MRS. FEITNER AGAIN

South Shore Entry Defeats Mrs. Hurd, Another Former Champion, 3 and 2.

OPPOSES MISS JACKSON

New Yorkers Meet To-day—Miss Collett Defeats Miss Hardin 5 and 3.

By KERR N. PETRIE.

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va., Sept. 27.—The top of the draw in the women's national golf championship, now progressing over the Greenbrier links, to-day was swept clean of its metropolitan representatives, and while in the lower half there are still two remaining, one does not have to be the seventh son of a seventh son to be able to announce to the world at large that by the end of the third round to-morrow only one contestant will be left to carry on for New York. That there will be one and only one is another statement of fact that cannot be controverted, inasmuch as the two survivors, Mrs. H. Arnold Jackson of the Greenwich Country Club and Mrs. Quentin Feitner of South Shore, are drawn together for the continuation.

In the top half there were two Metropolitan players when the opening drives began to coax the little white rubber cores up against the background of the russet and crimson splashed mountains this morning. Miss Elizabeth Hardin of Baltusrol and Mrs. Norman K. Toerge of Nassau and Piping Rock were among those answering the roll call for the second eighteen holes. Miss Hardin, however, went under to the brilliant Miss Glenna Collett, the clever Mrs. Jackson defeated Mrs. G. M. Heckscher of Piping Rock by 3 and 1.

From this it is seen that it has been the fortune or misfortune of Mrs. Jackson to engage play from her own district, and to succeed in surviving for the third match play phase of the tournament she had to call up all of her reserve or skill and staying powers, for to win by 3 and 1 to play six holes and take four holes in a row, beginning at the fourteenth.

Mrs. Heckscher's Fine Fight. To return to the two Metropolitan survivors, Mrs. Feitner for the second consecutive day eliminated a former champion in Mrs. Dorothy Campbell of Piping Rock, holding the upper hand most of the round and winning on the sixteenth green by 3 and 2 to play, while Mrs. Jackson defeated Mrs. G. M. Heckscher of Piping Rock by 3 and 1.

MISS GOSS EXTENDS MISS MARY BROWNE

Carries Superbly Played Match to Extra Sets 6-1, 6-8, 6-2, at Ardsley.

By SAMUEL J. BROOKMAN.

There have been harder fought matches this season, no doubt, than the one in which Miss Mary K. Browne of California triumphed over Miss Eleanor Goss in the Ardsley Club invitation tournament yesterday, but none in women's tennis that showed more superbly versatile play on both sides of the net, nor such splendid aggressive strategy and smoothness of stroke from first to last. It was a magnificent match and it went three sets before the coast girls were at 6-1, 6-8, 6-2.

They were decidedly on their game, Miss Browne and Miss Goss. They were hitting hard, maneuvering skillfully, calling on every tennis trick, playing the back line chiefly, but coming to the net behind forcing shots for crisp decisive volleys that could scarcely be improved upon. In the rallies every stroke as well as every point was pulled out. They played the lines and the corners and sharp angles daringly, and in most respects there was little to choose between them. If Miss Browne had any noticeable advantage it was in somewhat better control at important stages. It was the exceptional versatility of both girls that stood out in bold relief.

All of Miss Browne's winning margin was gained in the last few minutes of the match when she bobbed up with an irresistible rally that gave her five games in a row and the set at 6-2. It was as brilliant a spurt as has been seen this season and a great treat for the large gallery that lined up. Everything that Miss Browne tried during the rally seemed to go through just as she had planned; she was snarbooting and Miss Goss, despite a persistent effort, was unable to check her. Four of the last five games were won at love.

Miss Goss Saves Set. There was only one period in the contest when Miss Goss appeared to be mistress of the situation. Early in the second set, by increasing the speed of her attack and by coming to the net boldly, she gained a commanding lead and brought it to 5-2 in games. At that point, however, Miss Browne staged one of her several rallies and carried the score to 5 all. But Miss Goss was not to be denied and the set was hers eventually in the fourteenth game after a hard fight. Miss Browne was once again a stroke of making the score 5-1.

The victory reversed the result of the last meeting between the girls, at Sea-Light a year ago, when Miss Goss was the winner in extra sets. It also brought Miss Browne into the semifinal round, in which she meets Mrs. H. Stuart Green to-day. Miss Browne advanced all the way from the first round to the semi-final yesterday, starting her competition two days behind the rest of the field, she found herself drawn against Mrs. Frank M. Welty in the second round, having obtained a bye in the first. To lighten her burden Mrs. Welty graciously decided to default to this California girl, so that Miss Browne entered the best of Mrs. Barger Wallace before meeting Miss Goss.

Miss Goss moved ahead at the expense of Miss Rosamond Newton of Boston, whom she outstaided and outplayed all the way. In the opposite half Mrs. Mallory, although forced to play at top speed by Miss Martha Bayard, whose persistence kept the rallies going, won at 6-1, 6-2, and Miss Leslie Bancroft of Boston scored an impressive 6-2.

Surprise in Doubles. There were two surprises in doubles. The first came in the defeat of Miss Marie Wagner and Miss Clara Casel, former New York State champions, at the hands of Mrs. S. Fullerton Weaver and Mrs. De Forest in two close sets, 3-6, 7-5. The second in the triumph of Mrs. Barger Wallace and Miss Rosamond Newton over Miss Helen Gillette and Miss Marion Chapman in an extra set match. The teams of Miss Bancroft and Mrs. Briggs and Mrs. Green and Mrs. Thurber reached the semifinal. The summary:

SINGLES—SECOND ROUND. Miss Mary K. Browne defeated Mrs. Frank M. Welty by default.

THIRD ROUND. Miss Mary K. Browne defeated Mrs. Barger Wallace, 6-2, 6-1.

FOURTH ROUND. Mrs. H. Stuart Green defeated Miss Rosamond Newton, 6-2, 6-2.

FIFTH ROUND. Mrs. M. H. Mallory defeated Miss Clara Casel, 6-1, 6-3, 6-2.

SIXTH ROUND. Mrs. M. H. Mallory defeated Miss Clara Casel, 6-2, 6-1.

SEVENTH ROUND. Mrs. Barger Wallace and Miss Rosamond Newton defeated Miss Helen Gillette and Miss Marion Chapman, 4-6, 7-5, 6-4.

EIGHTH ROUND. Mrs. M. H. Mallory and Mrs. Briggs defeated Mrs. M. H. Mallory and Mrs. Briggs, 6-2, 6-1.

NINTH ROUND. Miss Leslie Bancroft and Mrs. Benjamin F. Briggs defeated Mrs. Dickenson and Mrs. F. M. Welty, 6-4, 6-2.

TENTH ROUND. Mrs. H. S. Green and Mrs. A. E. Thurber defeated Mrs. C. Parsons and Mrs. Harry, 6-0, 6-4.

COLUMBIA VARSITY SCORES ON SCRIBS

Blue and White Eleven Ready for Lively Tussle With Ursinus on Saturday.

Lineup of Opponents in Westbury Polo Play

SHELburne (14). ARGENTINE FIELD (10) 1. Woodley, Referee—Capt. Miles Raymond Belmont, No. 2. Jack Nelson J. Watson Webb, No. 3. Luis Nelson S. Strawbridge, Back. Luis Lacey Gonia; Shelburne—Belmont 3, Stoddard 8, Webb 2; allowed by handicap, 1; total, 14. Argentine—Lacey 4, Miles, 1, total, 5.

That S. H. Supple, a freshman, from East Orange, N. J., is in the university hospital suffering with concussion of the brain. He was injured in the first scrimmage of Coach Keogh's freshmen squad. He was trying out for a halfback position.

Frank Sutherland, veteran guard, demoted to the scrubs on Tuesday, was promoted to the varsity to-day by Coach W. Robinson. Three prominent players—Reckus, McDonald and Robb—were dropped to the scrubs to-day.

Formal announcement was made yesterday that E. H. Hamer, the big fullback, is eligible to play in the opening game against Franklin and Marshall on Saturday. Clark Craig, the Westerner, who is making a strong bid for quarterback, is not as badly injured as thought.

Fordham, Losing Dunn, Will Play Fitzgerald at Right End. Fordham's athletic forces suffered a severe loss yesterday when Mike Dunn, who had been slated to start off against Canisius College Saturday at right end on the Jarrow varsity eleven, withdrew from the college because of scholastic difficulties.

In Dunn's place at end Frank Gargan probably will send in Jerry Fitzgerald, captain of last year's freshman eleven and a former Fordham Prep gridiron star. Fitzgerald is a hard working and good youngster who has done much good work at all of the daily practice sessions. He weighs 175 pounds, is, however, his weight being 155 pounds. It is also possible that Gargan will convert Joe Bill, a tall and rangy youth from Brooklyn Prep, into a wing man. Bill is now playing at tackle on the second team.

In view of the hard scrimmage of the previous day Gargan came up on the team yesterday. He was in for short sessions at the tackling dummy and the bucking machine, devoting most of the afternoon to signal practice and the running down of kickers. Halfback Dick, the major part of the kicking.

Galvin Gives C.C.N.Y. Squad An Hour of Scrimmaging. The C. C. N. Y. football squad was sent through the stiffest workout of the season yesterday. The practice, which lasted until dark, included a scrimmage of more than an hour. During this period the varsity scored four touchdowns against the second and third teams.

ARGENTINE PUT OUT OF POLO CUP SERIES

Shelburne Defeats South Americans 14-5 in Westbury Semi-Final.

By CAPT. H. H. HOLMES.

The dashing Argentine team was forced to accept defeat to-day at the hands of Shelburne by 14 goals to 5 in a semi-final game for the Monto Waterbury polo cup played on International Field at the Meadow Brook Club at Westbury, L. I. A crowd approaching 10,000 people saw the match.

The score board was no indication of the evenness of the game, the Argentine players causing their opponents trouble from start to finish. On many occasions only ill luck kept them from scoring, they had hit a post or missing its goal by inches.

On top of this the visitors were without their second best player, David Miles, who is still crippled from his accident at Rumson, and while Luis Nelson, his substitute, was in excellent form to-day, a little more brilliancy was required at the pivotal position which he occupied. But the real handicap was centered in the mounts, the South Americans using fifteen borrowed ponies so that their own steeds might rest up for the two games to be played next week against the full American team.

At the start of the game play went almost directly into Argentine territory and Raymond Belmont launched his series of sparkling plays which were to make him conspicuous throughout the contest. Belmont scored and Lacey followed up with a tally for the South Americans. Then Belmont repeated scoring after a run three-quarters the length of the field.

Bad Luck Trails Losses. Soon after the second session commenced John Miles scored from a scrimmage, and both Jack Nelson and Lacey probably would have added additional goals with half a break in luck. This bad luck followed the team throughout in various other ways.

Strawbridge, at back for Shelburne, was forced to show his best. To this player belongs credit for saving many dangerous situations. Twice at least he prevented the Argentines scoring when the ball was within an inch or so of going between the posts.

Toward the end of the second period, Louis Stoddard tallied for Shelburne after a hard ride of nearly the length of the field. This was the first of seven goals credited to this player. Lacey and Luis Nelson were kept on the defensive for some time in the third after Webb had scored a better ending and Belmont being the most prominent during these attacks. The safety hit taken by Strawbridge just before Stoddard made another good score, however, and Belmont being the most prominent during these attacks. The safety hit taken by Strawbridge just before Stoddard made another good score, however, and Belmont being the most prominent during these attacks.

Bad Tom for Stoddard. The fourth period saw Lacey save off two aggressive attempts by Stoddard and Webb to score. J. Nelson eventually relieving a bad Argentine situation and obliging his team to take the offensive. Stoddard then took a bad toss which necessitated a delay, but no medical attention. To make up for the indignity of the Argentine play Webb set again unlicked when his shot at goal was stopped by Strawbridge right on the line.
