

WRESTLING MATCH IS FROTIEST OF FROSTS

Zello Claims That He Was Given Raw Deal and Majority of Spectators Support Him.

BENNIE QUILTS AND CROWD HOOTS

After Strong Man Puts Jones' Shoulders to Mat Second Time, Latter Says He's Not Getting Fair Play, But Jeering of Crowd Sends Him Back to Get Decision.

The wrestling match between E. Zello, the "strong man," and Bennie Jones, the "little giant," at the Bell theater last night was the frostiest kind of a frost. Zello claims that he was given the rawest deal he has ever received in any match and a majority of the two hundred or more spectators seemed to be of the same opinion.

After a ten minutes' intermission, they went back at it again and in about fifteen minutes Zello put Bennie down with a leg head-lock and body hold, holding the "little giant" down for nearly a minute.

Zello Makes Speech. Zello made a speech, explaining that he had not used any holds that he was barred and that he had tried not to be rough with Bennie.

Zello stated after the match that he thought the decision was unfair and that all bets on the bout should be called off.

The Newport News Athletics put up a ragged exhibition of fielding on the Casino lot yesterday afternoon and the North Enders ran away with the game by the lop-sided score of 8 to 3.

The 700 or more fans who were gathered in the park found little or no opportunity to get the surplus supply of holiday enthusiasm out of their systems for there was not a single exciting situation or sensational bit of fielding and the game itself was far too one-sided to provoke either interest or enthusiasm.

North End took the lead in the second chapter by piling up three runs and they were never in danger of being headed as Tom Reynolds seemed to have the Indian sign on all of the Athletic sluggers except Eddie Land.

Eddie Clark, the Newport News Academy pitcher, made his debut on the firing line for the Athletics and he pitched good ball in spite of the many errors of commission and omission that were perpetrated by the men behind him.

Billy Roaten, the Athletic catcher, sustained a painful injury of his right hand in the ending of the third inning, a pitched ball hitting him on the fore finger and tearing the flesh of his hand between that finger and the middle finger.

has a delivery exactly like the one and only "Bix Six" Mathewson. Moore has the better of the duel, allowing but six hits and striking out eight. He allowed the locals to hit only five balls out of the diamond. Simpson struck out thirteen men, but he was touched for eight singles and two doubles and uncorked three wild pitches. Errors figured in five of the six runs made, but the Collegians' first run resulted from a pass to "Hubby" White, a stolen base and Jones' double to left field.

"Hubby" White's all around playing was the one feature of the game. He made a great one-handed catch of a wild heave to first and rapped out three hits in four times at the bat. Jackson's catch of a Texas leaguer to left was the fielding feature for North End.

Searles made his debut in this game as a catcher, replacing Carly in the third inning. He caught a splendid game and walloped the ball for a double and a single in three times up. The tabulated score:

"CARVING" IN BLOODFIELD. "All Nations House" Scene of Performance With Razor. Robert House, a negro, was severely cut about the neck and face with a razor by another negro, Henry Bruning, in a place known as the "All Nations house" in Bloodfield last night about 8 o'clock.

The victim of the cutting appeared at the police station in this city and swore out a warrant for his assailant, but when Patrolman Padgett went to the scene the warrant and found that the offense had been committed in Bloodfield, he notified the Bloodfield police and turned the matter over to them.
