MY PILGRIMAGE TO COUÉ

By ELLA BOYCE KIRK

Patient and Pupil of Coué.

The intensely interesting story of the first American woman to be cured by Coué at Nancy. Mrs. Kirk was rapidly losing the power to walk, and all previous treatments had failed to help her. Coué's methods restored the use of her limbs completely.

This book gives a graphic account of the marvelous work of Coué and of the man himself.

100 Best Books

With Concise Commentaries and a Brilliant Essay on BOOKS AND READING

by John Couper Powys
Critic, Novelist, Poet and Lecturer.

A Guide to the World's Best Literature. Tells HOW and WHAT to read. The reader who wants to be benefited as well as entertained or amused will appreciate the value of having the keen judgment of Mr. Powys as a guide.

Bound in cloth, $1.25 (By mail $1.35)

Other Books by John Couper Powys—

RODMOOR

A romance in which Mr. Powys draws on the fascinating psychology opened by Russian writers, but holds in general to the idealistic, simple style of the great romancists. $2.00

COMPLEX VISION

A complete statement of an interesting system of philosophy which fills a gap in human thought. A philosophy midway between materialism and spiritualism. $3.00

WOOD AND STONE

In this startling and original romance Mr. Powys, following the lead of the great Russian, Dostolevsky, boldly lays bare the secret passions, the unacknowledged motives and impulses which lurk below the placid-seeming surface of ordinary human nature. $2.00

CONFESSIONS OF TWO BROTHERS

by John Couper Powys and Llewelyn Powys

A decidedly unusual book. J. C. Powys dissects his own strange psychology with a merciless sincerity, producing a literary work of compelling interest. Llewelyn Powys gives intense impressions from scenes in odd corners of the world, like vivid spots of color on a startling picture. Price $2.00
