

A coat frock for autumn, showing the change in length in the Paris styles. Underwood & Underwood.

Isadora Duncan, the famous dancer, with the children of her school in Moscow. She went to Russia at the invitation of the Soviet Government, married there and has since returned to Berlin. New York Herald Foreign Photo.

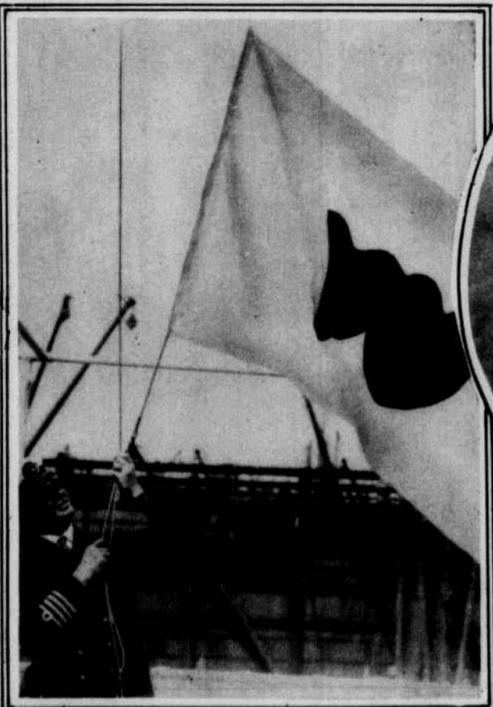

A charming study of Lady Grey, taken recently at Wilsford Manor, near Salisbury. Hoppe.

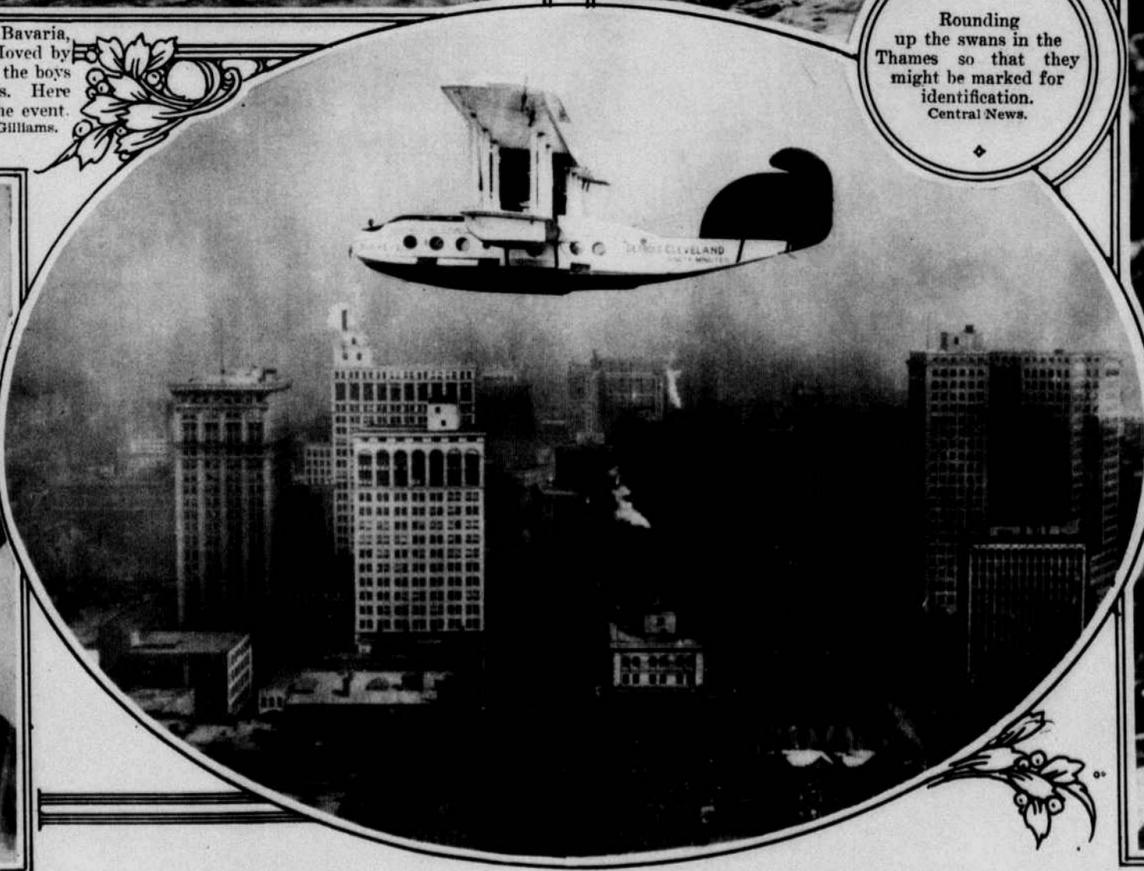

When Gustavus Adolphus occupied Dinkelsbühl, Bavaria, the boys of the town mobilized to fight the invader. Moved by this show of bravery, the invaders spared the town, and the boys were rewarded by being allowed to form guard squads. Here is a detachment at a celebration of the anniversary of the event. Gilliams.

Rounding up the swans in the Thames so that they might be marked for identification. Central News.

Capt. Look raising the honeymoon flag, two large red hearts on a background of white, on the United States liner. President Garfield. Fotograms

A striking, close range photograph of the aeromarine flying boat which cruises between Cleveland and Detroit. The airplane is shown in the picture flying above the business center of Detroit. Copyright by Aeromarine from Underwood & Underwood.

A cautious camera man succeeded in making this photograph of an opossum family gathered on the top of a bush. Underwood & Underwood.