Market Quotations From the Leading Business Centers

NEW YORK MONEY MARKET. NEW YORK, May 18.—Money on call steady at 11-20 1/4 per cent. Last 1/2 cent. prime mercantile paper, 4 1/2 per cent. sterling exchange, strong, with actual business in bankers' bills at 4 1/2 per cent. for demand and at 4 1/4 per cent. for sixty days.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET. NEW YORK, May 18.—The bull campaign inaugurated yesterday on the Stock Exchange promised well during the early part of the day, but before the close the advantages gained earlier had all been lost, and prices as a rule were lower than last night, not only in the specialties whose weakness stopped the advance, but in the standard stocks and those which had led the advance as well.

The money market was notably lower today and sterling exchange 1-2 cent higher all around, but the easier money conditions had no effect on speculation.

The weakness of wheat doubtless had some sympathetic effect in the late reaction in the stock market. The total sales of stocks today were 50,300 shares.

Big Farewell Meeting of Citizens to Be Held Tomorrow Afternoon at 2 O'clock. Order Matters of Interest.

IN ANNUAL POWWOW

Fifty-Second Session of the Great Council, I. O. R. M. GUARDS ORDERED AWAY.

The fifty-second annual session of the Great Council, Improved Order of the Red Men, convened in this city at 9 o'clock yesterday morning.

C. W. Adams, Great Senior Sagamore, Newport News; Geo. A. Tabb, Great Junior Sagamore, Portsmouth; J. W. Bacchus, Great Prophet, Norfolk; Ira T. Holt, Great Chief of Records, Norfolk; T. O. Gilliam, Great Keeper of Wampum, Petersburg; N. L. Stiers, Great Sannap, Lynchburg; J. E. Cole, Great Mishewewa, Norfolk; S. See, Great Guard of Wigwam, Norfolk; L. W. Hill, Great Guard of Forest, Greenbackville.

There are fifty odd subordinate councils in the State, and it is highly creditable of the organization that of this number, two are unrepresented. The following were present: Osceola, No. 1, Alexandria; Shawnee, No. 2, Winchester; Pocahontas, No. 14, Richmond; Powhatan, No. 15, Petersburg; Annawan, No. 30, Richmond; Soanoke, No. 35, Berryville; Nottoway, No. 37, Matoaca; Jamestown, No. 41, Richmond; Wyandotte, No. 42, Norfolk; Varina, No. 46, Richmond; Wyoming, No. 49, Hampton; Chesapeake, No. 50, Berkeley; Modoc, No. 51, Ellersboro; Harpers, No. 52, Indiana; Manchester, Paines, No. 53, Richmond; Shenandoah, No. 54, Lovettsville; Loudoun county; Black Hawk, No. 57, Norfolk; Red Cloud, No. 58, Mesquite; York county; Sioux, No. 60, James River; Tippecanoe, No. 61, Petersburg; Hiawatha, No. 66, Roanoke; Tuscarora, No. 70, Rip-Raps, Elizabeth City county; Comanche, No. 73, Newport News; Opachitoc, No. 76, Swansboro; Massachusetts, No. 77, New York; Norfolk, Logan, No. 80, Grafton; York county; Toza, No. 81, Buena Vista; Wahoo, No. 82, Roanoke; Manataka, No. 83, Richmond; Chinotegaue, No. 84, Cape Charles; Tomahawk, No. 86, Capeville; Calumet, No. 87, Norfolk; Onelia, No. 88, Staunton; White Swan, No. 89, Carrollton; Accomac, No. 90, Greenbackville; Gray Eagle, No. 93, Richmond; Wapakoneta, No. 94, Phoebus; Monacan, No. 95, Richmond; Minnesota, No. 96, Lynchburg; Nansamoon, No. 98, Crittenden; Merrimac, No. 99, Norfolk; Minewa, No. 100, Norfolk; Tecumseh, No. 101, Shenandoah; Oklahoma, No. 102, Joplin; Junia, No. 103, Lynchburg; Mohawk, No. 104, Martinsville.

The most important event of the morning session was the long talk of Great Sannap Calvert, one of the jolliest and best looking of the assembled men present at this annual powwow. Not a grunt was heard as the Great Sannap, wearing the attractive regalia of his office, arose to address the warriors. After a moment's pause during which he caught the eye of every brave in the wigwam, he said: "Great Chiefs and Representatives G. C. of Virginia:

"I would kindly remind you that the hand of the dial of time indicates that another Great Sun is about to set behind the western hills. Through the guidance of the Great Spirit, it has been added to our lives, with its joys and sorrows, its sunsets and dawns. Many of us have every reason to be thankful and ever grateful for the many blessings granted to us during this Great Sun; it should remind us of the watchful care of the Great Manitou and his assistance while we have been on the hunt. Let it remind us of the obligation we have taken, and the duty we owe to each other, and to the order, remembering that our homes are in the future, and that our children will see this Great Sun; and now as we gather around this council fire to legislate for the welfare of our noble order, let us in our deliberations exemplify charity and mercy, and the right of freedom of opinion and the right to express it.

"The depressing financial condition in our reservation and the lack of business has had a waning influence on our order. Many of our brothers have been without employment a large part of this Great Sun, causing quite a number of suspensions for non-payment of dues; but I am glad to report that with the revival of business, our members will gather around the council fire in good standing again. While we have passed through the difficulties of business inactivity, which has been a barrier to our success in a large portion of this reservation, we ought to feel thankful for what has been achieved in the advancement of the order. While some tribes will show a decrease, others have made considerable growth and will show a large increase.

"I am pleased to report the kindling of four new fires which are burning brightly to the advancement of the order. The institution of most of these tribes is due to the efforts of our efficient Great Senior Sagamore, A. L. Calvert, and he is justly entitled to the highest praise and commendation of this Great Council. I believe we will show a large increase in the number of our members during the Great Sun."

An interesting feature of the Great Sannap's report is that relating to the settlement of questions arising in the various tribes of this jurisdiction. Since the meeting in Stanton a year ago he has visited nearly all of the subordinate councils and most of them, notwithstanding the prolonged business depression, are in active working condition. A satisfactory showing in the receipts and disbursements of the tribes, with the condition of their wigwam belts for the past Great Sun, indicating the past twelve months, is made by Great Sannap Calvert. This statement was given in a dignified and proper manner, and the part of the report presents a fair opinion with similar results in other orders, while leaps in the business depression are in evidence. The Red Men are proud of their order, for which they claim intrinsic merit as a society for the exemplification of the principles of friendship and brotherly helpfulness. Its precepts in-

"Hampton Camp, C. V. "May 18, 1898. "Dear Comrade:

"The gallant Guards, Company D, Fourth Virginia Regiment Volunteers, will leave here on Friday evening on the C. & O. railway for the front, and it has been suggested that our camp, with others, escort them by the depot. So you are requested to meet at the courthouse at 2 o'clock P. M. on Friday, May 20th, for the purpose of forming an escort.

"Many members of the company are our sons and grandsons, and it is but right and proper that we should give them all the encouragement that we can in their patriotic undertaking.

"Respectfully, "J. W. RICHARDSON, "Commander Lee Camp, No. 3."

The following also sent out by Captain S. B. Wood, clerk of the circuit court: "Ex-officers and Members of the Peninsula Guards:

"The gallant band of young men who now represent and are the offspring of our organization, formed twenty years ago, have bravely volunteered their services to fight for their country and with them for Richmond by the depot C. & O. railway on Friday afternoon, the 20th inst., at 4 o'clock. Let us all as old members of the gallant old company assemble at the armory at 3 o'clock on Friday morning, and at 3 o'clock march and march with them to the train and thus show by our presence how we appreciate their valor as brave soldiers.

"Every ex-member of the old organization assemble promptly at the armory at 3 o'clock. "S. B. WOOD, "First Captain Peninsula Guards."

"The meeting Friday afternoon will be one of the greatest gatherings ever held in this city. It will not be made up alone of Hampton people, but will bring many from York county, which is well represented in Company D. The assemblage will take place at the courthouse square, where a platform will be erected. The Rev. Baker P. Lee, Dr. Rev. Mr. Lambeth, the Rev. Mr. McLaughlin, and perhaps other divines, will be present and participate in the exercises. The Hon. Baker P. Lee, Judge of the county court, who with Major Richardson, Captain Daugherty, Captain Dick Richardson, Mr. Westwood, Sheriff Curtis and other gray heads, under the leadership of the late Hampton nearly forty years ago under a different banner from that which will float over the heads of the Guards, will deliver an address. There will be other speakers. The Sons of Confederate Veterans, under Commander Ransome, and large delegations from the several G. A. R. posts at the Soldiers' Home will be present. The organization named and hundreds of citizens will proceed to the C. & O. depot, where they will be shed and tender farewells will be taken.

IN AID OF SPILLER ACADEMY.

Liberal Contributions for the Colored Baptist Institution. The Rev. T. H. Shortt, pastor of the Queen street Colored Baptist church, of this city, has returned from the Baptist convention at Richmond, where he represented three churches, viz.: Queen Street, Hampton, and Adiantum county, and Grafton, Madison county. The churches whose jurisdiction of the convention are in a healthy and prosperous condition. Pastor Shortt was re-elected a member of the State Board, on which he has served with distinction for a number of years.

The Rev. George Reid delivered a report upon the work of Spiller Academy, which was well received. The academy made a member of the board of trustees of the institution. The academy was presented with a handsome donation sent up by the churches represented in the convention. A grand rally will take place at the Queen Street church on the third Sunday in June, at which time Pastor Shortt expects to reduce the debt on his church by about $500. He will be assisted by many of his friends who recognize the value of the work he is doing.

MADAME GUSSE BOMBARDED.

Forced to Leave Phoebus to Escape Her Enemies. Madame Gusse, the woman alleged to have been living with the late Richard Barnes as his mistress, and who, as reported in the Daily Press a week ago, was notified in a threatening letter signed "White Caps" to quit the town at once, has gone to Philadelphia. Times in the old town became altogether too hot for the archville dancing damsel. It was thought that she would be needed as a witness when the Chisman case is called in the county court, but it is now said that all she knows about the shooting would not add anything of value to Common wealth's Attorney Collier's stock of information.

At the request of the authorities Gusse had decided to remain in Phoebus, and so announced to her friends. As soon as her intention became known, however, certain of those in Phoebus who are not her friends decided that her presence could not longer be endured. Among themselves with brick-bats and other dangerous missiles they called at her house in Tennessee Lane and proceeded to bombard it with a vigor that soon left it without either roof or window glass. Gusse was entertaining several visitors when the onslaught began, but it is said that instead of defending her they took to their heels. None of the members of the attacking party were hurt, the only clue being that a one-armed man was in the crowd.
