

A reminder that rowing is a sport by no means restricted to masculinity—the Wellesley senior crew, which has had some spectacular successes. Bow, Miss A. Lettle; 2, Miss R. M. Davis; 3, Miss Fauber; 4, Miss M. Griffiths; 5, Miss A. Richard; 6, Miss B. Bates; 7, Miss H. Rathburn; stroke, Miss M. Durant; coxswain, Miss D. Brenigan; Miss Richards, No. 8, captains the crew. International.

The international champion, Laund Logic, who has been imported to the United States by Mrs. Florence B. Ileh of Red Bank, New Jersey. Laund Logic ran five championships in England and two in this country. Mrs. Ileh paid $2,500 for him. He is four years old.

Dr. Ma Soo, his wife and daughter. Dr. Soo is the representative in the United States of the South China Government. His headquarters are at Washington. Underwood & Underwood

The Mad Monk of Russia, Illiador, and his family at their home in Tzaritzin, Russia, one of the families supported by the American Relief Administration. Illiador now calls himself "Patriarch of Russia." Wide World.

President Harding and Administration notables at the exhibition tennis matches on the White House courts. Mrs. Molla Bjurstedt Mallory, the champion, stands at the left of the President, and Mrs. Marion Zinderstein Jessup, with whom Mrs. Mallory played, is at Mr. Harding's right. Harris & Ewing.

Miss Jean G. Kennedy, Mount Holyoke College '23, one of the four students chosen from the United States to attend the World Student Christian Federation Conference now in session in Pekin, China.

Messenger boys for the delegates at Genoa. These are Italian Boy Scouts who volunteered to serve as conference messengers and who report each morning in strict military formation. Wide World.

Giants of the sea at their docks in Southampton. Four of the world's largest liners in port at one time. They are the Berengaria, formerly the Imperator; the Majestic, formerly the Bismarck (ex German ships), and the Mauretania and the Olympic. The four ships could between them accommodate as passengers the population of a small city. International.