NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE.

NEW YORK, Feb. 24.—The slump in the stock market was so sudden and violent that the trading almost took on a panic condition, but the avalanche of liquidation was practically over in less than half an hour and then there were some quick recoveries. The dullness and the recuperative tendency that followed showed that the determination to let go at whatever sacrifice had been quickly abandoned and a late drive by the bears found prices by no means so unresisting as in the morning. The covering of shorts worked a substantial rally before the close. The early slump ranged from 1 to nearly 5 points in Metropolitan Street Railway in the specialties.

The total sales of stocks today were 783,400 shares.

CHICAGO MARKETS.

CHICAGO, Feb. 24.—Grain and provision markets were all weak today, led by wheat. The market in Wall Street, result of the news, was steady, but the general anxiety of smaller holders to get out and resulted in sharp declines. May wheat closed at a loss of 2 1/2 cents yesterday and July lost 1/2 cent. Corn advanced 1/2 cent to 10 1/2 cents, and provisions show closing declines of from 1 to 1 1/2 cents.

A NEW POSTOFFICE.

The citizens in the vicinity of Sawyer's Swamp a few days ago sent a lengthy petition to the postmaster general requesting him to establish a new office at Sawyer's Swamp, a place where a large number of people are forced to travel from four to five miles to obtain their mail. Hampton is the nearest office, and it is considered that the petition has received a consideration that warrants the hope that the office will be established. It will be known as Bethel and will be conducted by Mr. William B. Saunders.

BRIEF ITEMS.

At the hour of writing this report Mrs. Rathbun, whose serious illness was noted in yesterday morning's Press, was still living. Her condition, however, is extremely critical.

The following gentlemen have been recommended for membership on the executive board of Elizabeth City county: Wythe's district, Dr. H. E. Brammore; Hampton district, Segar Williams; Chesapeake district, George A. Schmeitz. The old board consisted of the following gentlemen: Wythe's district, Addison Parker; Hampton district, Dr. M. Cumming; Chesapeake district, William H. Shelton.

A little child of Mr. Peterson, who lives a mile from this city, was buried yesterday at Oakland cemetery. It was four months old.

Mr. P. W. Phillips, who has been ill for several days with heart trouble, was last evening reported better.

In the Protestant cemetery at Chen, there is a tomb which has just been discovered, thanks to the attention of the pastor, M. Bourgeois. The stone bears the name of George Brumby, Esq., who died in this city on the 29th of March, 1846, aged 70 years. The tomb contains the remains of the noted favorite of George IV.

Mr. S. E. Middleton, who recently visited Washington, was at one time cashier of the Treasury, and held office under General Lee when the Confederate Union army to enter the Confederate service.

FOR STARVING CUBA

Movement to Raise Money, Food and Medicine.

WORK OF COL. ARMSTRONG

Complaint of the Police Against the Business Men's Association. Other Matters of Local Interest.

Colonel Robert T. Armstrong, of Williamsburg, who was recently designated by Governor Tyler as one of a committee of the Virginia State Aid Committee of the Red Cross society, in the work of the Red Cross society, in relieving the destitution now existing in the island of Cuba on account of the war in progress there, was here last evening for the purpose of starting a relief movement in the city. He arrived in the city at 10 o'clock and called upon Mayor Hope and other prominent citizens and remained until 11 o'clock, at which time he left for the city of Williamsburg, where he will be making a tour of inspection through which money, food and clothing may be obtained and sent to the central relief committee, whose headquarters are at New York. An effort will be made to enlist the help of the clergymen of the city, through whom it is hoped the Christian people may be easily reached. Colonel Armstrong states that there are now upwards of 100,000 people on the island who are in an utterly destitute condition. Many of these people were until recently prosperous farmers, but were driven by hostile armies to the edge of the island, and they away from their homes, and were unable to find food and shelter in the towns and cities. The influx of this helpless and starving contingent during the past few months has exceeded the ability of those inclined to provide relief, and that thousands are now at the point of starvation. A sad feature of this deplorable picture is the fact that among them are the wives of soldiers, and children who in addition to lack of food, are victims of disease. Reports are received daily in the towns and cities and it is known that many more are sure to perish because of lack of food. Colonel Armstrong says that more than anything else at this time the suffering people of Cuba need money. All funds contributed to the relief of Cuba should be sent to New York and from there forwarded to the central relief committee in General Lee.

A conference took place last evening between Governor Armstrong and Mayor Hope, and it is understood that an organization will be formed to raise money at once. Those who are unable to contribute money may aid the good work by donations of clothing, canned food, condensed milk and medicines, particularly quinine, which is especially needed. Future announcements will be made concerning the work in Hampton and the manner in which it is carried on.

POLICE DON'T LIKE IT.

Claim That They Are Imposed Upon by the Business Men's Association.

Police officers of the county police force claim that they have been imposed upon by the Business Men's Association of this place, whose members after sending the officers out to check and arrest peddlars, refuse to appear in court to testify. The present legislation, it seems, recently enacted a law under which itinerant merchants are forbidden to do business in Virginia towns and cities without first obtaining a license. Yesterday a young man named Samuel Schers came here for the purpose of selling razors. Officer DeWalt was notified and he was duly notified. Schers was finally taken to the Soldiers' Home, but succeeded in escaping by way of the Phoebus gate. In that place, however, he ran into the hands of County Constable Cunningham, who turned him over to Mr. DeWalt and he was brought here for trial before Justice Richardson. The parties who claim the complaint, however, refused to appear in court to testify. The officers discharged him, and it is why the officers complain about the Business Men's Association.

HIGGINS CHARGED ALONE.

In Confederate Testimony He Has Been Given a Medal of Honor.

"The Secretary of War granted a medal of honor a few days ago to a federal soldier on the affidavit of a confederate," said Charles I. Evans of Texas, a candidate for office, who occasionally visits the White House, "and it is probably the first instance on record of this kind. The federal soldier who received the medal was Thomas I. Higgins, now of Hannibal, Mo. During the war he was the color-bearer of the 99th Illinois Regiment, and was holding that position at the siege of Vicksburg. In an assault on the 22d of May, 1863, the 99th Illinois was ordered to charge and not to look back. I was a member of the 2d Texas Regiment, and we confronted the charging Illinoisians. We repulsed the Illinois regiment a short distance from the breastworks and sent it back in confusion. Higgins, however, was literally obeying the orders. He never looked back. He never noticed the retreat of his regiment, but came bounding forward, his colors flying as prettily as a soldier ever saw. When within forty yards of our works word was passed along the line not to shoot the brave soldier, and all firing ceased. When Higgins saw his predicament he started to retreat with his colors, but we told him to come on or we would have to shoot him. Several men ran out and brought him within the breastworks. We kept him several days, during which time we learned to like and admire him. He was then paroled. I was one of the men who witnessed his heroic deed and made an affidavit to that effect. Several of my companions who remembered Higgins and his charge also made affidavits. On these the Secretary of War granted a medal. Higgins could have been vouched for by members of his own regiment, but the novelty of recommendation by his former foes led to that course."

A Horn With a History.

There is an old battered tin horn in the possession of an ancient colored man at Dalton, Ga., around which are associated memories of many deeds of violence.

In ante-bellum days the horn was the property of Colonel "Ben" Longbridge, a wealthy planter of Murray county. It was originally used to summon his many slaves to work and to meals, and its welcome note at sunset was the signal for them to rest from the day's labors.

After the war the horn became separated from the Longbridge family, and from that time until a few months ago was the period of its stirring history. Murray county has for years been a stronghold of the "moonshiners." Time after time the revenue officers made desperate raids on the illicit stills, killing and being killed, yet never entirely subduing the stubborn mountaineers. The mellow note of the old tin horn would always warn the whisky rebels of the approach of their enemies, and many a good man's death has it presaged.

The moonshiners would station a lusty lunged sentinel on some prominent mountain rock, which commanded a view of the valley below, and the slightest suspicious symptom in the lower defiles was sufficient to send the bass coons of the old horn flying, and the moonshiners themselves scurrying to their improvised fortresses, armed to the teeth and ready to take and risk life for what they considered their rights and in the defense of their hearthstones. To the "revenues" it always bore the dismal information that from the next crack or rattle they might expect a slaying volley from their hidden foes.

The venerable horn is a special reminder of a notorious gang which terrorized the county up to within a year ago. It was used to rally the forces of this gang and was often the preface to a bloody conflict between them and the law's representatives.

When the gang was finally disposed of the horn passed into the possession of old "Uncle" Isaac, a typical "befo war" colored man and the old man often brings it out and recounts its interesting history.

Arrive Portsmouth at 8:00 a. m.

The key down the historic Potomac river and Chesapeake bay on the elegant steamers of this company is unsurpassed. The steamers are comparatively new, having been built in 1874, and are fitted up in the most luxurious manner, with electric light, hot and steam heat in each room. Tables are supplied with every delicacy of the season from the markets of Washington and Norfolk.

For further information apply to D. J. CALLAHAN, Agent, Norfolk.
