballo di Primavera.

The Ballo di Primavera will be given at the Vanderbilt, Saturday evening, April 22, for the benefit of war orphans in Italy. Its chairman is little Miss Giovanna's mother, Mrs. Tomislavo Bernardi, who lives at 43 Fifth avenue.

A real springtime ball is what is being planned. Spring flowers will decorate the Della Robbia room of the Vanderbilt, and there will be many springtime features, including a series of spring tableaux in which young girls will be dressed as spring flowers and probably very little girls as beetles and fireflies.

Mrs. Bernardi is to have as her immediate committee aids Mrs. John A. Drake, president of Free Milk for Italy, vice-chairman and director, Mrs. Walton H. Marshall, vice-chairman; Miss Marie Frugone, secretary, and Mrs. Henry J. Burchell, treasurer. The program of the ball is to have as its cover design a reproduction of Botticelli's famous painting, "Spring." There will be special groups of flower and program girls and a floor committee of young men.

Little Miss Bernardi will have as one of her chief aids an older sister, soon to make her debut, Miss Franz Bernardi, who won much attention when she appeared as the queen of the Ballo di Primavera at the Hotel Bossert, Brooklyn, on Shrove Tuesday for the benefit of the Italian Welfare League.

On the advisory committee of the eight are Miss Margherita De Vecchi, the Count and Countess Facchetti Giulia, Di Giuseppe Previtali, Senator Salvatore Cotillo, Mrs. Antonio Stella, the Contessina de Robilant, Mrs. John F. Daniell, Mrs. Russell Hopkins, Mrs. Joseph Paterno, Henry M. Roe, Mrs. Santo Carlo Cerbelli, Mrs. Walter Salvatore Cotillo, Mrs. Antonio Stella, M. Mario Prochet, Mrs. Umberto Molossi, Mrs. Riccardo Bartelli, Dr. Morlato Serrati, Mrs. J. A. Piani, Mrs. James Carnival, Mrs. Amerinda Portofino, M. B. Dominico, Dr. Santo Naccarati, Mrs. Albert Fusco, Mrs. Joseph Gerli, Mrs. Edward S. Napoli.
