

Athletics for women have taken a firm hold in Germany. Girls of the Berlin High School practicing for a meet to be held at Spandau. Wide World.

A recent photo of Lady Mary Cambridge made at the Royal Horse Show at Richmond, England. New York Herald Foreign Photo.

Mme. Ernestine Schumann-Heink, famous contralto, was recently given a degree of doctor of music by the University of Southern California. This photo shows her being congratulated by Dr. Rufus von Kleinsmid, president of the college, after the presentation. Underwood & Underwood.

Mr. G. A. Lockett's team leading the coaching marathon over Hammersmith Bridge, one of the features of the recent Richmond Horse Show, England. Wide World.

A new photo of Miss Phoebe Lee, one of the features of this year's Ziegfeld Follies at the New Amsterdam.

The last survivor of the Louisiana Tigers, J. H. Griffin, eighty-one years old, bearing, at the Confederate reunion in Richmond, Va., the colors of the regiment which he carried during the civil war. Wide World.

Mr. Henry Hadley, who will direct the Stadium symphony outdoor concerts for the first three weeks of this season, beginning next Thursday.

Wellesley's 1919 class baby attends reunion. Photo shows Ethel Zulatzki, left, and Eleanor White, right, graduates of 1919, holding Margaret Evans, the class baby. Underwood & Underwood.

Tracing stolen autos in Belfast—an armed post of special officers halting a motor car to question the driver. Wide World.