MR. CARNEGIE AND HIS FORGOTTEN EXPLANATION.

When he spoke at the Hampton Normal school last week, Andrew Carnegie made a statement to the effect that he believed that some time in the not very distant future race lines would be obliterated.

Naturally, everybody at all familiar with the situation concluded that the next time Mr. Carnegie was allowed to run at large in the neighborhood of a crowd of negroes he should be gagged.

Perhaps Mr. Carnegie did mean what he said; the fact that he allowed himself to be quoted throughout the country and has offered no explanation seems to indicate that if he did not express his sentiments he has no objection to being placed in a false light on the subject.

This explanation is almost as lucid as that given by Mr. Carnegie after he had decided that "there is no such thing as forgiveness." However it is better than no explanation at all, and it is a pity that he sat down without making it.

THE "CLAIRVOYANT" NUISANCE.

Newport News is fortunate in being rid of the "clairvoyant" nuisance. The council wisely put a prohibitory license tax upon such fakirs at the beginning of this fiscal year, and as a result the city has not been pestered by them since.

In the daily papers of Richmond appear large advertisements of a woman who calls herself, "the world's greatest clairvoyant and psychic palmit."

glad through her truthful predictions." All of this is so obviously foolish that a great many sensible people fail to see the necessity for making the city undesirable as a camping ground for these fakirs.

have made a poor quartermaster; the physique of any barbarian was as good as Caesar's of Alexander's. The faculty of the university seems to have discarded the Baconian philosophy and to be trying to revert to a primitive state; putting muscle and prize fighting on top.

Gymnasium Decaying. "There is a fine gymnasium at the university. I hear that it has fallen into 'innocuous desuetude'."

"Some years ago I read an account of the battle between the university team and the Carlee Indians. It is said that half of the Indians had to be carried from the field to a hospital, and that the professors and students of the University met their team at the train to celebrate the victory."

"I can see no reason for a boy's going to college to develop his muscle; if physical vigor is the object let him join a circus; or, like Burns, go to plowing. My opinion, often expressed in a protest against football, is that severe physical exertion does not promote health, or long life; and my observation has been that the athletes belong as a rule to the class who are 'invincible in peace and invincible in war.'"

2715 Washington Avenue Newport News. PATENT CASE DECIDED IN AMERICAN'S FAVOR. German Imperial Supreme Court Orders Renewal of United States Firm's Letters.

LEIPSIK, Nov. 26.—The Imperial Supreme Court today rendered a decision in a patent case in which it interpreted the patent agreement between Germany and the United States in favor of an American company which has a branch office in Berlin.

The American firm, however, took an appeal to the Imperial Supreme Court and while awaiting a decision, transferred the patent rights to its parent company in the United States.

The decision of the court today declared that the patent office had wrongfully revoked the letters of patent and must renew them, as the German-American agreement guaranteed reciprocal treatment of patents.

Illinois Woman's Mistake Fatal for Baby. (By Associated Press.) CHICAGO, Nov. 26.—A neighbor woman, who was taking care of 12-day-old baby of Mrs. Frank Davis, of Salisbury, Ill., sprinkled the child with powdered arsenic, which she mistook for talcum powder.

The arsenic and talcum powder, although plainly labeled, were in similar packages. Twice the woman dusted the child with the powder after she had given the babe a bath.
