

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL NOTES FROM MANY SECTIONS OF THE CITY

Society Goes to Country Places for Memorial Day

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Leon Return From a Short Trip to Europe.

THERE will be many parties in country houses over the week end, which in many cases will not break up until Wednesday, for Memorial Day (Tuesday) will be the excuse for much entertaining, and all sorts of outdoor sports have been arranged for the holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Leon have returned from Europe, where they spent a month, and are now at their home, Goody's Hills, Irvington on Hudson.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul M. Granville have leased the E. Borden West cottage at Monmouth Beach, N. J., for the summer. In the autumn they will go to their country home, King's Farm, Lytner, Quebec, for a short stay before returning to New York.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Sinclair have closed their house, 7 Pomander Walk, West End avenue and Ninety-fourth street, and with their son and daughter, have gone to their home at Long Beach, N. J., for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Sedgwick Cooper of 242 East Forty-eighth street were among those sailing for Europe on Wednesday. They intend spending the summer abroad in various places, France, Belgium, Germany, Italy, Spain, Portugal, Austria, Jugoslavia, Turkey and the Near East, including Beirut and Jerusalem. They have a farewell reception on May 29 at their home, which was attended by about 150 guests, who included one time Governor of the Philippines and Mrs. Newton W. Gilbert, Miss Anna F. Lewis Schaefer, Mr. William E. Pack, Miss Henrietta Sava Goli of Rumania, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Houldini, Mr. and Mrs. William J. Montgomery, Mr. and Mrs. George C. Ames, Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Wyatt, Miss Mary Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Safford, Mr. Robert Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Richardson Wright, Messrs. Douglas Wood and Gerald Stanley Lee.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Arthur Judge, who were married on May 20, have gone to Bermuda on their honeymoon. Mrs. Judge was Miss Muriel Leitch Wood. Mr. Judge is a son of the Rev. Dr. Arthur H. Judge, rector of St. Matthew's Church, West Eighty-fourth street.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Cooper, whose home is in New Britain, Conn., spent several days here last week at the Hotel Lorraine. Others there were Mrs. William H. Browne of Princeton, N. J.; Miss Anna F. Lewis Schaefer, Mr. Edith Morton Chase of Waterbury, Conn., and Mrs. Amos B. McNair of Manchester, Vt. Mrs. R. C. Morris, who is the winter at the Lorraine, started last week to spend the summer on her ranch in Montana.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd C. Furlow of 22 East Forty-seventh street, have gone to Briarcliff Lodge for the season.

Mr. and Mrs. Julian A. Harris of Bearskin, N. C., have gone to White Sulphur Springs for a short stay. Mr. and Mrs. Frederick M. Hilton of 272 Park avenue have gone to their country home at Scarborough on Hudson for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Root Stern will pass the summer at Scarborough, having leased Mrs. John Swan's villa on Stockbridge Plain.

Miss Alice C. Williams, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. P. H. Williams of 22 East Sixty-seventh street, sailed on Wednesday for Paris. She was accompanied by Mrs. Donald C. Malcolm and her daughter, Miss Thalia W. Millett.

The next golf tournament of the New York Golf Society will be held on Sunday at the Second and Golf and Country Club, at Hartsdale, N. Y., through the courtesy of Mr. Noble McConnell.

Dr. and Mrs. Valdemar Sillio of 1843 Broadway gave a theater party, followed by a supper and dance, at the Hotel Astor last Monday for Mr. and Mrs. McConnell.

Mr. and Mrs. James William Booth have gone to Kendall Green, Mass., for a short stay. Later they will open their summer home at Chatham, Cape Cod, where they will remain until October.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles John Clarke, who have been visiting his mother, Mrs. Thomas Shields Clarke, at Lenox since their marriage on May 15, returned to New York on Thursday and are at the Hotel Lorraine, where they will remain until they sail on Wednesday for Europe. They expect to remain abroad six months and on their return will live in New York.

Mrs. W. De Forest Wright and her daughter, Miss Emily Wright, of 523 Park avenue, have booked passage on the Aquila, sailing on June 13, 1922. They will spend the summer abroad.

A farewell luncheon was given by Mrs. C. C. Hogue at Sherry's on Wednesday. Miss Charlotte K. Demorest, who called the following day for Europe with Miss Norma Werner and Miss Alice Gardner Bush. The party will be accompanied by Mrs. Josephine Losler Payne and they will remain abroad until September. Their itinerary will include Italy, Switzerland, a motor trip through the chateau district of France, a fortnight in Paris, and a tour of England, with a stay of two weeks in London. Miss Demorest is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Demorest; Miss Werner of Mr. and Mrs. Luther M. Werner, and Miss Bush of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bush.

Mrs. Stuart Hanna has closed her apartment, 630 Park avenue, and with her family is at the St. Regis until they sail for Europe.

Mr. and Mrs. James Edward Wyckoff of 131 East Thirty-ninth street have gone to Briarcliff Lodge for an indefinite stay. Mr. and Mrs. Dwight S. Richardson of 19 East Seventy-first street also are there for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Miller of 65 East Seventy-eighth street will sail for France on June 23. They will remain abroad about three months.

For the benefit of the American Legion's Mountain Camp a largely attended bridge party was given on Mon-

Two Recent Brides and Two Brides-to-Be

MISS DOROTHY LE BARON EMANUEL, DAUGHTER OF MR. and MRS. ERNEST SAYRE WADSWORTH, ENGAGEMENT TO MR. CHARLES RUSSELL GILDERLEEVE IS ANNOUNCED.

MRS. MARTIN LEWIS COHN, DAUGHTER OF MR. and MRS. ISAAC D. LEVY OF 320 PARK AVENUE and CEDAR HURST.

MISS DONNA RANDOLPH MOORE, DAUGHTER OF JUDGE and MRS. CHARLES T. MOORE OF FOREST HILLS, LI, WHOSE MARRIAGE TO MR. JOHN W. LEWIS OF FLUSHING, TAKES PLACE JUNE 20.

MRS. PHILIP OUDRY-DAVIS, A MAY BRIDE, SHE WAS MISS ELLEN C. HOVEY DAUGHTER OF MR. and MRS. OTIS E. ELLIS.

Notes of Richmond Borough

Jay. Mrs. Burch will start on Thursday for Chelsea, N. J., where she will pass the summer.

Dr. and Mrs. James E. Murphy will pass the summer in Stockbridge, Mass., having leased for the season the home of Mrs. Electus Darwin Litchfield and her sister, Mrs. Lawrence Gourlay, who spent last week there.

Mr. and Mrs. John Henry Livingston, Jr., who were married on May 20 in the First Reformed Episcopal Church, Yonkers, will pass the summer at the Westchester Blimoro Country Club which opened on Thursday. Mrs. Livingston was Mrs. Anahya Carver Urdach, daughter of Mrs. Alexander Burdick, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Henry Livingston of New York, and a member of the American Yacht, Apawamis and other clubs.

Mr. William Henry Sage will spend the summer at Scarborough, L. I., having leased Plas Mowery, the cottage of Miss Dorothy Schieffelin on the Dunes.

Mr. and Mrs. John Herbert Ballentine have returned to their home at Great Neck, L. I., from a three months' trip to Panama, Honolulu and Southern California.

Mr. and Mrs. Anderson Gratz, who were married on May 17 in Lexington, Ky., after a wedding trip of a few weeks, will come to New York to live. Mrs. Gratz was Miss Fanny Clarke Rogers, daughter of Mrs. Jere Rogers of Lexington.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Lubin announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Olga Mae Lubin, to Mr. Moe Schenck, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Schenck. Miss Lubin's father is general manager of the Marcus Loew Booking Agency. Mr. Schenck is a nephew of Joseph M. Schenck, who married Miss Norma Talmadge, and of Mr. Nicholas M. Schenck. He served in the Navy during the war.

Mr. and Mrs. John D. Hage are now residents of the Country Club Colony.

Mr. and Mrs. John J. McGann of Westerleigh announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Mildred McGann, to Mr. Edward J. Buttling of Brooklyn, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Colin F. Macdonald of Castleton Hill are entertaining Mrs. John Macdonald of North Carolina.

"The Mikado" will be presented by the Christ Church Dramatic Club on June 7 and 8, in the Parish House of the Church on Franklin avenue, New Brighton. The proceeds of the performance will be for the support of the parish house activities and the summer camp for boys.

Miss Ethel A. Clark, coloratura soprano, who has achieved noted success in musical circles, will sing the role of Yum-Yum. Mrs. William C. Barber will be Kathia; Miss Lotta Chappelle, Peep-bo; Miss Mary Plester, Piti-Sing; Mrs. William McDermott, Pook-Pah; Mr. Thomas McDermott, the Mikado; Mr. William Gibb, Nanki-Po; Mr. John H. VanVleet, Fish-Tush.

Mr. James W. Musgrove, who directed the production, is one of the most successful musical comedies ever presented on Staten Island, and which he wrote with Mrs. Cheerful Willoughby Kappes, will direct this production.

Dancing will follow both performances.

A Japanese comedy will be given on the grounds surrounding the home of Mrs. E. E. Harden, on Broadway, West New Brighton, on the afternoon of June 17. The proceeds will be for the building fund of the Staten Island Women's Club, which has been increasing at an encouraging rate as a result of the card parties arranged by Mrs. H. W. Koenig for the last several months. Mrs. Harden also will have tables provided for cards. The comedy will be followed by children's dances and music.

Mrs. Frederick Walser of Arrochar has gone to Richmond, Va., where she is visiting her mother, Mrs. James W. Hutton.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Smythe of Jewett avenue are spending two weeks at Woutensky, N. J.

Miss Frances Akin of Troy was the guest of Miss Muriel Lloyd of Port Richmond last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis D. Turner of Arrochar sailed Thursday on board La Touraine for France. They will remain abroad until autumn.

Mrs. William H. Cole of Port Richmond has been the guest of her aunt, Miss Isabel M. Irwin, of Delaware county, Pa.

Semi-Monthly Dances Are Held on Staten Island

Society Attends Saturday Night Events at Richmond County Club.

SEMI-MONTHLY dances now are being held at the Richmond County Country Club on Saturday evenings. Some of those attending last week were Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Bancroft, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stanley, Mr. and Mrs. Emil de Planque, Mr. and Mrs. B. Lowe McKee, Mr. and Mrs. Grosvenor S. Wright, Mr. and Mrs. John Collingwood, Mrs. Alfred P. King, Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Bonner, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Huber, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Fannon, Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Hart, Mrs. Alfred F. King, Mrs. Walter King, the Misses Betty Kianhard, Helen Boyd, Eleanor Fuller and the Messrs. John Allen, John Elliman, Guy Miller-Jones and Sydney G. Wilcox.

Proceeding the dance Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Bonner entertained several guests at dinner at the club.

The Staten Island Woman's Club closed its season last Saturday with a luncheon, an election of officers and reports of committees. Mrs. Will Hamilton Baker was elected president, succeeding Mrs. Willard A. Boyd, whose long term in office has been filled with unusual activity. A gold pin was presented to Mrs. Boyd by the club and Mrs. W. C. Waiser, Mrs. F. H. Bagley, Mrs. O. A. Hart, Mrs. A. L. King, Miss Susan S. Ripley, Miss E. E. Eddy and Mrs. Otis K. Dimock received silver pins, recognition of twenty-five years of service in the club. A gavel was presented to the club by Mrs. John H. Greaves of Dongan Hills.

In honor of the retiring officers, Mrs. Edwin Markham read a poem which she had composed for the occasion. Mrs. William Wirt Willis read a comprehensive report of the general service committee of which she is chairman.

Mr. Herbert Magruder and Mrs. Magruder, who was Miss Dorothy Wemple, have returned from their wedding trip to Hot Springs, Va., and are now occupying their new home in Bard avenue, Livingston.

Mrs. Parker Jones of Manhattan entertained Mr. and Mrs. Frederick S. Palmer over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Alan Thomas and their young daughter have returned from Bushkill and are at their home in Arrochar.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Roome Parmelee entertained Mrs. Charles Parmelee, Jr., over the weekend at their home on Hamilton avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Eric Slight entertained a number of their friends at a dance at their home in Castleton Park on Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar M. Bernhardt sailed for Europe yesterday and will remain away for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Schnakenberg and their son, Ernest Schnakenberg, will sail for Europe on Tuesday for several weeks' visit.

Mr. Sydney G. Wilcox has returned to Chicago after spending a short time with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William G. Wilcox.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Garrett, who have rented their home in Lafayette avenue to Mr. and Mrs. Henry King of the Country Club Colony.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Foster of the Richmond County Country Club have returned from a visit to Short Hills, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. John D. Hage are now residents of the Country Club Colony.

Mr. and Mrs. John J. McGann of Westerleigh announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Mildred McGann, to Mr. Edward J. Buttling of Brooklyn, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Colin F. Macdonald of Castleton Hill are entertaining Mrs. John Macdonald of North Carolina.

Brooklyn Society to Attend Welfare Dance for Veterans

To Be Held Next Thursday on Tennis Courts of Knickerbocker Field Club of Flatbush—Social Notes of Borough.

ONE of the events of interest to Brooklyn society will be the annual welfare dance of the American Legion, which is to be held on next Thursday evening for disabled veterans. The dance is always held at the Knickerbocker Field Club of Flatbush.

Among the patronesses for the event are Meses. Frank L. Lovell, Frederick P. Adams, John Anderson, Horatio M. Adams, Donald Alfred, A. H. Arons, Homer C. Babcock, William C. Beecher, George W. Bell, Robert Benedetti, William R. Bishop, Philip A. Brennan, Walter Shaw Brewster, Frank M. Brooks, S. Edwin Buchanan, Andrew G. Campbell, Chester R. Carleton, William Harris Cary, William M. Calder, I. Sherwood Coffin, A. Wallace Chaucey, Benjamin F. Corwin, Frederick E. Evan Cramer, James C. Crosser, Samuel H. Cuyana, Jane C. Dalzell, Emily H. Dalzell, Edmund H. Driggs, Henry Edward Drier, Richard M. Dorney, Norman S. Dike, Samuel Bowne Duryea, Henry B. Davenport, Henry Joralemon Davenport, Elliott DuBois, William Pitman Earl, Jr.; Frank H. Edmunds, Charles Jerome Edwards, James A. Farrell, Frank Harvey Field, Bernard Field, George S. Gartlan, William T. Gilmore, William H. Good, Percy R. Gray, Lewis F. Hayward, Frank J. Heaney, Norman Hubbard, Jr.; Wallace T. Jones, Edward F. Keating, Horatio C. King, George W. Knight, William Lamb, Robert C. Lee, Frederick C. Lea, Luke Vincent Lockwood, Frederick S. Lyke, Austin Ludlam, Thomas L. Leeming, John P. McCooney, William A. Markey, David A. Moir, C. A. Meissner, Joseph E. Murray, Thomas E. Murray, James A. McCormick, William L. Moffat, Frank Melville, Burt Foss Nichols, Lewis E. Pierson and Lewis P. Pilcher.

The marriage of Miss Virginia Goldborough, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Goldborough of 1216 Avenue U, to Mr. William L. Bechtold, will take place at St. Brendan's Church in Avenue O, on next Saturday. Mr. Bechtold is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Bechtold of Brooklyn.

The marriage of Miss Vera Stevenson, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Robert Stevenson of 1230 Dean street, to Mr. Thomas Shepard Strong, son of Supreme Court Justice and Mrs. Selah B. Strong of Setauket, L. I., will take place Thursday evening at the home of Miss Stevenson's parents. The bride will have as her attendants her sister, Miss Roberta Stevenson, as maid of honor, and the Misses Winifred and Eleanor Strong, sisters of the bridegroom. Dorothy Campbell and Margaret Kinley as bridesmaids. Raymond Strong will be best man of his brother.

Miss Helen Louise Dwight Reid, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin S. Reid, and a senior at Vassar, has received the Carnegie Peace Endowment Fellowship for the study of international law abroad. Miss Reid won honors at Packer Collegiate Institute in Brooklyn when studying there.

Mrs. Frederick L. Cranford and Mrs. H. Edward Dreier are Brooklyn members of a committee led by Mrs. Willard Straight and representing the Women's Trade Union League to raise $50,000 for a club house for working girls.

The marriage of Miss Katherine Ludlam Norcross, daughter of Mrs. Pauline L. Norcross of 372 St. John's place, to Mr. Herbert P. Varley, son of Mr. Avery Stratton of 1050-A President street, will take place on June 3. Miss Olga D. Varley will attend the bride as maid of honor. Mr. Avery Stratton, Jr., will be best man. The ushers will be Messrs. Arthur E. Hoerl, Edward H. Hartwig, Stanley Weisk and William H. Varley.

At the annual meeting of the Morning Choral the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Mrs. George W. Berry, president; Mrs. Benjamin Calvin, vice-president; Mrs. B. C. Cliney, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Theodore Whitman, recording secretary, and Mrs. Benjamin Fowler, treasurer.

Miss Antoinette Dreier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Edward Dreier of 25 Remsen street, has been chosen queen of the ceremonies for the annual sophomore tree planting at Vassar College.

The Junior Auxiliary of the Monday Circle held an informal dance at the Prospect Park Casino Thursday night. The committee in charge consisted of Miss Marion Henry, chairman; Miss Grace Thomson, Miss Bessie Redfern, Mrs. George Hackenberger, Miss Dorothy Buell, Miss Ida Cooke and Miss Marion Beyer.

Miss Elizabeth Parsons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. U. Parsons of 1109 Eighty-fourth street, has been elected president of the Wellesley Outing Club. Miss Parsons is a senior at Wellesley and is a graduate of Manual Training High School in Brooklyn.

Mrs. George T. McQuade has been elected president of St. John's College Auxiliary; Meses. Clarence A. Carr, Santiago P. Cahill, Edward V. Killen, J. Richard Kevin, Charles J. O'Brien

One of the chief features of "Flapper Pair," the original musical comedy which the X. Y. Z. Club will give at Masonic Temple on Saturday evening, June 10, is an attractive chorus composed of Misses Marie E. Cushing, Stella Fox of Manhattan, Virginia Hard, Helen Jelliffe of Manhattan, Marion Kennedy of Manhattan, Elaine Kott, MacBirnay, Claire Martin, Kathryn Mulhearn, Valida Pike of Manhattan, Helen Smith, Betty Vernon, Virginia Weeks and La Rina Wolcott of Manhattan. The leading male part in the show will be taken by Victor M. Onet of Manhattan, who recently played one of the principal roles in "Get in Step," at the Seventh Regiment show. Miss Estelle Carroll will play the leading feminine role in the show.

Miss Marion Shipman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Shipman of 129 Hancock street, became the bride of Mr. Vernon W. Horn, son of Mr. and Mrs. William T. Horn of Middletown, N. Y., Wednesday night at the Central Presbyterian Church in Brooklyn, the Rev. John F. Carson officiating.

Mrs. Charles E. McKenna, Jr., of 224 St. Mark's avenue, was the bride recently at a linen shower at Miss Gladys Sudman, who will be married to Mr. Robert O'Grady in June.

A number of Brooklyn and Long Island girls at Wellesley College have obtained positions on the class crews which will compete for form and speed on Flat Night, next Friday. They are Miss Margaret Griffiths of 834 Park place and Miss Alice Richards, Woodmere, L. I., of the senior class; Miss Miriam Mayne of 144 Seventeenth street, Miss Kate Ludlam, Jamaica, L. I., and Miss Joan Chater, 6 Bay Ridge place, of the junior class; and Miss Eliza Rupprecht of 170 Rugby road of the freshman class.

Invitations have been sent out for the marriage of Miss Dorothy Angell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Albert Angell of 540 Third street, to Mr. George Adams Shuford on Thursday evening, June 8, at St. Luke's Episcopal Church on Clinton avenue.

Part of the annual celebration of May Day at Mount Holyoke College was an original outdoor pageant in which Miss Ruth W. St. John of 815 East Fourth street took part. Miss Ruth A. Flint of 1208 Pacific street and Miss Jessie Scarborough of 530 Bedford avenue were members of committees in connection with the celebration.

Mrs. Winifred T. C. Davies, principal of Public School 56, at Bushwick Parkway and Madison street, was the chief guest at a luncheon at the home of George Saturday, May 20. Mrs. Davies has been principal of the school for twenty years.

Miss Margaret Jeanette Kahrs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Kahrs of 139 Highland place were married on Monday by the Rev. Walter G. Brum, son of the late Rev. August H. Brum and Mrs. Brunn of 315 Fenimore street.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Meyer of 1422 President street have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Elizabeth M. Meyer, to Mr. Henry von Damm, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand H. von Damm of Kew Gardens, L. I.

Mrs. Walter Burrill Moore of the Hotel Bessert is sailing for Naples on board the Patria to spend the summer traveling on the Continent and in England. She expects to return to Brooklyn in the autumn.

A May day tea was given recently by the George Washington Chapter, D. A. B., at the home of the regent, Mrs. Arthur H. Beckwith, 465 East Sixteenth street.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Merkel of 122A Halsey street have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Edith D. Merkel, to Mr. Arthur T. Beach, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur T. Beach of 8 Crooke avenue. Miss Merkel is a student at St. Lawrence University and Mr. Beach formerly attended Columbia University.

Mr. and Mrs. Webster R. Crow of 25A Russell place celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage last Monday.

Supreme Court Justice Norman S. Dike and Mrs. Dike expect to sail for Europe the latter part of June to spend the summer in Switzerland, Italy and France.

The engagement of Miss Beatrice Brooks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Brooks of 148 East Eighteenth street, to Mr. Parker Monroe, formerly of Salt Lake City but now of Brooklyn, was announced Tuesday night at the celebration of Miss Brooks' birthday. Miss Brooks attended Packer Collegiate Institute and is active in the social life of the Knickerbocker Field Club. Mr. Monroe was a student at Cornell when the United States entered the war. He was a captain in the 30th Field Artillery, Camp Dix and a major at Fort Sill, Okla.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold L. Pratt have opened a new home, their country place at Glen Cove, L. I., for the season.

Advertisement for Aimone Furniture. Text: "The highest in everything but price 42-44 East 49th St., bet. Madison and Park THERE IS YET TIME". Includes a table with prices for various furniture items like Mahogany Nest of 4 Tables, Solid Mahogany Bed, and Early Italian Walnut Combination Library Table.

Advertisement for Stern Brothers. Text: "Stern Brothers West Forty-Second Street and West Forty-Third Street. Introducing an entirely new type of floor covering to make your home cool and Summerlike: Extra Heavy FIBRE RUGS. Special $12.75 9x12 ft. In addition to being handsome in design, they are threeply in thickness, the reverse side finished plain assuring double service—two rugs in one. Slightly shaded."