

Mad. Jents has just received an extra fine lot of horses, single and double drivers. Call and see them.

The ladies of the W. C. T. U. desire to return their thanks to all those who so kindly assisted them at their festival last evening.

The street commissioner's attention is called to the crossing at the intersection of First street and Fourth avenue. It ought to be fixed immediately.

There will be a meeting of the Women's Guild at the residence of Mrs. Bond Thursday afternoon.

An attempt to burglarize Judge Fisher's residence was again made on Tuesday night. Fortunately the thieves were frightened away before they secured any booty.

From the placid appearance of Judge Hobbs, at the divorce trial of Tillman, in the district court yesterday, we infer that he is going to vote the Blaine and Logan ticket.

The band of serenaders whose fine music broke in on the stillness of the night in the northern suburbs of the city last before last, was appreciated and enjoyed and was heard by the whole household.

A very pleasant birthday party was given to E. D. Masie on Tuesday evening at the residence of J. F. Holmes, on Main street.

The evening was very enjoyably passed in social games, music, etc., and the party did not disperse until a late hour.

The Pacific Express Company has opened an office at Clearwater, Kansas, and for the present express matter will be carried on the accommodation train which leaves here at 10 o'clock a. m., and arrives from Clearwater at 2 p. m.

We are in receipt of the premium list of the fourth annual fair of Butler county, to be held in El Dorado, commencing September 25th. W. H. Litton, secretary. The book contains twenty-four pages and is printed and bound by the Republican.

The remains of Miss Ella Barnes, eldest daughter of Mr. F. M. Barnes, arrived in the city yesterday from Pueblo. The funeral will take place this morning at 9 o'clock from the residence of her parents, first door south of Douglas and Mosley avenues. Friends are cordially invited to attend.

On Tuesday evening burglars entered the residence of Mr. John T. Figg, on Water street four blocks south of Douglas avenue, and stole a gold watch, ring, and other articles of value. There is no clue to the thieves, but Mr. Figg thinks him to be a young man recently in his employ. The officers are on the scent.

The officers and members of the Wichita Blaine and Logan club are informed that we have a copy of Hendricks' war speech made against the exaltation of colored men and against the emancipation proclamation of Abraham Lincoln, which ought to be read by every colored man in the United States of America.

The farmers and other residents of three or four townships west of the Big river, we learn, are talking of holding a public picnic on the Finches north and west of Clearwater, some time next month. We have not been put in possession of details which probably are not arranged for yet.

Mr. Charles Myers exhibited yesterday an oil painting which he had just finished, four by six feet in size. It is an ideal sketch of a mountain-bound lake, with a way and distant clouds, the foreground of rocks and evergreen foliage on the one side, and a grass margin to the lake on the other. He says he has several orders for his work.

It is stated to us that W. W. Dills is now preparing a case and will bring suit against the county for false imprisonment. Some time last summer Dill was fined $300 for contempt of court, in not appearing for trial in a certain whisky case, and in default of paying the fine was imprisoned. We understand that he claims that the court had no authority for imposing over a $100 fine, hence this suit for damages.

Col. Hartzell purchased in St. Louis a fine Kentucky horse that is a real beauty. Mr. Hartzell says the horse is a natural reer and that he has weights on his shoes to teach him to trot. Our reporter was out near Chisholm creek last evening and says a runaway team came thundering down a road and some one ballooned to Hartzell to clear the track. He drew the whip on that horse, and our reporter thinks "Harry H." is not a trained horse, he is one of the most remarkable horses in this country. There is not many untrained horses that can trot away from any runaway Kansas farm team.

In response to many complaints Dr. McAdams, the health officer of the city, has made a faithful examination of the entire city, driving through every alley, and he says that the city, sanitarily speaking, has not been as clean in six years. He found much dirt, old cans, any amount of innocent rubbish in the alleys. While these are in no wise inimical to health, he thinks they are a fruitful source for the development of cranks on the health question. There are two or three places where waste water is allowed to run that need looking after, otherwise he ventures the professional and official opinion that Wichita is comparatively free from local causes of sickness.

Mr. H. L. Jackson, engineer of the Wichita, McPherson & Denver railroad, arrived in the city Tuesday evening with his corps of surveyors, after locating their line of the road to Queen City, in Greeley township, which is about twenty miles north-west of Wichita. He informs us that the line is a very direct one, easy grade and will require comparatively light work. They are now engaged in making a profile of the route, and as soon as this is completed and the estimate made, contracts for the grading will be let. In running from here to Queen City they passed through about twelve miles of corn, which is the finest that Mr. J. ever saw. We are pleased to note that work on this line is progressing so nicely, and that it will not be so very long before cars are rolling over the prairie in the direction of McPherson.

The attention of the mothers of Wichita is called to a destitute family in the last house on North Water street. First, a daughter died two weeks ago of typhoid fever; second, the mother died last Saturday of typhoid fever; third, the father is a demented old man, apparently not in his right mind; he has a team and is trying to work; fourth, a little daughter eleven years old is expected to live; fifth, one or two little girls about eight years are just able to walk; sixth, a baby fourteen months old has been temporarily taken by one of the neighbors.

It is thought that you are, having only a few things needed are a cot for a woman, clothing and old sheets. Families who are interested in articles donated to the home.

Secretary W. C. T. U.

Geo. Miller, who came up from Mulvane yesterday informed the writer that a shooting affair took place in that town Tuesday morning. It seems that a man by the name of Jake Stotestred had some trouble with his wife—abused and whipped her, and that she called in to her aid Fred Brown, the marshal. The latter attempted to arrest Stotestred, who is represented as a pretty rough character, when his (the marshal's) pistol was discharged, the ball striking Stotestred on the forehead, glancing off and burying itself in the ceiling beam. The wound was not a bad one, however, and the injured man was able to go about yesterday. It is expected that the Stotestreds are a bad class and you remember.

PERSONAL MENTION.

—Rev. Woodson, of Goddard, was a caller yesterday morning.

—D. Severy came down from Peabody yesterday to look at the metropolis of Kansas.

—Hon. J. W. Addy, of Newton, is in the city. He is counsel for the defendant in the Buesenark divorce case.

—Dr. R. C. Schrader and wife, of Batton, New Mexico, arrived in the city yesterday.

—Jake Sohn was up from Wellington yesterday. He has to come up about once so often to hold his lands marks.

—E. Buell, of Kalamazoo, Michigan, was in the city yesterday, seeing the sights about the great city of the southwest.

—E. P. Halstead, a prominent business man of Washington, D. C., is in the city viewing with a wondering eye, the great possibilities of the Arkansas valley.

—Henry Woodcock, who has been suffering from an attack of fever, was so much better yesterday evening that he may be considered as convalescing.

—Miss Etta Jewett, a niece of Mr. Kirkwood and Mr. Rutan, has accepted a position as saleslady in the store of Innes & Ross.

—W. M. Johnson, a capitalist of Indianapolis, Ind., is now in the city, and thinks of locating here and engaging in business. We hope he will find a desirable location.

—Mack Herrick, who for some time was employed in Barnes' drug store, will leave today for a visit with friends in Red Oak, Iowa.

—E. Root will leave today for Wisconsin, where he goes for his wife and family who have been visiting in that state for several weeks.

—Mr. F. W. Ojter returned yesterday evening from a business trip from the town south. From Winfield he was accompanied by his wife, sister-in-law and Miss Stamer, who had been down spending the day with friends.

—Messrs. M. M. and H. R. Gault, of Kittingan, Pa., friends of the Richey brothers, are in the city with a view of locating. They are most worthy young men, and would be valuable additions to Wichita.

—Geo. W. Brown, editor of the Cheney Journal, and H. C. Meeker, a leading merchant of that town, were in the city yesterday and made the EAGLE a pleasant call. They report business in good and the Journal flourishing, all of which we are pleased to learn.

—Miss Millie Allen, who has been visiting Miss Moore, on Waco street, for several weeks, will leave on the Frisco train this morning for her home at Rockyville, Ind. While in the city Miss Allen made numerous and warm friends who will sincerely regret her departure.

—Mr. N. L. Palmer, of Valley Center, stepped into our sanctum yesterday morning for a few moments to say that while he had been in this valley, only three years, he had kept his eyes about him and that he especially endorsed the course, work and representations of the EAGLE, the latter being borne out fully by the facts.

—Mr. Palmer went further that his farm yielded sixty bushels of corn to the acre last year, but that this year the prospect was for still greater returns.

—Messrs. T. M. Fry and Joe Murphy, of Emporia, came up from Caldwell yesterday. They are greatly pleased with this city, and are talking about coming here and establishing themselves in the jewelry business. Mr. Fry is a thoroughly practical man and is conceded to be one of the very best watchmakers west of Illinois. Should they come to this city they will operate a first-class jewelry store, and as Mr. Fry is one of the best jewelers in the state, of course they will meet with success from the start. They will probably locate on Main street.

—George Morse, one of our stock buyers, returned yesterday from a visit to his old home near Boston, Massachusetts. Mr. Morse says there is evidently great prosperity in the east, but for big crops he saw nothing to compare to this valley with the exception of a small area along the Missouri river in the state of Missouri. He says that the people of Massachusetts are, many of them, for Butler, but that all parties will admit that Blaine and Logan will surely be elected.
