

Welfare Fetes Keep Society at Newport Busy

Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont to Have Charge of Tea Table at Event for Blind.

Special Dispatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD. NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 7.—Welfare fetes will be the chief events in Newport this week and society is kept busy preparing for the benefit entertainments.

At the sale to be held at the villa of Mrs. Lawrence Lewis Gillett, on Thursday for the benefit of the New York Association for the Blind Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont is to have charge of the tea table.

Miss Isabelle Miller will be in charge of White Elephant Table at the fete on the lawn of the place of the Misses Mason on Friday for the benefit of the Newport home for the aged.

At the sale to be held at the villa of Mrs. Lawrence Lewis Gillett, on Thursday for the benefit of the New York Association for the Blind Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont is to have charge of the tea table.

At the sale to be held at the villa of Mrs. Lawrence Lewis Gillett, on Thursday for the benefit of the New York Association for the Blind Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont is to have charge of the tea table.

At the sale to be held at the villa of Mrs. Lawrence Lewis Gillett, on Thursday for the benefit of the New York Association for the Blind Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont is to have charge of the tea table.

At the sale to be held at the villa of Mrs. Lawrence Lewis Gillett, on Thursday for the benefit of the New York Association for the Blind Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont is to have charge of the tea table.

At the sale to be held at the villa of Mrs. Lawrence Lewis Gillett, on Thursday for the benefit of the New York Association for the Blind Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont is to have charge of the tea table.

At the sale to be held at the villa of Mrs. Lawrence Lewis Gillett, on Thursday for the benefit of the New York Association for the Blind Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont is to have charge of the tea table.

At the sale to be held at the villa of Mrs. Lawrence Lewis Gillett, on Thursday for the benefit of the New York Association for the Blind Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont is to have charge of the tea table.

At the sale to be held at the villa of Mrs. Lawrence Lewis Gillett, on Thursday for the benefit of the New York Association for the Blind Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont is to have charge of the tea table.

At the sale to be held at the villa of Mrs. Lawrence Lewis Gillett, on Thursday for the benefit of the New York Association for the Blind Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont is to have charge of the tea table.

At the sale to be held at the villa of Mrs. Lawrence Lewis Gillett, on Thursday for the benefit of the New York Association for the Blind Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont is to have charge of the tea table.

At the sale to be held at the villa of Mrs. Lawrence Lewis Gillett, on Thursday for the benefit of the New York Association for the Blind Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont is to have charge of the tennis table.

At the sale to be held at the villa of Mrs. Lawrence Lewis Gillett, on Thursday for the benefit of the New York Association for the Blind Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont is to have charge of the tennis table.

At the sale to be held at the villa of Mrs. Lawrence Lewis Gillett, on Thursday for the benefit of the New York Association for the Blind Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont is to have charge of the tennis table.

At the sale to be held at the villa of Mrs. Lawrence Lewis Gillett, on Thursday for the benefit of the New York Association for the Blind Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont is to have charge of the tennis table.

At the sale to be held at the villa of Mrs. Lawrence Lewis Gillett, on Thursday for the benefit of the New York Association for the Blind Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont is to have charge of the tennis table.

At the sale to be held at the villa of Mrs. Lawrence Lewis Gillett, on Thursday for the benefit of the New York Association for the Blind Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont is to have charge of the tennis table.

At the sale to be held at the villa of Mrs. Lawrence Lewis Gillett, on Thursday for the benefit of the New York Association for the Blind Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont is to have charge of the tennis table.

At the sale to be held at the villa of Mrs. Lawrence Lewis Gillett, on Thursday for the benefit of the New York Association for the Blind Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont is to have charge of the tennis table.

At the sale to be held at the villa of Mrs. Lawrence Lewis Gillett, on Thursday for the benefit of the New York Association for the Blind Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont is to have charge of the tennis table.

At the sale to be held at the villa of Mrs. Lawrence Lewis Gillett, on Thursday for the benefit of the New York Association for the Blind Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont is to have charge of the tennis table.

PERSONAL INTELLIGENCE.

Mr. and Mrs. Vanderbilt Webb have returned from London to the Hotel Carlton, Paris.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Gurnee and Miss Bel B. Gurnee will go to Westbury, L. I., from Bar Harbor, Me., for the autumn.

Mr. and Mrs. Columbus O'D. Icelin and their daughter, Miss Adrian Icelin, are touring through Europe.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Sloan Auchincloss have gone to Paris from their villa at Mount St. Michel, France.

Princess Michael Cantacuzene-Speransky, who sailed for Europe last week, will be absent several months.

Mrs. Benjamin Franklin Clyde has come from Bryn Mawr, Pa., to the Plaza for a few days.

Mrs. Stephen H. P. Pell gave a small luncheon party yesterday in Pierre's for Mrs. William L. Harkness.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Townsend Burden have left the Ambassador Hotel for Newport.

Mrs. Craig Biddle has just come from Newport and is at the Vanderbilt for a brief stay.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard M. Thomas motored from Southampton yesterday and are at the Ritz-Carlton for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry White returned from Southampton yesterday and were entertained at luncheon at Pierre's by Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Darrow, Dr. and Mrs. George Draper, Lieut.-Col. Francis T. A. Junkin and Mrs. Junkin, Mr. and Mrs. Charles William Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Matthew S. Morgan, Mrs. Charles Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. George S. Thomas and Mr. and Mrs. Earle C. Anthony of California, who have been at the Ritz-Carlton several days.

Among the other passengers who will be Mr. and Mrs. L. Anderson, Harry G. Brough, the Philadelphia Trust Company; H. M. Clemans, secretary of the Chamber of Shipping of Liverpool; H. A. Dunn of the Columbia Trust Company; Percy Dalgleish, Lloyd's agent at Southampton; George W. Patrick, Col. Guy D. Goff of the Department of Justice; Sir Archibald Nicholson, C. E. Rogers of the national Bank of South Africa, and George Safford of Harris, Forbes & Co., and Mrs. Safford.

The steamship will take over 800 passengers, 300 of them being in the first cabin.

Among the 500 passengers who will start aboard to-day by the Reliance of the United American lines will be Paul Tietgens of Chicago, who is going abroad as representative in Germany of Armour & Co.; L. M. Boomer, Mrs. and Mrs. William B. G. East, and Mrs. G. East of Hamburg-American Line; and Mrs. Frank Reicher of the Theatre Guild; H. L. Mencken, the essayist, and Mrs. and Mrs. C. F. Herter of New York.

Mrs. Daniel Steen, wife of the Counselor at the New York Legation, who was in Washington yesterday after spending ten days at the Vanderbilt.

Mrs. Yvonne Edgard de Bresson, who was in Washington yesterday, and her son, Mr. Chauncey Depew de Bresson of Nice, France, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey M. Depew at their residence in New York. They returned from Europe last week by the Finland.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter G. Gerry has come from Washington to the Ritz-Carlton and had a small dinner party there yesterday. Mrs. Edwin M. Post, Jr., had a luncheon party there for Miss Katherine Mackay. Mr. and Mrs. James B. Duke also had a few friends there for luncheon.

Mr. Stephen B. Elkins, who has been in the White Mountains, has gone to Atlantic City.

Mrs. Henry C. Wallace, wife of the Secretary of Agriculture, started yesterday for her home in Des Moines, Ia. The Secretary will visit there when his duties permit.

Mrs. Francis E. Warren, wife of Senator Warren, who is convalescent after an operation at a Baltimore hospital, expects to return to Washington next week.

At Washington Hotels. New York arrivals at Washington hotels. Willard—Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Westcott, Mr. James D. Johnson, C. C. Pauling, A. G. Elliott, Jr., James Parker, Miss Elizabeth C. Tandy, William O. Morgan, W. B. Morton, Charles M. Keller, G. B. East, T. Standford, John A. Boone, M. R. Bert, M. M. Edgerton, Mr. and Mrs. D. Y. Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce P. Dague.

Wardman Park Inn—Raymond Beck, J. A. Alfaro and family.

At Narragansett Pier. Special Dispatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD. NARRAGANSETT PIER, R. I., Aug. 7.—Chief among the social features here to-day was the meeting of the Monday Bridge Club at the Hotel de Ville, which was held at night. Fifty members were present, and Mrs. William Douglas Killduff of Philadelphia was the hostess.

Maharajah of Rajpipla to Sail for Berengaria

Miss Barbara Whitney Also Books Passage by That Ship—Other Seagoers.

The Maharajah of Rajpipla, who is reputed to be one of the wealthiest of the princes of India, has completed his American visit, which started with a tour of the United States, and will sail for England to-day by the Berengaria.

Miss Barbara Whitney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney, also has booked passage by the Cunarder. Others going are Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Bowles, E. Hubert Litchfield, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Bowles, Bronson Winthrop, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cushman, Miss Josephine Cushman, Robert Cushman, Jr., Mrs. George G. Schieffelin, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Milgrim, who have planned a lengthy stay abroad; Mrs. Charles R. Proctor of Utica, N. Y.; Baroness Rosenkrantz and Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Rueshomer of New York.

Mrs. William Ward Frick and Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Frick of Pittsburgh, who have been stopping at the Vanderbilt, also will sail and will be aboard until the late autumn. Others going will be Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Darrow, Dr. and Mrs. George Draper, Lieut.-Col. Francis T. A. Junkin and Mrs. Junkin, Mr. and Mrs. Charles William Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Matthew S. Morgan, Mrs. Charles Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. George S. Thomas and Mr. and Mrs. Earle C. Anthony of California, who have been at the Ritz-Carlton several days.

Among the other passengers who will be Mr. and Mrs. L. Anderson, Harry G. Brough, the Philadelphia Trust Company; H. M. Clemans, secretary of the Chamber of Shipping of Liverpool; H. A. Dunn of the Columbia Trust Company; Percy Dalgleish, Lloyd's agent at Southampton; George W. Patrick, Col. Guy D. Goff of the Department of Justice; Sir Archibald Nicholson, C. E. Rogers of the national Bank of South Africa, and George Safford of Harris, Forbes & Co., and Mrs. Safford.

The steamship will take over 800 passengers, 300 of them being in the first cabin.

Among the 500 passengers who will start aboard to-day by the Reliance of the United American lines will be Paul Tietgens of Chicago, who is going abroad as representative in Germany of Armour & Co.; L. M. Boomer, Mrs. and Mrs. William B. G. East, and Mrs. G. East of Hamburg-American Line; and Mrs. Frank Reicher of the Theatre Guild; H. L. Mencken, the essayist, and Mrs. and Mrs. C. F. Herter of New York.

Mrs. Alfred N. Beadleston (left) and Miss Margaret Watson Watching the Bathers at Southampton.

Lord and Lady Auckland Among Those in the Gallery for the Preliminary Matches.

Special Dispatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD. SOUTHAMPTON, N. Y., Aug. 7.—Prominent lawn tennis players began to arrive early this morning and they are being entertained in various villas of the place as all the hotels are filled for this month, which is the busiest of the summer.

The committee include Mrs. Roger Lewis, Mrs. W. M. O'Connell, Mrs. Theodor Wente, Mrs. Robert Wylie, Mrs. M. F. Egger and Mrs. Nelson Oloott.

Mr. and Mrs. Adrian H. Larkin will give a dinner next Saturday night for their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. James S. Larkin.

Mrs. Robert B. Minis and her young daughter, Miss Estelle Livingston Minis, have come for a month to the Irving House.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen H. P. Pell will give a small dance at Cherisot on Wednesday night for her son, Mr. Robert Livingston Pell, and his fiancée, Miss Alice Harding.

Mr. and Mrs. James L. Breese have sent out invitations for a dinner at the Orchard August 13. The Schiff of the Wente Mrs. Robert Wylie, Mrs. M. F. Egger and Mrs. Nelson Oloott.

Mr. W. Archer Thomson, after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Edmund S. Twining at Fairfield, will return to New York to-morrow.

Mr. and Mrs. Loomis Taylor and their children are passing the summer in the Bavarian Alps, where they have leased a villa.

Mr. and Mrs. De Lancy Kountze have gone to Packards Camp, Sebce Lake, Me., where they will remain until the last week in this month, when they will return to Winona, their villa in Halsey Neck, La.

Mr. Philip Hiss, who returned recently from Europe, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Vincent S. Mulford at the Grapewines.

Mr. Sydney J. Smith is cruising with the yacht "The Dolphin," which has been anchored in Peconic Bay.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Connett, who have been visiting the Misses Howland in Southampton, will start to-morrow to join on the Viking Mr. and Mrs. Galen L. Stone, who have chartered the yacht from George F. Baker, Jr., of New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Main, of New York, after a visit with Mrs. Katherine Mackay, have returned to New York. Miss Mackay and her fiancée, Mr. Kenneth O'Brien, left to-day for New York.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Reynolds and Mrs. Anne Townsend, Philadelphia, and Mr. James W. Shaughnessy, Tonkers, N. Y.

TENNIS STARS ENTERTAINED AT VILLAS IN SOUTHAMPTON

John H. Sumner of Vice Society Denounces Critics Says Three Publishers Who Assail Censorship Plan Ask His Advice Secretly.

Three publishers, one of them ranking with the leading houses here, have openly objected to the suggestion recently made by John H. Sumner for voluntary censorship of books, and this despite the fact that all three have appealed to the New York Society for the Suppression of Vice, of which Mr. Sumner is chairman, for advice on certain doubtful manuscripts, according to a statement made yesterday by Mr. Sumner at his office, 215 West Twenty-second street.

Mr. Sumner said that he was surprised at the public utterances of the trio in view of the fact that in seeking the society's aid they tacitly admitted their incapability alone to decide the fitness of certain types of manuscripts for general reading.

Mr. Sumner has a score of replies from publishers to whom he sent an invitation to appoint a time and place of meeting for the discussion of the book jury idea. He is hopeful of such a meeting being held. The majority of the answers, from which he produced extracts, were favorable.

Mr. Sumner said that he was surprised at the public utterances of the trio in view of the fact that in seeking the society's aid they tacitly admitted their incapability alone to decide the fitness of certain types of manuscripts for general reading.

Mr. Sumner has a score of replies from publishers to whom he sent an invitation to appoint a time and place of meeting for the discussion of the book jury idea. He is hopeful of such a meeting being held. The majority of the answers, from which he produced extracts, were favorable.

Mr. Sumner said that he was surprised at the public utterances of the trio in view of the fact that in seeking the society's aid they tacitly admitted their incapability alone to decide the fitness of certain types of manuscripts for general reading.

Mr. Sumner has a score of replies from publishers to whom he sent an invitation to appoint a time and place of meeting for the discussion of the book jury idea. He is hopeful of such a meeting being held. The majority of the answers, from which he produced extracts, were favorable.

Mr. Sumner said that he was surprised at the public utterances of the trio in view of the fact that in seeking the society's aid they tacitly admitted their incapability alone to decide the fitness of certain types of manuscripts for general reading.

Mr. Sumner has a score of replies from publishers to whom he sent an invitation to appoint a time and place of meeting for the discussion of the book jury idea. He is hopeful of such a meeting being held. The majority of the answers, from which he produced extracts, were favorable.

Mr. Sumner said that he was surprised at the public utterances of the trio in view of the fact that in seeking the society's aid they tacitly admitted their incapability alone to decide the fitness of certain types of manuscripts for general reading.

Mr. Sumner has a score of replies from publishers to whom he sent an invitation to appoint a time and place of meeting for the discussion of the book jury idea. He is hopeful of such a meeting being held. The majority of the answers, from which he produced extracts, were favorable.

Mr. Sumner said that he was surprised at the public utterances of the trio in view of the fact that in seeking the society's aid they tacitly admitted their incapability alone to decide the fitness of certain types of manuscripts for general reading.

Mr. Sumner has a score of replies from publishers to whom he sent an invitation to appoint a time and place of meeting for the discussion of the book jury idea. He is hopeful of such a meeting being held. The majority of the answers, from which he produced extracts, were favorable.

Mr. Sumner said that he was surprised at the public utterances of the trio in view of the fact that in seeking the society's aid they tacitly admitted their incapability alone to decide the fitness of certain types of manuscripts for general reading.

Mr. Sumner has a score of replies from publishers to whom he sent an invitation to appoint a time and place of meeting for the discussion of the book jury idea. He is hopeful of such a meeting being held. The majority of the answers, from which he produced extracts, were favorable.

Mr. Sumner said that he was surprised at the public utterances of the trio in view of the fact that in seeking the society's aid they tacitly admitted their incapability alone to decide the fitness of certain types of manuscripts for general reading.

Mr. Sumner has a score of replies from publishers to whom he sent an invitation to appoint a time and place of meeting for the discussion of the book jury idea. He is hopeful of such a meeting being held. The majority of the answers, from which he produced extracts, were favorable.

Mr. Sumner said that he was surprised at the public utterances of the trio in view of the fact that in seeking the society's aid they tacitly admitted their incapability alone to decide the fitness of certain types of manuscripts for general reading.

Mr. Sumner has a score of replies from publishers to whom he sent an invitation to appoint a time and place of meeting for the discussion of the book jury idea. He is hopeful of such a meeting being held. The majority of the answers, from which he produced extracts, were favorable.

Mr. Sumner said that he was surprised at the public utterances of the trio in view of the fact that in seeking the society's aid they tacitly admitted their incapability alone to decide the fitness of certain types of manuscripts for general reading.

Mr. Sumner has a score of replies from publishers to whom he sent an invitation to appoint a time and place of meeting for the discussion of the book jury idea. He is hopeful of such a meeting being held. The majority of the answers, from which he produced extracts, were favorable.

Mr. Sumner said that he was surprised at the public utterances of the trio in view of the fact that in seeking the society's aid they tacitly admitted their incapability alone to decide the fitness of certain types of manuscripts for general reading.

John H. Sumner of Vice Society Denounces Critics

Says Three Publishers Who Assail Censorship Plan Ask His Advice Secretly.

Three publishers, one of them ranking with the leading houses here, have openly objected to the suggestion recently made by John H. Sumner for voluntary censorship of books, and this despite the fact that all three have appealed to the New York Society for the Suppression of Vice, of which Mr. Sumner is chairman, for advice on certain doubtful manuscripts, according to a statement made yesterday by Mr. Sumner at his office, 215 West Twenty-second street.

Mr. Sumner said that he was surprised at the public utterances of the trio in view of the fact that in seeking the society's aid they tacitly admitted their incapability alone to decide the fitness of certain types of manuscripts for general reading.

Mr. Sumner has a score of replies from publishers to whom he sent an invitation to appoint a time and place of meeting for the discussion of the book jury idea. He is hopeful of such a meeting being held. The majority of the answers, from which he produced extracts, were favorable.

Mr. Sumner said that he was surprised at the public utterances of the trio in view of the fact that in seeking the society's aid they tacitly admitted their incapability alone to decide the fitness of certain types of manuscripts for general reading.

Mr. Sumner has a score of replies from publishers to whom he sent an invitation to appoint a time and place of meeting for the discussion of the book jury idea. He is hopeful of such a meeting being held. The majority of the answers, from which he produced extracts, were favorable.

Mr. Sumner said that he was surprised at the public utterances of the trio in view of the fact that in seeking the society's aid they tacitly admitted their incapability alone to decide the fitness of certain types of manuscripts for general reading.

Mr. Sumner has a score of replies from publishers to whom he sent an invitation to appoint a time and place of meeting for the discussion of the book jury idea. He is hopeful of such a meeting being held. The majority of the answers, from which he produced extracts, were favorable.

Mr. Sumner said that he was surprised at the public utterances of the trio in view of the fact that in seeking the society's aid they tacitly admitted their incapability alone to decide the fitness of certain types of manuscripts for general reading.

Mr. Sumner has a score of replies from publishers to whom he sent an invitation to appoint a time and place of meeting for the discussion of the book jury idea. He is hopeful of such a meeting being held. The majority of the answers, from which he produced extracts, were favorable.

Mr. Sumner said that he was surprised at the public utterances of the trio in view of the fact that in seeking the society's aid they tacitly admitted their incapability alone to decide the fitness of certain types of manuscripts for general reading.

Mr. Sumner has a score of replies from publishers to whom he sent an invitation to appoint a time and place of meeting for the discussion of the book jury idea. He is hopeful of such a meeting being held. The majority of the answers, from which he produced extracts, were favorable.

Mr. Sumner said that he was surprised at the public utterances of the trio in view of the fact that in seeking the society's aid they tacitly admitted their incapability alone to decide the fitness of certain types of manuscripts for general reading.

Mr. Sumner has a score of replies from publishers to whom he sent an invitation to appoint a time and place of meeting for the discussion of the book jury idea. He is hopeful of such a meeting being held. The majority of the answers, from which he produced extracts, were favorable.

Mr. Sumner said that he was surprised at the public utterances of the trio in view of the fact that in seeking the society's aid they tacitly admitted their incapability alone to decide the fitness of certain types of manuscripts for general reading.

Mr. Sumner has a score of replies from publishers to whom he sent an invitation to appoint a time and place of meeting for the discussion of the book jury idea. He is hopeful of such a meeting being held. The majority of the answers, from which he produced extracts, were favorable.

Mr. Sumner said that he was surprised at the public utterances of the trio in view of the fact that in seeking the society's aid they tacitly admitted their incapability alone to decide the fitness of certain types of manuscripts for general reading.

Mr. Sumner has a score of replies from publishers to whom he sent an invitation to appoint a time and place of meeting for the discussion of the book jury idea. He is hopeful of such a meeting being held. The majority of the answers, from which he produced extracts, were favorable.

Mr. Sumner said that he was surprised at the public utterances of the trio in view of the fact that in seeking the society's aid they tacitly admitted their incapability alone to decide the fitness of certain types of manuscripts for general reading.

Mr. Sumner has a score of replies from publishers to whom he sent an invitation to appoint a time and place of meeting for the discussion of the book jury idea. He is hopeful of such a meeting being held. The majority of the answers, from which he produced extracts, were favorable.

Mr. Sumner said that he was surprised at the public utterances of the trio in view of the fact that in seeking the society's aid they tacitly admitted their incapability alone to decide the fitness of certain types of manuscripts for general reading.

Mr. Sumner has a score of replies from publishers to whom he sent an invitation to appoint a time and place of meeting for the discussion of the book jury idea. He is hopeful of such a meeting being held. The majority of the answers, from which he produced extracts, were favorable.

Mr. Sumner said that he was surprised at the public utterances of the trio in view of the fact that in seeking the society's aid they tacitly admitted their incapability alone to decide the fitness of certain types of manuscripts for general reading.

'WOMEN' OUTPLAY MEN AT POLO IN FRANCE

Victors Hailed as Marvels Until Identity Is Revealed.

After a controversy that had raged all week over the relative merits of men and women as polo players, in which advocates of women in the saddle were greatly outnumbered by those who ridiculed the idea, the habitués and visitors at Le Touquet were astounded when a team composed of three 'women' played all around three French officers yesterday.

A Mrs. Fletcher dared to form a team with two other women and challenge the French players. In the most skillful manner her team outplayed the military group on the field, and the women partisans hailed the victors as marvels. Anxious to record the game in history, the names of the two 'women' players were sought. Reluctantly they revealed themselves modestly as Bobby Egan, one of the leading figures in the sport, and Capt. Hawkins, a British player.

Enlogies Mark Death of Veteran Stenographer.

The Court of General Sessions yesterday observed the death of Frank S. Beard, who served for more than forty years as court stenographer in the Criminal Courts Building. He died Sunday in Staten Island Hospital.

Judges Koenig, Mancuso, Talley, Nott and Johnstone—all who are now sitting—spent minutes on their records. Leonard A. Snilkin, representing the New York bar and John F. O'Neill, Assistant District Attorney, delivered eulogies of the veteran reporter. Funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock this morning in the Church of the Sacred Heart, West New Brighton, S. I. Burial will be in Hackensack, N. J.

Funeral of F. W. Frueauff. Plants Cause Operation as Sasket Is Placed in Grave.

Funeral services for Frank W. Frueauff, junior partner of Henry L. Doherty & Co. and executive head of the Cities Service Company, were held yesterday at his home, 1669 Fifth avenue, New York. Mr. Frueauff died at the Central Presbyterian Church, New York, this morning in the Church of the Sacred Heart, West New Brighton, S. I. Burial will be in Hackensack, N. J.

Funeral of Giuseppe Ferri. Funeral services for Giuseppe Ferri, aged 65, a retired banker, who died late Saturday in his home at 20 Park avenue, Winfield, L. I., will be held in the Metropolitan Church, New York, at 2 o'clock to-morrow afternoon. Prior to his retirement in 1912 Mr. Ferri for twenty years conducted a banking institution at 335 East Eleventh street, New York.

Funeral of Giuseppe Ferri. Funeral services for Giuseppe Ferri, aged 65, a retired banker, who died late Saturday in his home at 20 Park avenue, Winfield, L. I., will be held in the Metropolitan Church, New York, at 2 o'clock to-morrow afternoon. Prior to his retirement in 1912 Mr. Ferri for twenty years conducted a banking institution at 335 East Eleventh street, New York.

Funeral of Giuseppe Ferri. Funeral services for Giuseppe Ferri, aged 65, a retired banker, who died late Saturday in his home at 20 Park avenue, Winfield, L. I., will be held in the Metropolitan Church, New York, at 2 o'clock to-morrow afternoon. Prior to his retirement in 1912 Mr. Ferri for twenty years conducted a banking institution at 335 East Eleventh street, New York.

Funeral of Giuseppe Ferri. Funeral services for Giuseppe Ferri, aged 65, a retired banker, who died late Saturday in his home at 20 Park avenue, Winfield, L. I., will be held in the Metropolitan Church, New York, at 2 o'clock to-morrow afternoon. Prior to his retirement in 1912 Mr. Ferri for twenty years conducted a banking institution at 335 East Eleventh street, New York.

Funeral of Giuseppe Ferri. Funeral services for Giuseppe Ferri, aged 65, a retired banker, who died late Saturday in his home at 20 Park avenue, Winfield, L. I., will be held in the Metropolitan Church, New York, at 2 o'clock to-morrow afternoon. Prior to his retirement in 1912 Mr. Ferri for twenty years conducted a banking institution at 335 East Eleventh street, New York.

Funeral of Giuseppe Ferri. Funeral services for Giuseppe Ferri, aged 65, a retired banker, who died late Saturday in his home at 20 Park avenue, Winfield, L. I., will be held in the Metropolitan Church, New York, at 2 o'clock to-morrow afternoon. Prior to his retirement in 1912 Mr. Ferri for twenty years conducted a banking institution at 335 East Eleventh street, New York.

Funeral of Giuseppe Ferri. Funeral services for Giuseppe Ferri, aged 65, a retired banker, who died late Saturday in his home at 20 Park avenue, Winfield, L. I., will be held in the Metropolitan Church, New York, at 2 o'clock to-morrow afternoon. Prior to his retirement in 1912 Mr. Ferri for twenty years conducted a banking institution at 335 East Eleventh street, New York.

Funeral of Giuseppe Ferri. Funeral services for Giuseppe Ferri, aged 65, a retired banker, who died late Saturday in his home at 20 Park avenue, Winfield, L. I., will be held in the Metropolitan Church, New York, at 2 o'clock to-morrow afternoon. Prior to his retirement in 1912 Mr. Ferri for twenty years conducted a banking institution at 335 East Eleventh street, New York.

Funeral of Giuseppe Ferri. Funeral services for Giuseppe Ferri, aged 65, a retired banker, who died late Saturday in his home at 20 Park avenue, Winfield, L. I., will be held in the Metropolitan Church, New York, at 2 o'clock to-morrow afternoon. Prior to his retirement in 1912 Mr. Ferri for twenty years conducted a banking institution at 335 East Eleventh street, New York.

Funeral of Giuseppe Ferri. Funeral services for Giuseppe Ferri, aged 65, a retired banker, who died late Saturday in his home at 20 Park avenue, Winfield, L. I., will be held in the Metropolitan Church, New York, at 2 o'clock to-morrow afternoon. Prior to his retirement in 1912 Mr. Ferri for twenty years conducted a banking institution at 335 East Eleventh street, New York.

Funeral of Giuseppe Ferri. Funeral services for Giuseppe Ferri, aged 65, a retired banker, who died late Saturday in his home at 20 Park avenue, Winfield, L. I., will be held in the Metropolitan Church, New York, at 2 o'clock to-morrow afternoon. Prior to his retirement in 1912 Mr. Ferri for twenty years conducted a banking institution at 335 East Eleventh street, New York.