

Don Fabrizio Colonna, son of a former Mayor of Rome, and his American bride, who was Miss Jeanne Perkins of New York. A photo made immediately after their marriage at Genoa last month. Wide World.

Newly discovered painting of Washington and Lafayette, which possesses many characteristics of the work of Gilbert C. Stuart and has aroused much discussion among art critics. Harris & Ewing.

Mr. Grafton Cushing with Miss Lilly Cushing, daughter of Mrs. Howard G. Cushing, motoring at Newport last week. International.

Mrs. J. B. Duke, who is among those summering at Newport

Among the prominent society folks at Newport this season are Mrs. C. Tangeman, left, and Mrs. Williams Burden.

Left to right—Mrs. Robert Goellet, Miss Louise Wilson and the Countess de Revel out for a stroll at Newport last week. International.

John Philip Sousa, famous "March King," and Mrs. Sousa on the tennis courts of their home at Port Washington, L. I. Underwood.

Mrs. M. Brady Harriman, one of Newport's prominent visitors.

A group of Newport's prominent summer visitors. Left to right—Mr. William Gammel, Miss Carlotta Havemeyer and Mr. H. O. Havemeyer, Jr.