

HAMPTON, PHOEBUS AND OLD POINT--Continued.

Who's your tailor?

Most men realize that they have personal peculiarities of figure which ready-to-wear garments never quite provide for.

They're usually bought in deference to purse rather than to judgment. We measure for clothes for every requirement at prices to suit every purchaser.

Selection of cloth need not be confined to one or two fabrics. You can choose from five hundred.

IN THE HAMPTON CHURCHES TODAY

Secretary Duncan, of the Newport News Y. M. C. A., to Preach in Presbyterian Church

SUNDAY SCHOOL RALLY ARRANGED

Interesting Program Arranged for the Exercises in the First Methodist Church—Usual Service in St. John's—Announcements of Sermons by Various Ministers.

The Sunday school of the First Methodist church will observe rally day this morning. An interesting program has been arranged and the work in that department is expected to receive a good impetus. Mr. Chas. Hefflinger is the superintendent of the Sunday school.

Rev. J. W. Stiff, the pastor, will fill his pulpit at both services today in the First Methodist church.

Mr. Duncan at Presbyterian.

In the absence of the pastor, Rev. Abner C. Hopkins, Jr., who is in attendance upon the Virginia Synod in Staunton, Mr. U. S. Duncan, secretary of the Newport News Young Men's Christian Association, will preach in the Presbyterian church this morning. There will be no services this evening.

Grace Methodist.

At Central Methodist church this morning, Rev. Asa Driscoll, the pastor, will take as his subject, "The Way of Faith," and this evening, "The Living Christ."

Hampton Baptist.

"The Modern Esau," will be the theme of the morning sermon by Rev. E. Pendleton Jones, D. D., in the Hampton Baptist church, and tonight he will preach on "The Christian Sabbath." Tomorrow evening the Young People's Union will take up its course in Christian culture.

At St. John's Church.

Rev. Reverdy Estill, D. D., will conduct the usual services in St. John's Episcopal church this morning and this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock.

Memorial Baptist.

At the Memorial Baptist church this morning Rev. T. Ryland Sanford will preach the last of a series of sermons on "Soul Winning," and tonight he will begin another series on "Salvation Ladder." This afternoon Mr. Sanford will preach to the congregation of the Riverview Baptist church.

Church of Christ.

At the Church of Christ today Rev. C. N. Williams will preach on the following subjects: Morning—"Elijah and Ahab;" evening, "Conversion." Bible school at 9:30 a. m.; Christian Endeavor 7 p. m.

PHOEBUS TEAM VICTORIOUS.

In a Fierce Battle With the Athletics of Portsmouth, Home Boys Win.

In one of the hardest fought football battles ever pulled off in Portsmouth the Phoebus Athletics defeated the Portsmouth Athletics yesterday afternoon by the score of 5 to 0. Portsmouth fought hard and gave the visitors some very raw deals, but the Phoebus team pulled together, throughout and prevented the Portsmouth team from crossing their goal line. Gadoi made a fifteen yard run for a touch down near the end of the last half.

GOVERNOR'S BROTHER DEAD.

George R. Knox Dies, in Nashville, Suddenly.

George R. Knox, brother of Governor Thomas T. Knox, of the Soldiers' Home died in Nashville, Tenn., yesterday. As Governor Knox is suffering from a severe cold his doctor has advised against a trip there to attend the funeral. Mrs. Knox and her daughter are now visiting in Annapolis, Md.

MRS. MONTAGUE TO SPEAK.

Wife of Former Governor to Address Hampton Ladies.

Mrs. Andrew J. Montague, wife of former Governor Montague, will address the ladies in the Hampton Baptist church Tuesday afternoon in the interest of the Home for Needy Confederate Women which is maintained by the ladies of the south.

Mrs. Davis Visits Mrs. Darling.

Mrs. Isabella C. Davis, of the central committee of the International Order of King's Daughters, arrived in Hampton last evening and is the guest of Mrs. Frank Darling.

Miss Mamie Stillwell, of Savannah, Ga., is the guest of Miss Birdie Peck, of Akorn Point.

Old papers for sale at 10 cents a hundred. Apply at Daily Press office.

Habit.
Habit is one of the world's controlling influences. More men are swayed by force of habit, unconsciously perhaps, than any other motive. The habit of doing certain things in a certain way grows from beginnings so small as to be scarcely noticeable until it forms a chain that can scarcely be broken. The habit of right or wrong doing becomes a master, and a more exacting master could not be found.—Brooklyn Times.

His Sorrow.
Maud (newly married)—You look very melancholy, George. Are you sorry you married me? George—No, dear, of course not. I was only thinking of all the nice girls I can't marry. Maud—Oh, George, how horrid of you! I thought you cared for nobody but me! George—Neither do I. I wasn't thinking of myself, but of the disappointment for them.

Happiness.
Things are so arranged in this world that happiness as a profession must ever be a failure. It cannot be found by seeking it. It is a reflex action. It is incidental, a product which comes from doing noble things. It is impossible for a person to be really happy by making pleasure a profession.—Success Magazine.

Some of Them Do.
The master had been giving a class of youngsters some ideas of adages and how to make them. Presently he said: "Birds of a feather—do what?" "Lay eggs," piped a small boy before anybody else had a chance to speak.

The Leading Part.
Twyn—I hear that Skidmore has led the Widow Weeds to the altar. Trip-let—"That is what it is called for politeness' sake, but from my post of observation it looked as though the widow were a neck ahead of him all the way up the aisle.
