

FALE AND HARVARD HAVE TOUGH TIME

Carnegie Tech and Middlebury Force Blue and Crimson to Limit to Win.

GETTYSBURG TEAM GOOD

Holds Lehigh Scoreless—Cornell, Princeton and Columbia Display Fine Form.

Although no upsets marked football in the East Saturday, when practically all of the major and minor colleges swung...

Yale, outwighing Carnegie Tech twenty pounds to the man, was outstanding and held scores in the last half. Two field goals by O'Hearn and a touchdown due largely to a Tech fumble in the first half saved the day for...

Princeton, Cornell and Columbia all displayed impressive form in their opening games.

The Tigers downed Johns Hopkins, 30 to 9; Cornell, after an uncertain start in the first period, rolled up a tally of 55-6 against St. Bonavent-

Syracuse rolled up 47 points to none for Muhlenberg, while Colgate opened its season auspiciously with a 50-6 victory over Clarkson.

Among other leading eleven Penn State and a tarter in William and Mary College, winning by 23 to 7, while Lehigh was held to a scoreless tie by Gettysburg.

West Point triumphed in a double header, Army aggregations taking the measure of Lehigh Valley, 12 to 0, and Springfield, 35 to 0.

Great Man Will Not Carry Silks Again This Year

Pulled Up Lame in Last Race—Jamaica Opens To-day.

Great Man, the great two-year-old colt belonging to Victor Viduaud, has scored winning in a good career of silks again this season. He pulled up lame after his victory last week. Fred Taral, his trainer, sent a burly call to Dr. McCutchen and the noted veterinarian advised that the colt be given a long rest.

Thought He Won Chicken, But Gets Only Wishbone

M. Fekete, the scratch man, won the five mile handicap walk of the American Walkers Club at Macombs Dam Park yesterday. He pulled up lame after he was awarded for the winner. Fekete did not get the fowl, however, because of misleading information given by the referee and the fact that A. C. by a practical joker. The joke was the chef the veteran, but sly Adolph Arnold, had won the bird and he had cooked it for the best of two days. This was the first of two friends ate the chicken. Fekete's shaker was the wishbone. He wished no joke plays a similar trick on him in the future. Here the summary:
