A Good Thing, Push It Along.
Mothers will do well to push the Heywood Carriage.
Why? Because it is the finest, most durable and cheapest known to the trade. This carriage need not be commented on by me, as it is a well known fact throughout the country that the Heywood Carriage stands second to none, and all mothers who are up-to-date in the baby carriage business will surely have the Heywood. As an introduction for my '98 stock I will begin on Monday, January 17th, with a $5,000 Heywood Carriage and reduce same $1 each day until sold. Positively no limit on this carriage. It will certainly be sold, and if no purchaser is found at the expiration of twenty-five days it will be given away. We extend to young mothers a cordial invitation to inspect our stock.

Annexation Question Considered by the Senate.

MR. DAVIS' ABLE SPEECH
The Urgent Deficiency Bills Carrying $1,471,848. Passed by the House. Hitler Attack Upon Mr. Cannon by Mr. DeArmond.

(By Telegraph.)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—(Mr. Chandler, of the committee on naval affairs, introduced in the Senate today a resolution for which he asked immediate consideration, requesting the Secretary of the Navy to furnish the Senate a list of the active officers of the navy in each corps, together with those who are at sea and those who are on shore duty and those who are on detached duty.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—Senator Davis completed his speech in the executive session of the Senate today on the Hawaiian treaty and was followed by Senator Allen, of Nebraska, who spoke in opposition.
Mr. Davis' speech today was devoted largely to the presentation of the strategic features of annexation. He displayed a chart in front of the presiding officer, showing the location of Hawaii relative to the country and Asia. One of the points brought out with considerable elaboration was the probable effect on the Nicaragua canal of the occupation of the islands by some foreign power.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—The President today sent the following nominations to the Senate:
State—Mark S. Brewer, of Michigan, to be a commissioner; Edwin H. Conger, of Iowa, to be an extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary of the United States to China; Charles Page Bryan, of Illinois, to be envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary of the United States to Brazil; Henry W. Furness, of Indiana, to be consul at Bahia, Brazil.

MAJOR HANDY'S FUNERAL.
BRIEF, MD., Jan. 12.—The body of Major Moses P. Handy arrived here yesterday and was taken directly to Buckingham cemetery. The funeral was attended by relatives of the deceased, including his widow, his son, William M. Handy, associate editor of the Chicago Times-Herald, his brothers, Egbert and Handy, president of the Commercial Publishing Company, of New York, and F. A. G. Handy, of Washington.

TERSE TELEGRAMS.
NEW YORK, January 12.—Charles Zanoli was arraigned in the Tombs Police Court this morning, charged with larceny and the murder of his fourth wife, Jennie A. Sumner. The murder case was dismissed, and he was held in $2,000 bail on the other charge. The charge of larceny is based on the allegation that he obtained the payment of a life insurance policy from the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company by fraudulent means.
NEW YORK, January 12.—Mrs. Naeck will not leave the Queens county jail until early next week. This delay has been granted so that she may settle her affairs.
BERLIN, January 12.—The budget committee of the Reichstag today increased the salary of Prince Hohenlohe, the Imperial Chancellor, to 100,000 marks.
NEW YORK, January 12.—A heavy fog caused several slight collisions in the harbor today. The mist completely enveloped the city and traffic is tied up in the water. The tugboat "Cuba" was at anchor, while numerous fog horns and clanging bells keep up a constant din.
MADRID, January 12.—Much satisfaction has been aroused here by the report that the expedition of the Cuban forces under Gomez and Gonzales, and there is a great deal of enthusiasm in the army. There is great competition among Spanish officers to secure commissions to go to the picket out the reinforcement of the forces on the island.

A TERRIBLE TORNADO
Scores of Persons Killed in Arkansas.

THE DAMAGE ENORMOUS
Men, Women and Children Awakened Without a Moment's Warning to Meet Death by Falling Walls or in Flames.
FORT SMITH, ARK., Jan. 12.—Two score of human lives and upwards of one million dollars' worth of property were destroyed by a tornado which burst on this city a few minutes after eleven o'clock last night. The storm struck near the National Cemetery and leaving its path marked by dust and desolation. Men, women and children were awakened without a moment's warning to meet death by falling walls or in the flames which engulfed many of the wrecked buildings.
The dead and wounded so far as known are:
Silas Mincer, a prominent young merchant.
Harvey Rutledge (colored).
Mart Timmerman.
Unknown man from the Burgess Hotel.
Joe Griswold, tailor.
John Martin, Madison county.
J. B. Riley, Madison county.
George Carter, fireman at the Grand Opera House.
Mrs. Milt Burgess, proprietor of the Burgess Hotel.
Two unknown men, died at St. John's Hospital.
J. M. Foutz, farmer.
Joe Kyle, farmer.
Tommy Kestry, boy.
Melt Knutson, boy.
Mrs. Malt Knutson.
Joe Lucas (colored).
Ed Farrell, butcher, and his two little children, Irene and Roy.
Wm. Richardson, restaurant keeper.
John Adams, carpenter.
Mrs. Charles Mauver.

Mrs. Luther Huntley, chest crushed.
Late, hip dislocated.
Ed Yaden, head bruised.
Wolsey, seriously hurt.
R. L. Hirschberger, skull and dislocated; injured about head.
Miss Lily Schall, seriously injured.
Some of the property destroyed was of considerable value. Business blocks, handsome mansions, hotels and humble cottages were razed and scattered in shapeless masses. Several of the wrecks caught fire, and the inflammable timbers burned furiously.
The city was crowded with rural visitors, many of whom were sleeping at boarding houses unregistered. For this reason, the number of victims who perished in Fort Smith last night may never be definitely known.
The tornado struck Garrison avenue at the corner of Ninth street and made a clean sweep from there to the Texas corner.
I. Beason's store was totally demolished and the stock was a complete loss. Babcock's grocery store had the rear end blown to bits. The following stores were totally destroyed:
Fleming Brothers, coffee and tea; Hart's restaurant; Smith's grocery store; Martine's second-hand store; J. Mance, dry goods; Mann & Wilson, groceries; C. Store.
A number of stores were badly damaged. The upper floor of the block on the corner of Garrison and Toussau avenue is laid flat. Seven bodies were seen in these ruins. Burgess' Hotel was demolished. There have been eight bodies already taken from the ruins. Rescue parties are still at work at both places and expect to find several more bodies.
George Carter's house was one of the first struck. It was turned completely over and is now supported on the roof. A half pane of glass was driven through Carter's body almost severing the head from the trunk.
M. W. Burdy's foundry was demolished. The beautiful National Cemetery is a wreck. Fort Smith's $50,000 high school building was badly wrecked. It was one of the few buildings upon which there was tornado insurance. The tornado destroyed two historic buildings, Judge Parker's residence is badly wrecked and the old Rector mansion, where Albert Pike passed his days, is a pile of debris, the ruins having caught fire from a lamp.
It is now thought all the persons in the wrecked buildings have been accounted for.
The Citizens Relief Committee has $10,000 in hand for assisting sufferers. President Robinson, of the Frisco Railroad, uncanceled, sent a check for $1,000. The Missouri Pacific Railway also sent $1,000.
Business is practically abandoned all over the city and men of all classes are assisting in clearing the debris.
FAYETTEVILLE, ARK., Jan. 12.—A terrific wind and hailstorm swept over this part of the State last night at Farmington, a little town five miles west of this place several buildings were completely demolished, a number of persons being injured.
VAN BUREN, ARK., Jan. 12.—The tornado that descended upon Fort Smith last night crossed the Arkansas river half a mile south of here and tore a path 200 yards wide through this (Crawford) county.
The house of Frank Boatright was demolished. Boatright, a son and a daughter, were badly injured. The houses of Walter Haley and Mrs. Keller were on an adjoining farm and were blown entirely away, not a vestige of them being left. The families of both were injured.
Charles Wright was blown from his house and fatally injured. Ed. Blake's house was instantly killed by a house falling on him. The house of Mrs. Bash was demolished. She was crushed to death and two of her children, aged 8 and 10, were fatally injured.
It is estimated that 100 head of cattle and horses were killed. A mass meeting is being held here tonight to relieve the destitute.

SALVATION BRIG WRECKED.
The brig Mason, which struck on Turner's Shoals, Virginia coast, while bound from Bermuda Hundred to Philadelphia with a cargo of railroad ties several days ago, has been over and is a total loss. The crew of the wrecked brig, including her commander, Captain Crapo, reached the Delaware Breakwater late on Monday night on the tug North America. The Mason attracted considerable attention because she flew the flag of the Salvation Army, to which her commander and his wife belonged. Mrs. Crapo, wife of the captain, was mate of the vessel. Religious meetings were frequently held on the vessel, which was well known along the Atlantic coast, because of her odd flag. She was a small craft.
There was a heavy fog on the river yesterday morning and few vessels were stirring. No foreign craft arrived. The fog of the last two days have delayed foreign traffic.

TRIUMPH FOR HANNA

Colonel J. E. Rodgers, the secretary to the governor, came to the Neil House at 4 P. M., bearing the commission of Senator Hanna as United States Senator for the short term. He informed the Senator that his commission for the long term would be forwarded in a few days.
Mr. Hanna in reply said: "Colonel Rodgers, I thank you and appreciate this, and I give back to the State my pledge that I will execute the power given me to the fullest extent of my ability and will do my best to serve the interests of all the people of my State."
Senator Hanna sent the following telegram to President McKinley:
"COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 12, 1898.
"Hon. William McKinley,
"President,
"Washington.
"God reigns and the Republican party still lives.
(Signed) "M. A. HANNA."
Mr. Hanna has received over 2,000 congratulatory telegrams. Among them were messages from President McKinley, members of the cabinet and other distinguished citizens. Those from Mr. McKinley were as follows:
"Washington, D. C., Jan. 12, '98.
"Mrs. McKinley joins me in heartfelt congratulations.
(Signed) "WILLIAM MCKINLEY."
"EXECUTIVE MANSION,
Washington, D. C., Jan. 12, '98.
"The result now plainly forecasted is one in which our best citizenship, irrespective of party, will profusely rejoice. I congratulate you heartily, not only upon a victory beneficial to the country, but upon your leadership in a contest worthily won under the most trying circumstances.
(Signed) "WILLIAM MCKINLEY."

Fashion Hint.
Nothing gives better service for school and general wear than good quality all-wool chevrot. The useful yet stylish frock here shown is made of the material in a light shade of tan with trimming of brown. The simple childish waist is made over a fitted lining to which the full material is attached and which closes at the centre back. The plastron-shaped trim-ing of brown chevrot is laid over the upper portion and extends over the edges of the full body. Its edges are finished with two bands of straight brown braid within which is a single band in trefoil effect. The sleeves are one-seamed and comfortably loose without being large. At the neck is a straight standing collar trimmed with braid and showing a narrow frill of lace. The wrists are completed with straight cuffs of the brown trimmed in harmony with the collar. The skirt is straight and may be either hemmed or faced. The fulness at the top is arranged in gathers and sewed to the band of braid. The band of chevrot, which makes the decoration, is finished with straight and trefoil braid as is the plastron on the waist.

To make this frock for a girl of eight years will require three yards of forty-four inch material with one yard of the darker color for trimming.
Eight Years a Nun.
One of the sisters at the Ursuline Convent, at Boulogne, will, in a month or two, attain her one hundredth birthday. It is eighty years since she took the vows, and since then she has not left the convent. Sister Butor, the lady in question, belongs to the village of Harmelengien.

Recipient of Golden Rose
It is said that the Pope is to present the Order of the Golden Rose to the Duchess Marie Theresa of Wurtemberg. The Duchess is married to the heir to the Wurtemberg throne, and through her the royal family of the duchy becomes Roman Catholic.
Trained in Agriculture.
Women are being trained in agriculture by the State of Minnesota, which has just opened a school for the purpose that will accommodate sixty students.
