CONFERENCE TO ADJOURN MIDDLE OF THIS WEEK

Bishop Galloway Addresses New Members of Conference—Relief Society Pays Tribute.

(By Associated Press) PETERSBURG, Nov. 16.—The Methodist conference was called to order at 9:30 a. m., and was opened with divine service conducted by Rev. Francis M. Edwards.

The special committee on relations of Randolph-Macon to the Virginia conference was in session until midnight last night. Its report will not be made until next week.

Conference will probably adjourn Wednesday night or Thursday, it is recalled that the conference which met in Petersburg in the early 50's was in session for nearly or quite four weeks. That was the session at which the famous Smith-Decima case was—William A. Smith and Dr. Charles H. Decima.

This was one of the most famous trials in the history of the Virginia conference. It was a contest between giants, and created intense and universal interest. Such trials now do not take place in public, but in committees.

Howard D. Shenton and Charles T. Thrift were admitted into full connection as elders of the church.

The bishop congratulated them on entering—the poorest of trades, but the noblest of callings.

Dr. S. S. Lambeth was submitted for Dr. William E. Judkins on the committee on memoirs.

A report from the home fund stated that the sum of $150 is in hand, which was ordered to be turned over to the joint board of finance.

Rev. W. W. Vear read the report of the Preachers' Relief society, showing receipts during the year from all sources of $7,885. After disbursement the balance in hand is $3,203. The assets are $40,800.

Rev. W. G. Bates submitted the report of the Bible Society board.

The report urges the use of Bibles in public schools.

Rev. Dr. Potter of the American Bible Society, spoke on the subject of the report, and appealed to the Virginia conference for $8,000 for the Bible cause this year, which would be about five cents per member.

BESIDE THE GATE OF DREAMS.

An idle youth one summer day Went wandering afield—

Not East nor West on any quest That eye or thought revealed. But on and on through bloom and shine

And down by shady streams, Through lane and wood, until he stood Beside the Gate of Dreams.

What saw he there? Nay, rather ask What saw he not and heard, Hath mind perceived? Hath heart received?

Hath soul been deeply stirred By radiant things, by whisperings From better lands, it seems? All these he saw and heard in awe Beside the Gate of Dreams.

What brought he back that summer day From wandering afield? Naught he can show or tell, I know Of things on earth revealed. But more than gold, a million fold And all the world esteems

He holds the day he strayed away Beside the Gate of Dreams. —Clarence Omsley, in Uncle Remus Magazine.

Great Plan. Mr. Orthodoxy—But surely, sir, Doctor Reglar doesn't advertise? The Editor—Well, no, directly; but when business is dull he often sends me a check for inserting pie and pastry recipes.—Lippincott's Magazine.

Food for Flames. "You; collection of winter colors is very nice," said Mrs. Swellman, "but have you no oil paintings?" "No, indeed," said Mrs. Nurlich; "I don't consider them safe."

"Not safe?" "No, in case of fire, you know,"—Philadelphia Press.

CANONICUS FAILS TO ATTRACT INTEREST

Historic Old Monitor, Last of Her Type, to be With-drawn From Exposition.

The historic old monitor Canonicus, the only remaining vessel of the original monitor type now in the navy, is to be withdrawn from exhibition at the Jamestown Exposition and returned to the Norfolk navy yard. The Canonicus was sent to Hampton Roads last April at the request of the Exposition authorities and has since been moored in the Roads near Pine Beach.

The Exposition officials believed that the monitor would be an interesting exhibit alongside the modern battleships, but her commanding of-icer reports to the Navy Department that little interest has been manifested in the old ship.

ANNNOYED COLLECTOR STUART

Warwick County Negro Lands Himself Behind Bars. John Jefferies, a Warwick county negro, was arrested at West avenue and Thirty-third street last night by Patrolman Livesay and Special Agent Pettus of the Chesapeake & Ohio railroad, about midnight last night on the charge of trespass. It is alleged that the negro entered the front piazza of the residence of Collector of Customs J. E. H. Stuart, 3214 West avenue, and rang the doorbell several times. The collector captured the intruder and notified the police station. Jefferies was locked up to await a hearing in the police court tomorrow.

CHARGED WITH FORGING NAME OF HIS MOTHER

Louis S. Jones, of Morrison Arrested and Locked up in Police Station Here.

BANKER MADE THE COMPLAINT

When Note Which Had Been Discounted by Schmelz Brothers Fell Due, Notice Was Sent Mrs. Jones, and Her Reply Sent Cashier to Police Headquarters.

Charged with forging the name of his mother, Mrs. Mary P. Jones, to a note for $25 which he had discounted at Schmelz Brothers' bank several months ago, Louis S. Jones, a young man who lives at Morrison, was arrested at that place yesterday evening by Detective Pearson. The prisoner was brought to this city and locked up at the station house to await a preliminary hearing before Justice Brown in the police court tomorrow morning.

The arrest was made on a warrant sworn out by Chief of Police Reynolds on the complaint of Mr. E. S. Blanton, cashier of Schmelz Brothers' bank. Jones' note became due last week and when he failed to pay it, Mr. Blanton, it is said, wrote Mrs. Jones, who lives at Morrison, informing her that her son's note on which her name appeared as the endorser, had not been paid.

It is said, wrote Mrs. Jones, who lives at Morrison, informing her that her son's note on which her name appeared as the endorser, had not been paid. Mrs. Jones, it is alleged, wrote in reply that she knew nothing of the note and that her signature was a forgery.

After receiving the letter Mr. Blanton reported the affair to Chief Reynolds and the warrant for Jones' arrest was secured and turned over to Detective Pearson. The detective drove to Morrison in a buggy and apprehended Jones on the country road as he was returning home from North Newport News.

The prisoner said last night that his mother easily established his innocence of the charge against him. Jones is the son of the late Mr. Rook Jones of Morrison, and is well known in Warwick county and in this city.

Victory for St. Vincent's. The St. Vincent's Academy second football team defeated the Phoebus graded school in a hotly contested game by the score of 6-0. The St. Vincent boys managed to get the ball across the line about fifteen minutes after it was put in play. Neither side scored in the second half. A return game will be played here next week.

I suffered for years from kidney complaint and was unable to find anything that would give more than temporary relief, although I used a number of remedies, and was treated by physicians. There was a constant pain across the small of my back and at times when stooping or lifting, sharp pains would pass through my loins and cause me the most intense suffering. I also had headaches and occasionally suffered from dizzy spells. My kidneys were disordered, the secretions being too frequent in action and many times causing me to arise during the night. While feeling very miserable I happened to read about Doan's Kidney Pills and deciding to try them, I procured a box at A. E. G. Klor's drug store.
