SPEEDILY AGREED

Two Years and a Half for Edwards.

MAN CRUSHED TO DEATH

Patrick and Massenburg, Lumber Dealers, Assign. Board of Supervisors and the King Street Franchise.

After a day spent in listening to the speeches of the attorneys both for and against the special meeting, the jury in the Edwards case filed into the court-room at exactly five minutes past 6 o'clock with a verdict of guilty as charged in the indictment and the announcement that they had fixed the punishment at two years and six months in the penitentiary. It is doubtful if Edwards' mind was very clear, but he never said a word in his own defense, and he was taken to the jail to await the execution of the sentence.

The crowd in the court-room yesterday was larger than at any time during the trial, although the taking of the verdict was held until the afternoon, and only the spectators remained to see the verdict.

Edwards was taken to the penitentiary at 10 o'clock, and the court adjourned until Tuesday, when the case will be called on for the second time.

Edwards witnessed the return of the jury to the court-room, and he was the first to see the verdict. He was very pale and his hands were trembling. He was taken to the jail at 10 o'clock, and the court adjourned until Tuesday, when the case will be called on for the second time.

NEW YORK, Jan. 12.—Northern Pacific was the most noticeable strength feature of today's market. On the other hand, sugar continued under a weight of depression, as was the case with a new feature of special strength was Chesapeake & Ohio, which advanced a point on heavy buying. Transactions were on a very large scale, but the heavy dealings of large operators, but the powerful interests, were in effect all through the market. The large operations attracted a considerable following, both scalpers and speculators, and from outside sources. Commission houses business was, in fact, quite noticeable in the day's trading. The anthracite decline, but the Ohio coal roads maintained their recent show of strength. Union Pacific rose at one time over two points, but recent buyers commenced to take profit as soon as the report was published that the new company had secured control of the Oregon Short Line. The stock reacted over a point. The recent strength of stocks of the disintegrating portions of the Union Pacific system is fully explained by today's announcement. This buying was evidently founded on a belief in further consolidation of combinations and extension, which, according to some prevalent rumors, will embrace one vast system from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

The total sales of stocks today were 490,400.

The board agreed to do so. Mr. D. G. Smith was here in the interest of the Schone's Dam road. Numerous sharp expressions of disapproval of the action of the board were heard in King street to Mr. Darling continue to be heard and yesterday it was suggested that a public meeting be held for the purpose of furnishing a record of the proceedings of the board.
