

SUNDAY PROGRAMS AND CHURCH TOPICS Metropolitan Federation Will Organize Many Daily Bible Classes for Young.

DR. LUBECK AT ST. JOHN'S

Dr. Charles Francis Potter to Discuss Fears of Secretary Weeks.

A movement that will be watched with interest will begin in the near future with the opening of daily vacation Bible schools in this city. This is, in fact, a nation wide movement having for its object religious help for children during the long months of vacation. The Metropolitan Federation of Churches estimates that 20,000,000 children are released on vacation at this time of the year throughout the nation.

The possible idleness of these children has caused anxiety to parents and teachers, the federation authorities believe, and the daily Bible school idea has developed. Beginning Thursday 1,000 teachers will meet at the Second Avenue Baptist Church at Tenth street to discuss this work before the opening of the metropolitan district Bible schools.

Visiting pastors will occupy the pulpits of many New York churches tomorrow. Many local ministers are either on vacation or have exchanged pulpits with out of town pastors for a short time.

At the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church the services to-morrow will be conducted by the Rev. Dr. Lewis S. Mudge, who was for many years pastor of one of the strongest churches in the city.

At the Park Avenue Baptist Church at Sixty-fourth street the Rev. Dr. Clarence A. Barbour, president of Rochester Theological Seminary, will preach to-morrow morning at 11 o'clock.

At the Broadway Presbyterian Church the Rev. Dr. Walter Duncan Buchanan, pastor, the Sunday morning services will be held through the summer without interruption.

At the Fourth Presbyterian Church, West End avenue and Seventy-seventh street, the Rev. Dr. James H. Edwards will preach at the morning service.

At the Broadway Presbyterian Church the Rev. Dr. Walter Duncan Buchanan, pastor, the Sunday morning services will be held through the summer without interruption.

At the West Side Y. M. C. A., is to be the speaker at both services in the West End Presbyterian Church. Services are at 11 and 8 P. M.

At the Lafayette Avenue Presbyterian Church, at South Oxford street, Brooklyn, the Rev. Charles Reynolds Brown of the Yale School of Religion will preach at 11 and 7:45.

To-morrow night at the Temple, 130th street and Lenox avenue, Carlyle B. Haynes will lecture at 8 o'clock on "The Impending Federation Which Will Dominate the Religious World—Spiritualism, Protentism and Romanism."

The Rev. Henry Victor Morgan will preach to-morrow morning in the Church of the Healing Christ, at the Hotel Waldorf, at 10 o'clock. The subject will be "How We Master Our Fate." The Rev. Mr. Morgan comes from Tacoma, where he has a church.

To-morrow morning at 11 o'clock Mrs. Mary Chapin will lecture at the Commodore Hotel on "Achievement Through Imagination." The concentration and prosperity classes are held every Monday afternoon and evening at 3 and 8:15 o'clock. To-morrow at 1:30 o'clock Mrs. Chapin is holding another picnic in Hemlock Grove, Five Park Avenue.

Dr. Straton will speak at the West Side Y. M. C. A. to-morrow at 4 P. M. on "Some Ancient Highways for Modern Feet." E. W. Jones will speak at the Twenty-third street branch at 5 P. M. on "A Gospel for Society." The Rev. Joseph D. Barrell will speak at the Merchant Seaman's Branch at 7:30 P. M.

FOUR BOARDS BEGIN HARVARD'S 'SIFTING'

Committee Named by Lowell Is Organized to Take Up Various Phases.

STARTS WORK AT ONCE Gentiles, Hebrews, Alumni and Students to Be Asked Their Opinions.

Special Dispatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD. CAMBRIDGE, Mass., June 23.—The committee of thirteen members of the Harvard faculties appointed to consider limitation of enrollment met to-day and was organized into four sub-committees by Prof. Charles Hall Grandgent of the department of romance languages, who is chairman of the general committee appointed this week by President Lowell.

The members of the first committee, which will start its work immediately, are Paul Joseph Sachs, professor of fine arts and assistant director of the Fogg Art Museum; Harry Austryn Wolfson, assistant professor of Jewish literature and philosophy; Dr. Milton Joseph Rosenau, Charles Wilder, professor of psychology, medicine and hygiene at the Medical School, and Dr. Lawrence Joseph Henderson, professor of biological chemistry at the same institution. With the exception of Prof. Henderson the committee is composed of Jews.

This committee will consult with alumni of Harvard University, regardless of creed, and other persons, and in particular as President Lowell wrote Alfred A. Benesch of Cleveland a week ago, "to get into communication with the thoughtful Jews in this country."

The second committee, which will have university statistics, collecting them from all departments of Harvard, and will be composed of Chester Noyes (Greenough, dean of the college); Wallace East Donham, dean of the business school, and Henry Winslow Holmes, professor of education and dean of the graduate school of education.

The third committee will be composed of Henry Penypacker, chairman of the committee on admission; Harry Ellisworth Clifford, Gordon McKay, professor of electrical engineering, and Prof. Grandgent, and its duties will be to correspond with other colleges to ascertain if similar problems exist at these institutions or not, also what methods they have adopted to eradicate them if any.

The fourth committee, which will be composed of Theodore Lyman Hollis, professor of mathematics and natural philosophy and director of the Jefferson Physical Laboratory; Samuel Williams, professor of law, and Dr. Roger Irving Lee and Henry K. Oliver, professor of hygiene. Its duties have to do with influencing undergraduate opinion. In fulfilling this committee will advise with students.

At present Jews are excluded with very few exceptions. Prof. Grandgent says, from the college social clubs, just as they are in many other institutions. The committee will endeavor to contend against this anti-Jewish feeling in an effort to find out whether if fewer Jewish students were admitted the clubs would accept a greater number into their ranks, just as they were accustomed to do when there were fewer members of the race at the college and the less of them were admitted to these organizations.

"millions now living will never die"—Judge Rutherford

There is special significance in the troublous days through which the world is now passing. Out of these events will come greater developments, involving all nations and peoples. The Bible accurately foretold present conditions. Its prophecies regarding the future will be fulfilled with equal exactness. The outstanding hope held forth in the Scriptures is the hope of eternal life, and the realization of this hope is now at hand. Because of the close proximity of the realization of this wonderful hope, this lecture will be delivered by Hon. J. F. Rutherford, in the Royal Albert Hall, London, and by volunteer business men in practically every large city throughout the world, in thirty-three different languages, on June 25th.

TRAP TWO ON ROOF IN LOFT BURGLARY

Detectives Recover Furs After Responding to Alarm in Sixth Avenue.

Two men were trapped on the roof of 620 Sixth avenue early yesterday by detectives responding to a burglar alarm in the fur loft of Louis Holtzman on the fourth floor of the building. The men had wrapped up a bundle of valuable furs, the police say. They were booked at the West Thirtieth street station as Louis Bahn, 25, of 207 East 112th street and Louis Sassel, 21, of 207 East Eleventh street, and charged with attempted robbery.

The recovery of a steel box containing uncancelled Pennsylvania railroad tickets valued between $5,000 and $10,000 was reported by detective of the Clinton street station, who found the box on East Houston street in front of Public School No. 13. Railroad detectives say the box was taken from the Philadelphia train on its arrival at Pennsylvania Station and that the thief was chased by the company's watchmen through the station crowds into the subway, where he was lost.

Parolman Ernest Lawson of the Alexander avenue station was badly beaten by two men who had been arrested and were being driven to the station house in a taxi cab. The prisoners gave their names as Otto Sietz of New Rochelle and Fred Merengo of 210 East Nineteenth street. Lawson's left arm was fractured and his face was badly cut, but with the help of another patrolman he subdued the prisoners. They were charged with malicious mischief.
