A Wonderful Coat for a Particular Woman

—one of the many models offered Saturday

at 69.50

The model pictured places its faith upon these rules — be simple, if you would be smart — choose a velvety fabric — and take very little trimming. The result is charming.

Other coats at this price follow the above rules in various ways — many topped with collar of beaver, squirrel, wolf and caracul, others all of self fabric. Handsomely silk lined.

at 56.00

Stunning Wraps and Coats—fashioned of Alonzo, metalist, panelaine and other soft fabrics — with collars of beaver, Viatka and gray squirrel, Australian opossum and caracul, many with cuffs as well. Silk or crepe lined.

New Suits for Misses of Supple Duvet de Laine

fashioned in accord with the newest word from the workrooms of Paris designers. Presented Saturday

at 49.50

The straight lined box coat and the bloused coat that is so Russian in origin are both included in this grouping. Each is of such wonderful quality duvet de laine, and so perfectly tailored down to the minutest detail that their price of 49.50 is but slightly indicative of their smart appearance and wearing qualities.

They are either plain or luxuriously adorned with hand-embroidery, lined with matching crepe de Chine and well interlined. With collars of wolf, caracul or mole.

Misses' Smart Suits

with bloused or box coats

at 39.50

Faithfully reproducing the spirit of their Paris originals, these suits of excellent quality duvet de laine or twill present unusually good value at 39.50. They have notched or convertible collars, and are lined with splendid crepe de Chine and well interlined.

Dressy Frocks

for Misses

—of Chiffon Velvet and the new silk crepes

At the Exceptionally Low Price of 29.75

An assemblage of frocks that boast not only originality, but charm—that embody not only youth, but the dignified restraint that has come to be a part (and an important part) of the new modes.

Of chiffon velvet, crepe satin and Cloquette crepe—one model made almost altogether of pleating—another taking a tucked top of silk and a simple skirt of velvet—another straight of line with colorful sleeves—as well as many other equally interesting ways of interpreting the mode. In the new shades and black. Sizes 14 to 20 years.
