BOLD ROBBERY IN HAMPTON

Thieves Make a Haul at the Home of a Colored Lawyer. Football Game Ends in a Killkenny Cat Affair. Other Items.

Monroe Encampment, I. O. O. F., of Phobus, had a rousing big time at the hall of a Cosaque lodge last night, when thirteen candidates were given the Patriarch's degree. Past Master Patriarch was present, and there was a large number of visitors present from Newport News, Hampton and Old Point. After the degree work was completed the visitors were invited into the large assembly hall, where they sat down to an excellently prepared banquet, to which all did full justice.

ENDED IN A ROW.

Hamilton High School and Old Point College Football Eleven's Disagreement. The game of football between Old Point College and the Hamilton High School eleven yesterday afternoon resulted in a misunderstanding that caused it to be declared off, with the score standing 6 to 0 in the Hamiltons' favor.

A BOLD DAY ROBBERY.

Eddie Barber Sent on to Await the Action of the Grand Jury. Sunday morning while C. W. Field, the colored attorney, was attending public worship with his family, some unknown parties entered his home on Lincoln street and carried away a handsome gold watch, chain, pocket knife and $10 in money. When Field returned from church he discovered the robbery.

POLICE COURT.

Mayor Hope Disposed of a Large Docket Yesterday Morning. The Police Court docket yesterday morning was large, and Mayor Hope held an unusually early session of the tribunal. His Honor was compelled to adjourn the court at 10 o'clock in order to first dispose of the police business he opened court promptly at 7 o'clock.

WELL KNOWN NEWSPAPER MEN.

Mr. W. D. Chesterman, the veteran editor of the Richmond Dispatch, and his son, Mr. Evan R. Chesterman, also a prominent young newspaper man, on the staff of the Dispatch, spent Sunday in Hampton, stopping at the Barnes Hotel. The gentlemen expressed themselves to the Daily Tross correspondent as being very much surprised at the growth and industry of the old gray cock town, and predicted a good future for her. Mr. E. R. Chesterman is known throughout the State as the "Idle Reporter," and his interesting articles are looked for with eagerness by the large number of Dispatch readers on Sunday. He is also an excellent young member of the Richmond bar.

LITERARY CIRCLE TO MEET.

The regular meeting of the Keegan-Literary Club will be held Tuesday, November 7, with Mrs. Worthington, King street. The subject is "Elizabeth Stuart Phelps," and the program is in charge of Mrs. Worthington.

The New Barber Shop.

Mr. L. Kantowitz, one of the best known barbers in Hampton, has opened a handsome modern shop in the New Augusta Hotel, and invites his friends, when in need of first-class work, to pay him a call. Mr. Kantowitz's long experience as a barber will undoubtedly merit the trade of every one. His place is strictly up to date. It

NO INTEREST TAKEN.

The Election Today Will Be Unusually Quiet in Hampton. Very little interest is left in Hampton in the result of the election today, owing to the one-sided campaign and the fact that the Democratic candidates are unopposed.

MISS RATHBUN ILL.

Prof. F. G. Rathbun, the popular music teacher, yesterday received a telegram announcing the illness of his daughter in Stockbridge, Mass., and advising him to come to her bedside at once, as the attending physicians were of the opinion she could not survive 48 hours. The telegram did not state the nature of her illness, and it is not known to the father, who was not aware of his daughter's illness. Prof. Rathbun will leave this morning for Stockbridge, and his large circle of friends join him in the hope that he may find her a better when he arrives at home. Miss Rathbun is 14 years old and is making her home with the parents of Prof. Rathbun.

DEATH OF AN INFANT.

Catherine, aged 9 months, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Daly, died yesterday morning at the home of her parents in Phoebus. The funeral services will take place this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence. The interment will be in Oakland cemetery.

ERLEF NOTES.

Miss Ruth Turner, an attractive young lady of Newport, is the bride of Miss Mary Schermhorn, on Kings street. Miss Ruth Turner left yesterday for Staunton, Va., where she will be one of the bride's maid at the marriage of Miss Maudie Graham, daughter of Judge James Graham, to Mr. Gilmer W. Stern, a popular young man of the "Queen of the Valley." The ceremony will take place Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock in Emmanuel Episcopal church.

CURIOSITY REWARDED.

Two ladies called at the house of one of our well-known physicians last week. While one of them was consulting the physician in his private room, the other, prompted by curiosity of some kind, proceeded to investigate the contents of a bureau in the adjacent room. In the bureau she discovered the two apartments was a glass door over which was a paper shade, which, however, was torn across one corner, so that it was possible to see from one room into the other.
