

SOCIETY RESUMING ACTIVITIES --- BROOKLYN AND RICHMOND NOTES

Back From Country to Reopen Homes for Autumn Season

Many Come Back to Town From Mountains or Travels Daily.

HOUSES and apartments which have been closed all summer are rapidly being put in order and made ready for the occupancy of their owners, who are returning to town in large numbers every day.

Mrs. William H. Hirst, who has been abroad five months, is returning from Europe on the Aquitania, which is due on Friday. She will open her apartment at 375 Park avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. de Forest and their daughters, the Misses Julia, Mary and Alice de Forest, and their son, Mr. Charles de Forest, returned on Tuesday on the Majestic after spending the summer in England. They will spend the autumn at their house in Cold Spring Harbor, L. I.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Wands have returned from Dark Harbor, Me., to their home, 122 East Eighty-second street, and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Coppell to 123 East Fifty-sixth street from Murray Bay, Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Hennen Morris and their daughter, Miss Louise Morris, will return to New York this week from Dark Harbor. The marriage of Miss Morris to Mr. Dudley Holbrook Mills will take place in November.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Havemeyer, who are now at their country home at Islip, will return to town on October 1 and occupy their new home, 19 East Sixty-sixth street.

Dr. and Mrs. Walter B. James have left Park Smiths in the Adirondacks, where they spent the summer, for their country place at Cold Spring Harbor.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles N. B. Camac have returned to their home, 125 East Sixty-sixth street, from Murray Bay, Canada, bringing with them their daughter, Miss Harriet Camac, who has been ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pierpont H. Gilbert have returned to their apartment at 200 Park avenue from Newport, where they spent the summer.

Mrs. J. Hodges Crowell has closed her summer home, Wave Crest, Far Rockaway, and returned to her town home, 1041 Fifth avenue. Mrs. Crowell is vice-president of the Legislative League and an active member in many clubs.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Albert, who were married on Wednesday have gone to Hot Springs for the first part of their honeymoon. They will make a trip to the Pacific Coast before returning here the latter part of November and will make their home at the Hotel Ambassador. Mrs. Albert was Miss Arline Farnham, daughter of Mrs. Charles W. Newman of the Belmont.

Mr. and Mrs. James N. Wallace are spending their honeymoon at Hot Springs. Their marriage took place on September 5 at the Hotel Plaza. Mrs. Wallace was Miss Rachel Dieckman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Dieckman. Mr. Wallace is the son of the late James Wallace, who was president of the Central Union Trust Company.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Berry Pogson will spend the winter at 440 Riverside Drive, where they have taken an apartment.

Mr. and Mrs. William N. Croxon have given up their apartment on Riverside Drive and will be at the Belvedere for the winter.

Mrs. Bayard Sands Litchfield and her daughter, Miss Barbara Litchfield, who returned recently from Europe, where they went in early June, are now at their country place at Litchfield Park in the Adirondacks. They will open their home, 23 East Eighty-first street, the latter part of October.

Mrs. O. W. Barnswell, who recently returned from Europe, is spending a few days at the Arden Club in Rye, N. Y., before opening her home, 507 Madison avenue.

Dr. and Mrs. Walter Eyre Lambert and Miss Mary Lambert have returned to their home, 132 West Fifty-eighth street, from Canada, where they spent the summer.

Mrs. James Griswold Wentz has returned from a trip of several weeks in Canada, to her Newport villa. She will soon return to her home on West End avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Gavin, who spent the summer traveling in Europe, returned last week on the Homeric.

Mrs. Samuel Hill arrived last week from Washington, D. C., and spent several days at the Hotel Lorraine before going to Hardacre, her country home near Haverhill, N. Y. Among others at that hotel during the week were Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Reed Lawrence of Tuxedo Park, N. Y.; Mrs. John M. Satterfield of Buffalo, N. Y.; Mrs. Herbert Putnam of Washington, D. C.; Mrs. Horace P. Chamberlain of Buffalo, N. Y.; and Mrs. M. J. Perault, Jr., of Fitchburg, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin S. Townsend have returned from the North Woods Club to Center Island, Oyster Bay, where they will remain until early November, when they go to Redlands, Cal., for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael J. Mulqueen, who spent the summer in Maline, have returned to their apartments in the Vanderbilt Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Stuart Gray, who were married on Monday in Great Brittain, have left for Paris, where they will spend about three weeks before going to Calcutta, where they

Brides and Future Brides in the Social World

MISS MARY APPLETON, DAUGHTER OF MRS. H. MURRAY LA MONT, WHO WILL BE MARRIED ON OCTOBER 4th TO MR. WILLIAM HARMON BROWN, 52d

MRS. BRUCE McLEAN FALCONER, WHO WAS MISS CORA STEELE, DAUGHTER OF MRS. FREDERICK ALBERT STEELE

MRS. JOHN REYNOLDS HAMMETT, DAUGHTER OF MR. AND MRS. JOHN LEE MAHIN, WHOSE WEDDING TOOK PLACE ON SEPT 16th

will make their home and where he represents the Standard Oil Company. Mrs. Gray was Miss Franklin Engle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Franklin Engle of 449 Park avenue and Great Barrington. Mr. Gray, who was graduated from Cornell in 1910, is a son of Mr. and Mrs. William John Gray.

Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Bruder and their daughters, the Misses Muriel and Betty Bruder, who spent the summer in Switzerland, have left there for Paris. They will sail for New York the latter part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Bernays, who were recently married, will occupy the home of Mr. Paul Manahy, the sculptor, at 44 Washington street. The house is one of the two story studios in the new building at the corner of Washington to Lafayette place, between Washington Square North and Eighth street. Mrs. Bernays was Miss Doris E. Fleischman.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick T. Fleitmann have returned to their home in Westbury, L. I., from the Profile House, New Hampshire.

Col. and Mrs. Jefferson de Mont Thompson, who spent the greater part of the summer motoring through Switzerland, Germany, Holland and Belgium, will sail for New York on the Majestic on September 27.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter F. Chappell, who were married on Monday in Washington, sailed on Tuesday on the Beolote for a wedding trip abroad. Mrs. Chappell was Miss Sidney Randall Webb, daughter of the late John Sidney Webb and Mrs. Webb of Washington.

Dr. and Mrs. George E. Davis returned last week from Europe and are at their home, 42 West Seventy-seventh street.

Mr. and Mrs. William Murray Cromie have returned from Milbrook, N. Y., and are at the Hotel Belmont for a few days before opening their apartment, 790 Park avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor E. Meert of 28 East Ninety-first street, sailed yesterday on the Crete for Naples. They will remain about two years and on their return to this country will occupy the estate which they recently purchased near Ossining.

Mr. and Mrs. William Harris Benedict, Jr., who are spending their honeymoon in White Sulphur Springs, will soon leave for Cuba, where they will be at the Hotel Belmont for the winter. Mr. Benedict, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Benedict of New Brunswick, N. J., is connected with the Warner Sugar Refining Company in Cuba. Mrs. Benedict was Miss Anne Louise Farrell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Coleman Farrell, and her marriage took place on September 15 in St. Patrick's Cathedral.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Wilson have left Paris, where they spent some time, for London. They will sail for New York on September 27.

Dr. and Mrs. Alfred N. Strouse have closed their villa at West End, N. J., and returned to their home, 123 West Seventy-ninth street.

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Fleming, who have been touring Southern California, are returning home by way of the Canadian Rockies and expect to reach here the latter part of this month. They will again occupy their apartment at the Sherman Square Hotel, where they will be at home after October 1.

Dr. J. Henry Lancashire and his daughter, Miss Lila Lancashire, who have been motoring through the White Mountains, have returned to their summer home at Beverly, Mass., where they will spend the late autumn.

Mrs. C. K. G. Billings has left her apartment, 520 Fifth avenue, where she has been since returning from Europe, for California. To John M. Billings, who will spend the greater part of the winter at their home in Santa Barbara.

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Wightman Johnson are spending their honeymoon at Lake Edouard, Canada, hunting and fishing. Their marriage took place on September 16 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Balbridge Clark, 1067 Fifth avenue. Mrs. Johnson was Miss Helen Taft, daughter of Mrs. Neal Taft of 111 East Sixty-second street. Mr. Johnson is a son of Mr. Wilbur S. Johnson, vice president of the Prudential Life Insurance Company. He and his bride will make their home at Pleasantly farm, Madison, N. J., on their return from Canada.

When Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Seward Hale return from their wedding trip they will reside at 263 West Eleventh street. Their marriage took place recently at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Warren E. Derby, in Englewood, N. J. She was Miss Gertrude Fairchild Derby.

Mrs. W. Murray Crane will spend the winter in New York, having leased her house to Mrs. James Imble at 9 East Seventy-fourth street.

Dr. and Mrs. Harold Ruckman Mitchell have returned to their home, 181 East Sixty-fourth street, from Europe, where they spent the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Braman have closed their country home at Sullivan Harbor, Frenchman's Bay, N. Y. Mrs.

Social Notes of Brooklyn Borough

Epsilon Sorority opened its season with a meeting at the home of Miss Madelyn Groesbeck at 636 Decatur street. The following officers were elected: Miss Julia Harden, president; Miss Catherine Barteld, corresponding secretary; Miss Madelyn Groesbeck, recording secretary; Miss Grace Willmot, treasurer, and Miss Susan Keables, historian.

An out of town wedding of interest to Brooklyn society was that of Mrs. Myllis Page Leitch, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Page of Oakland, N. J., to Mr. Guy Alexander McCorkle, son of Mr. Frank Ransom Steven of 64 Hicks street, Brooklyn. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's brother, Mr. Leigh Page, at New Haven, Conn., on September 9.

Mrs. Russell E. Prentiss of 115 Willow street has returned from England and France.

Miss Clarissa Dodge White, daughter of the Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Charles L. White of 408 Eighth avenue, was married last week to Mr. Ralph Kirby Walker. The ceremony was performed by the bride's father, assisted by the bridegroom's father, the Rev. Charles A. Walker, and took place at the bride's home on Eighth avenue. Miss White is a graduate of Vassar and Barnard. Mr. Walker is a graduate of New York University and lives at Cedarville, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest H. Seeman of the Hotel Mohawk, on Washington avenue, celebrated their thirty-seventh wedding anniversary last week.

A wedding of interest to Brooklyn society was that of Miss Katharine Courtney Bird, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Bird of 247 Gates avenue and Port Jefferson, L. I., and Mr. Philip Staerter of Gladstone, Conn., on September 9. The ceremony was performed at the country home of the bride's father, the Rev. Dr. and Mrs. William H. Bird. Her only attendant was her sister, Miss Isabel Bird. Mr. Douglas Seelye of Gladstone was best man. The ushers were Messrs. William Lowell Bird, brother of the bride; J. H. Crane, Paul Canada and J. Leslie Finch.

Clubs Are Preparing for an Active Winter Season

Various Organizations, Musical, Literary and Social, Have Completed Organization and Announced Dates for Meetings to Launch Their Programs.

THE National Opera Club of America, Mme. Katharine von Klenner, founder and president, resumes activities to-morrow evening with a board meeting at the home of the president, 1730 Broadway. A special program of interest will be presented. Mme. von Klenner, who was a guest of honor at the biennial convention of Woman's Clubs, will give a resume of important issues during the convention. Havrah Hubbard, lecture recitalist for the season, will outline his topics, which will consist of operatic novelties, "Mona Lisa" and "Das Hexenlied," by Max Schilling, "Anna Allegro," by France Vitadini, and "Enoch Arden," with Strauss music.

On October 12 the first program will be given at the Waldorf-Astoria. The subject will be "American Opera," and an opera by an American composer will be demonstrated. The program will be followed by dancing. Mrs. C. W. Rubsam is chairman. The floor committee will consist of Dr. C. W. Rubsam, and the Messrs. T. N. Nixon, Francis Wright Clinton, H. Gardner, Joseph Gutman and George Copinus. These dances will be a feature after every program during the season and are in charge of the telephonic committee. Members of the board who were elected include Mrs. Lella Treland Gardner, Mrs. T. N. Nixon, Mrs. Owen Killard, Mrs. M. Devere Sapiro, Mrs. J. Willis Smith, Mrs. Augustus MacManus, Mrs. Eva Philip, Mrs. A. V. Orr, Mrs. Katharine Noack Figue, Miss Marion Avery and Miss Mildred Helland. Miss H. Bachhaus is the new corresponding secretary. It is announced that all the afternoon meetings will begin sharp at 2:30, Waldorf Astoria, the second Thursday of each month.

The Professional Woman's League, Mrs. Russell Bassett, president, has inaugurated a series of very clubby gatherings at their clubhouse, 144 West Fifty-fifth street, on the first and third Mondays of each month. Talk on current events, and refreshments are the order of the day, which different members preside over on each occasion.

Mrs. C. Albert Schultz was the hostess on Monday. Among the guests were Miss Laura Burt, Mrs. Helen Hanning,

Miss Marion Rice of Brooklyn to Wed R. C. Phillips

Judge and Mrs. Martin Announce Engagement of Niece—Social Notes.

COUNTY JUDGE GEORGE W. MARTIN and Mrs. Martin announce the engagement of their niece, Miss Marion Rice of 357 McDonough street, to Mr. Robert Conkling Phillips, son of Mr. and Mrs. Almarin Phillips of Port Jervis, N. Y. Miss Rice attended Packer Institute and Adelphi College. Mr. Phillips is a graduate of Cornell and is a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

Mrs. Frederick C. Lea of 1177 Dean street entertained recently at the Greenwich Country Club.

Mrs. Helen McChesney Burrage, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel D. McChesney of East Orange, will become the bride of Mr. Norman Davidson Weir Tuesday afternoon at the Woman's Club, East Orange. Mr. Weir is the son of Mrs. James Davidson Weir of 155 Prospect place, Brooklyn, and is the grandson of the late John B. Weir. Mrs. Burrage is the widow of Capt. Percy Fraser Burrage, who died in France during the war.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Mackey of 625 McDonough street are home from Europe.

Mrs. Michael E. Bannin of 55 Montgomery place announces the engagement of her daughter, Miss Irene Veronica Bannin, to Mr. John Francis Brosnan of 130 West Seventy-ninth street, Manhattan, son of Mrs. Nora C. Brosnan.

Miss Susanne Elizabeth Bards, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bards of 275 Broadway, was married Tuesday morning at the Church of Our Lady of Victory in Brooklyn. The Rev. John D. Gorman, uncle of the bride, officiated. Miss Lawrence is a graduate of Adelphi College and Mr. Murphy of Holy Cross. After a honeymoon trip to Bermuda they will reside in Brooklyn.

Mrs. Mary A. Seaton and the Misses Beattie and Ida Seaton of 19 Irvington place have returned from Europe.

Miss Rose Mary Lawrence, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Andrew Lawrence of 278 Jefferson avenue, and Mr. Paul Daniel Murphy of Underwood, N. J., son of Mr. Margaret Murphy, were married Tuesday morning at the Church of Our Lady of Victory in Brooklyn. The Rev. John D. Gorman, uncle of the bride, officiated. Miss Lawrence is a graduate of Adelphi College and Mr. Murphy of Holy Cross. After a honeymoon trip to Bermuda they will reside in Brooklyn.

Miss Naomi Budenbom, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Budenbom of 278 Martense street, will be married to Mr. Harry F. Richardson in St. Mark's Methodist Church at Ocean avenue and Beverly road, Saturday, September 26. The Rev. Dr. Robert M. Moore will officiate. Miss Budenbom is a graduate of Adelphi College and Mr. Richardson of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Miss Alice Mary Burnet, youngest daughter of Mrs. Edward Warren Burnet of 125 West 100th street, was married to Mr. Alfred De Witt Mason, son of the Rev. Dr. and Mrs. A. De Witt Mason of 222 Garfield place last week. The ceremony took place at the summer home of the bride at Westminster Park, Thousand Islands, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Reeve of 75 Bucklehead road, Flushing, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Helen Catherine Reeve, to Mr. Joseph Adams Dittrich, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph M. Dittrich of 1011 East Portich street.

The series of dances held two years ago under the name of "1921 Informals" will be resumed this season. The first will be held in October. The committee will include Messrs. Thomas E. McCracken, Rowland L. Field and George H. Daxton.

Mrs. James L. Morgan is at the Hotel Bossert, having spent the summer at Magnolia, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Perrin of 2311 Newkirk avenue announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Florence Perrin, to Mr. Ralph I. Morse of Belfast, Me. Mr. Morse is a graduate of Bates College and a practicing attorney in Maine.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold S. Garner will reside at 465 Jefferson avenue upon their return from a honeymoon trip. Mrs. Garner was Miss Doris Chenoweth of University Heights, Manhattan, before her marriage.

Mrs. Charles W. Riecks of 958 Prospect place has returned after spending the summer in the Adirondacks.

Plans are in progress for the formation of the Adelphi Alumnae Glee Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mansfield Bacon have returned to their home at 97 Park place from Portsmouth, N. H.

Miss Ellen Ann Bouchard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Bouchard of 71 Elmore place, became the bride of Mr. Archibald McKinley, son of Mrs. K. McKinley, the late Alexander McKinley, of Brooklyn, Wednesday afternoon. The ceremony was performed at the Church of Our Lady of Refuge.

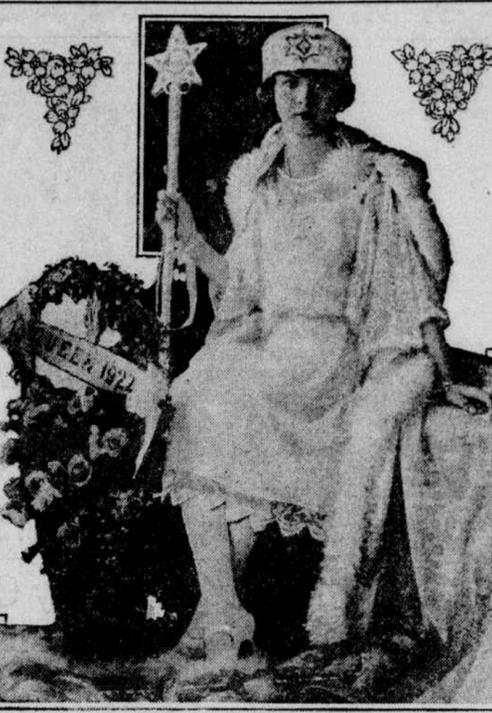

The wedding of Miss Harriet Esther Randolph, daughter of Mrs. Carolyn F. Randolph of 17 Clifton place, and Walter Winslow Barre, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry F. Barre of 22 Arlington place, took place September 15 at the Park Square Congregational Church in Brooklyn. The Rev. John Estlin Adams officiated. The couple are spending their honeymoon in the Adirondacks.

Mr. and Mrs. Fenwick B. Small of 22 Montgomery place have returned from the Lake Placid Club in the Adirondacks, where they have been spending the summer.

Miss Elizabeth B. Mead, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. George W. Mead of Richmond Hill, and Mr. Wallace Tibbott, son of the late Cornelius Tibbott, were married Wednesday in the Blue Room at the Hotel Bossert. The couple will reside at 980 Sterling place.

Miss Gertrude Frost Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Frost Thompson of 43 Midwood street, became the bride of Mr. Thomas William McCouky, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis J. McCouky of Bradford, Ont., last week. The ceremony was performed at the Flatbush Congregational Church, the Rev. Dr. Lewis T. Reed officiating. Miss Elizabeth M. Bernard of Hartford, Conn., attended her cousin as maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Miss Phyllis A. Deegan and Miss Edna R. Oldham. Mr. James M. Mitchell acted as best man and the ushers were Messrs. Campbell M. Christie and Harold M. McDonald.

Queen of Staten Island's Baby Parade

MISS FLORENCE TRUYTER WHO RULED OVER 300 LITTLE SUBJECTS IN RICHMOND BOROUGH FETE.

Plans Near Completion for Staten Island Charity Ball

Committees Named for Benefit to St. Vincent's Hospital at the Waldorf Next Month—Baby Parade Queen Receives Memento From White House.

PREPARATIONS for the annual charity ball of St. Vincent's Hospital are rapidly nearing completion, and at a recent meeting many important details were arranged for the event, which will take place on October 27 in the grand ballroom of the Waldorf-Astoria. The Meadow Brook Orchestra under the direction of Mr. Arthur M. Kraus will furnish the dance music.

Borough committees have been formed to include Manhattan, Messrs. Martin Conroy, Morgan J. O'Brien, Adrian Iselin, Clarence Mackay and Henry Heide; Brooklyn, Messrs. William E. Cleary, John J. Kuhn, Eugene Moran, Joseph O'Brien, John J. McClunn and J. J. Sexton; Bronx, Messrs. William J. Flynn, Robert L. Moran, James O'Flaherty, John E. McGehehin, Albert J. Goldman, Edward J. Flynn and Clay Adams; Queens, Messrs. George J. Ryan, Leonard B. Faber, John H. Fox, Albert Benninger, Christopher Cunningham, George M. Adrian, Frank McGoey and Edgar T. Hazeltan, and Staten Island, Charles A. Brinn, president; Joseph H. Maloy, Sr., vice-president; Charles F. McAteer, secretary; Theodore Kieran, treasurer; Anning S. Prall, W. E. Cannon, W. J. Welsh, George J. Hatstrom, Henry A. Seesberg, James A. McKinney, Archie Gordon, Frederick A. Verdon, William E. Horn, W. Smith, J. H. Clark, E. Stewart Taxter, James Harrigan and M. J. Kane.

The Deems Literary Society of Westchester opened its series of programs for the season on Tuesday evening, the music committee being in charge of the affair. Those participating included Mrs. Hilbrand, Miss Margaret Salch, Mr. Livingston Smedeker, Miss Ruth Cowley, Mr. H. D. Leister and Miss Isabel Cowley. The music committee is composed of Mr. James Whitford, chairman, Mrs. Florence P. Hall and Mr. Martin Klindtund. Mrs. W. B. Cornish is chairman of the social committee.

A meeting of the Beethoven Fortnightly Club was held at the club headquarters, 12 Garfield avenue, Fort Washington, last Friday evening. Miss Mary Wildermann, organizer of the club, gave a talk on Beethoven's opera "Fidelio."

The afternoon bridge party on the club house veranda of the Livingston Tennis and Cricket Club was well attended last week. Mrs. Henry T. Boody was the first prize and Mrs. Edward M. J. Kane.

Miss Florence Truiter, the popular "Queen" for the baby parade on Staten Island last week, has received from Mrs. Harding, a photograph of the White House, which the President's wife herself took. The photograph is framed in a gold laurel wreath. Miss Truiter's reign over more than 300 children in Richmond borough, the biggest baby parade the island ever had, came to the attention of Mrs. Harding, and the memento from the White House was the result.

The wedding of Miss Helen Seguire Crocheron, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen D. Crocheron, to Mr. Robert Russell Brown, formerly of Pittsburgh, took place on Tuesday evening at the Crocheron residence, 101 Central avenue, St. George. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Charles W. Foster of Christ Church at half past eight. The bride wore a gown of white crepe, with long panels of duchesse lace, which had trimmed her mother's wedding gown. A tulle veil, held in place with orange blossoms, fell over a long court train of georgette crepe, fastened at the shoulders. Her bouquet was of bridal roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss Mildred Howells Miller, one of the bridesmaids, wore a gown of pink georgette and silver, and Miss Dorothy Hughes D'Aeth, a bridesmaid, wore orchid georgette and silver. Their bouquets were of vari-colored garden flowers.

Dr. Walter E. Brown, brother of the groom, was best man and the ushers were Messrs. H. Reginald St. C. Jones, Lewis H. Dawley, David E. Reid and John J. MacKay of New Haven.

Dancing followed the supper and later the couple left for a several weeks' trip through Canada. Upon their return in October they will reside at the Crocheron home.

Some of those present were Mr. and Mrs. John D. Merceau, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Merceau, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Merceau, Mrs. James Dattman, Mrs. Crowell Seguire, Mrs. Hiram W. Decker, Mr. and Mrs. William Fluke, Mr. and Mrs. William Fluke, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Elmer D. Bidershoe, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Willis, Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. D'Aeth, Mrs. Charles Porter, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Porter, Mr. Stephen D. Herliet, Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Frank, Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Frank, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bardwell, the Rev. and Mrs. Oscar Fitzland Moore, Mrs. John Baylis, Mrs. William A. Johnston, Mr. and Mrs. Bayard Stephens, Mr. and Morren the second. Mrs. Guy M. DeLafield presided at the tea tables. The players included Mrs. Edwin L. O'Bryan, Mrs. Frank Hodges, Mrs. Charles O'Connor, Mrs. Gilbert Hoppa, Mrs. Thomas Patterson, Mrs. Martin Porter, Mrs. Will H. Baker, Mrs. Havelock Walker, Mrs. Jere Tamlyn, Mrs. Herbert Magruder, Mrs. Palmer, Mrs. Albert Banning, Mrs. Cleaver Brown, Mrs. Harold Bardwell and the Misses Madeleine Lea, Betty Frieze, Katherine Ocklin, Ruth and Frances White and Edith Barber.

Mr. and Mrs. William G. Wilcox spent the past week at their summer home at Avon, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Pouch have returned to their home in Manhattan after occupying the home of Mr. Oscar Pouch on Daniel Low terrace.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Clawson and Mrs. Herman Granger of College avenue left on a motor trip to Quebec last week.

Mrs. Carl Waiser has returned from the Catskills with her children.

Mrs. Hubert D. Leister and Miss Betty Leister are back from Pennsylvania.

Mr. Frank Ducaese of St. Mark's place has gone to Chicago and Denver.

Mrs. William Smith, who recently returned from Europe, was in charge of the first of the Monday afternoon eueses held by the ladies' auxiliary of St. Vincent's Hospital last week.

Mrs. Charles Stone and Miss Eleanor Stone have returned from Cape Porpoise, Me.

Miss Annette Miller-Jones has gone to Montreal, Que., where she will resume her studies at the Notre Dame Convent.

Mrs. Arthur Waite returned from Harriburg last week, where she was the guest of her cousin, Mrs. Gertrude Henberger.

Mrs. R. G. Coleman is back from The Hague on Lake George.

Announcement has been made of the engagement of Miss Geraldine Hopkins Ogilby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William S. H. Ogilby of Bard avenue, to Mr. Albert G. Evans of 440 Riverside Drive, Manhattan.

Miss Polly Androvette, who left last week for Middleton, N. C., where she is a student at the Ursuline Academy. Her brother, Murray Androvette, is returning to St. Andrussey Academy in Manhattan.

Mr. Frank J. Crystal returned last Tuesday from a trip through China and Japan.

Mrs. Blanchard Preble of Oakland avenue has returned from a summer at Quebec, L. I.

Mr. and Mrs. Alan Thomas, Miss Peggy von Kokeritz, Mr. Carl von Kokeritz and Mr. Peyton Royal attended a house party given by Miss Theodora Townsend at her father's summer place in Bushkill, Pa., last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Mend Stone are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter at their home on Hamilton avenue last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Sueserott have returned from their wedding trip and are now occupying their new home, 132 Tyson street, New Brighton.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Espin have gone to upper New York State for a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mourer of Stapleton have been motoring through the Berkshires.

Capt. and Mrs. J. H. Darby and their daughter, Marie, and Miss Marion Powers of Baltimore, have gone on a cruise to Porto Rico and Tampa, Fla.

The officers and members of the League of Women Voters met on Monday afternoon at 115 Davis avenue. Mrs. Alice Park Hutelinas was the speaker.

Mr. and Mrs. James Graham of Arrochar have returned from the White Mountains.

Miss Katherine Stirling of Fort Wadsworth is back after spending the summer at Charlestown, R. I.

Mrs. Arthur Lubin and Miss Hilda Lubin of Arrochar have returned from Nova Scotia.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Phillips of Delafield have returned from Lake Winnepesaukee, N. H.

Solve Your Servant Problem Quickly and Efficiently

Many reliable domestic workers, men and women, advertise for situations every day in the Want Ad pages of The New York Herald. Reply to their advertisements.

Your Help Wanted Advertisement in The Herald will bring quick replies from the best classes of domestics seeking preferred positions.

THE NEW YORK HERALD 280 BROADWAY Telephone Worth 10,000