

MRS. DAVIS' BODY RESTS IN HOLLYWOOD

Entire South Unites With Virginia In Paying Tribute to Her Memory.

SERVICES AT THE CHURCH SIMPLE

Streets Lined With People Who Bow- ed Their Heads as the Funeral Cortege Wended Its Way to the Cemetery—Military Honors at the Grave.

(By Associated Press.)
RICHMOND, VA., Oct. 19.—The train bearing the body of Mrs. Jefferson Davis arrived here about 8:30 o'clock this morning and was met at Elba, an uptown station, by Lieutenant-Governor J. Taylor Ellyson, who conducted the ladies of the funeral party to the Jefferson Hotel.

The members of the Davis family who came with the remains were Mr. and Mrs. J. Addison Hayes, Jefferson Davis Hayes, Miss Hayes and Dr. and Mrs. Webb.

The following detail from the New York Camp of Confederate Veterans acted as honorary guard:

Major Edward Owen, Commanders
Dr. Harvie Dew, Colonel Theodore C.
Caskins and Perry M. DeLeon. This detachment continued with the body to the Byrd Street Station, downtown.

Other Members of Party.

Among others who came South with the remains were Mr. and Mrs.
Charles Battison, Mrs. John H. Parker, President of the New York chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy; Mrs. K. M. Frank, Mrs.
Bennett, Mrs. Beale, Mrs. J. H. Dew, Mrs. Joseph Pulitzer and Rev. Dr. Nathan Seagle, pastor of St. Stephen's Church, New York, of which Mrs. Davis was a member.

At Byrd Street the remains were met by details from the local camps of Confederate Veterans and escorted by them to St. Paul's Episcopal Church, where the casket was placed in the basement auditorium of the structure, amid flowers and floral designs in beauty and profusion such as have rarely been seen in Richmond, and under the honorary guard of Confederate Veterans and daughters of the Confederacy.

Casket Taken into the Church.

At three o'clock, the casket was taken into the body of the church, which was packed with people and the funeral services were begun.
These were conducted by Rev. Robert W. Forsyth, rector of the church, assisted by Rev. Dr. J. William Jones, chaplain general of the Confederate Veterans; Rev. Dr. James Power-smith, who was Stonewall Jackson's chaplain; Rabbi Calsch, of Beth Ahaba Synagogue, Richmond; Rev.
Dr. Landon R. Mason, Rev. Dr. W. V.
Tudor, and Rev. Dr. N. A. Seagle. The services were of the simplest possible character, the hymns being "Just As I Am," "How Firm a Foundation," "Abide With Me," and "Asleep in Jesus."

Escorted to Hollywood.

After the services, a procession was formed and the march was taken up for Hollywood Cemetery. The procession was made up of the local battalion of the Seventieth Regiment of Virginia Volunteers, a company from Petersburg, the Richmond Light Infantry Blues, the Richmond Howitzers, local and visiting camps of Confederate Veterans and Sons of Veterans, Daughters of the Confederacy and Confederate Memorial Associations.

There were representatives in line from most of the States, which made up the Confederacy.

Gen. Lee at the Head.

At the head of the procession rode General Stephen D. Lee, of Mississippi, in civilian garb, as chief marshal of the parade. The hearse was escorted by a detachment of the Richmond Howitzers. In spite of the fact, that the weather was extremely inclement, rain falling almost constantly, the whole route of the procession was lined with people, who stood under umbrellas and looked on the sad cortege, evidently with the most reverent feeling.

Services at the Grave.

At the cemetery there was another large gathering of people. The services, which were brief, were conducted by Rev. Mr. Forsyth and Rev.
Dr. Seagle. The Howitzers fired an artillery salute with the guns which were recently issued to them by the general government and two companies of the infantry fired three volleys over the grave.

It was remarked as interesting that the first use of the fine new guns obtained from the United States government was to fire a salute over the grave of the widow of the President of the Southern Confederacy.

Roosevelt's Offering Noticed.

Conspicuous, too, among the magnificent floral offerings at the funeral was one from President and Mrs.

Roosevelt. This, at the cemetery, was noticed lying at the base of the monument over the grave of President Davis. Mrs. Davis' resting place is next to that of her husband.

A noteworthy personage at the obsequies was James Jones, a colored man, who drove the Davis family carriage during the war, and who now lives in Raleigh, N. C. He attended the funerals of President Davis and Miss Winnie Davis and though now bent with age, and much enfeebled insisted on being present today.

Taps were sounded over the grave of Mrs. Davis by Bugler Cowardine, of the Richmond Howitzers, who performed a similar service for President Davis and Miss Winnie Davis, and thus ended the sad ceremonies of today in the old and yet new capitol of the Confederacy.

proved true. This evening an excursion steamer arrived in port, bring-out one of the boats this morning to look for the men and boats.

The boat returned this evening and reported no signs of the fleet. The fishing nets were found strewn upon the shore.

Wave Engulfs Island.

Captain Bravo says that he anchored on the lee side of Elliott's Key, twenty-five miles south of Miami, yesterday morning and that soon after a tidal wave engulfed the island. He says there were 250 residents on the island, all of whom were lost.

The St. Lucie was crushed by the same wave and of the 100 persons on board, twenty-five were killed. Captain Bravo was seriously injured.

Court in Making Its Decree Censures the Company For Not Treating All Citizens Alike—Case a Flagrant One.

NEW YORK, N. Y., Oct. 19.— Judge Holt in the United States Circuit Court today imposed a fine of $108,000 on the New York Central and Hudson River Railroad Company for granting rebates to Lowell M.
Palmer, of the American Sugar Refining Company. There were six counts and a fine of $18,000 was imposed in each.

Frederick L. Pomeroy, assistant traffic manager, of the New York Central, was fined $1,000 on each count, a total of $6,000.

"Such a violation of law" said Judge Holt, in passing sentence, "is much more heinous than the ordinary common vulgar crimes usually brought before the Criminal Court. This corporation received large and valuable public privileges.

"It was under the highest obligations to treat all citizens alike. Under these circumstances and for an offense so clearly flagrant, it is the duty of the court to impose a penalty commensurate with the gravity of the offense."

tions to that of their chief.

sibility of the recall of Ex-Premier Combes is discussed.

MOB ATTACKS BISHOP

Enraged Spaniards Try to Kill the Prelate.

SOLDIERS RESCUED THE PRIEST

Separation Law and Speech Made by the Catholic Devine About the Act Stirred up Bitter Feeling That Re- sulted in Violence.

(By Associated Press.)
VALENCIA, SPAIN, Oct. 19.—Rioting of the most serious character is in progress here as the direct outcome of the attempt of the Spanish Government, following the lead of France, to loosen the ties which hitherto have bound it to the Vatican.

The rioting culminated last night in an attempt on the part of a mob to lynch the archbishop, who preached a violent sermon yesterday, which has greatly aroused the anti-clericals.
Today troops guard the city, and it is feared violent rioting may break out at any moment.

The archbishop of Valencia had made a violent attack upon the Government for the course which it is pursuing toward the Vatican. He directed his attack principally upon the new civil marriage law. This he declared reduces marriage to the plane of concubinage. When news of the archbishop's utterances spread through the city mobs began forming in the streets.

As soon as the necessary leader appeared the rioters took up their march for the archbishop's residence with the determination to lynch him.
Threats of every description were made against other clericals, and for a time it looked as if an attack would be made upon every prelate in the city.

So violent did the mob become, and so great was the number of the rioters that the police were helpless and troops were ordered out. They surrounded the archbishop's palace to protect the prelate. Later the troops attacked the mob and forced the rioters to disperse. Rioting was resumed today, however.

STANDARD OIL GUILTY SAYS AN OHIO JURY

Parent of All Trusts Convicted, of Conspiracy, After Stren- uous Trial.

SENTENCE DEFERRED BY JUDGE

Counsel for Combine to Make Motion For New Trial—Head Officials Say Fight Will Be Carried to the Court of Last Resort—Victory For Good Government, Asserts Wade Ellis.

(By Associated Press.)
CINCINNATI, O., Oct. 19.—By the verdict of a jury, the Standard Oil Company of Ohio is guilty of conspiracy against trade in violation of the Valentine Anti-trust Law of Ohio.

The penalty is a fine of from $50 to $5,000, which may be repeated for each day of the offense, or imprisonment of from six to twelve months.

The Standard Oil Company of Ohio, has given notice that it will file a motion for a new trial.

The next step will be for the court to impose the penalty.

New Method Employed.

To the State the suit, the verdict and the ultimate appeal is important, because it initiated a new method of proceeding against alleged trade monopolies—that is by condemnation and affidavit instead of by grand jury indictment. The verdict was rendered at 4:35 o'clock this morning and resulted from a continuous deliberation by the jury during thirty-two consecutive hours.

A touch of the dramatic marked the closing hours of the jury's deliberation. Hymns were sung during all but ten minutes of this time. This ten minutes' pause at the end, was occupied by the remaining juror who had stood out, in explaining his position and surrendering to the majority.
There was not the slightest levity about this hymnal service.

Fight Just Begun.

NEW YORK, N. Y., Oct. 19.—The legal department of the Standard Oil Company has given out the following statement: "The defendant lawyers in the case, will take immediate steps for appeal, which, before final adjudication, may pass through three courts namely, Court of Common Pleas, the Circuit Court and Supreme Court of Ohio.

"They feel confident of securing a reversal of manifold errors in the trial just concluded."

Triumphs for Good Government.

MARIETTA, O., Oct. 19.—Attorney General Wade H. Ellis, said in regard to the decision against the Standard Oil Company.
"This is a great triumph for good government. It is a vindication of that principle once so well announced by President Roosevelt that no man is so high as to be above the law, and no man so low, as to be beneath its protection."
