FORTY-EIGHT FIREMEN LEAVE FOR CONVENTION

Hampton Laddies go to State Meeting at Alexandria.

Forty-eight members of the Hampton fire department, in command of Foreman B. F. Burgess, left last night on the Washington steamer for Alexandria to attend the twenty-ninth annual convention of the Virginia State Firemen's Association. Tonight about ten or fifteen more will leave for the convention city in order to take part in the big parade tomorrow. Hampton counts on having sixty men in the line and will be headed by a drum corps from Washington.

Among those who will leave tonight will be Capt. C. H. Hewins and J. B. Diestl. The Hampton firemen will be located for the week at the New Hotel Remmel and after taking in the convention the laddies expect to go to Washington and Baltimore for a stay of a day. The firemen will return either Saturday or Sunday morning. Accompanying the company last night were William Humphries, and Fay Howard.

The complete list of the firemen leaving last night is given below:

John Bains, B. F. Burgess, Raymond Brittingham, Arthur Brinkly, W. S. Crockett, J. W. Collona, Richard Collona, J. P. Cunningham, H. S. SMITHFIELD IS GIVEN GOOSE EGG BY CRABBERS

Ham Eaters Unable to Connect With Feisty Boyce's Curves, While Hampton Hammers Effinger.

The Hampton Crabbers went to Smithfield yesterday afternoon and got the sweetest kind of revenge from the Ham Eaters by administering to them a dose of white wash. The final score in the battle, which was interesting and fast, was 4 to 0, with the Crabbers holding the high cards. Lefty Boyce did the twirling for the Hamptonians, while Ebbinger did the throwing for the Smithfield nine. The "Peanutters" simply couldn't find Boyce, making but three scratch hits off his delivery, while Hampton took a good rap at the curves from Ebbinger. Jackson, Land and Lewis each got a two sacker. A sensational catch by Boyce was the real scream of the contest.

About 100 Hampton rooters accompanied the Crabbers to Smithfield, making the trip on the yachts Juanita and Lady Gay. Russell, as usual caught a brilliant game for Hampton, while Wilson did the catching for Smithfield.

ARRINGTON CASE IS CONTINUED ONE WEEK

Negro Constable Says He Played Poker, But Did Not Take Part in the Crap Game.

After listening to the testimony of a number of witnesses yesterday afternoon Magistrate Martin Kenny reserved his decision in the case of J. T. Arrington, the negro constable at Bay Shore, who is charged with engaging in gambling at the resort. The magistrate said he wished to hear further testimony and also desired to have Judge Montague, the commonwealth's attorney, to be present at the final hearing, so he continued the case until next Monday afternoon.

Arrington said that he was not engaged in the elusive game of crap, but was playing a penny ante-game of poker, which he considers a more refined game for an officer to engage in. He simply played poker to obtain evidence he was looking for, using the game as a ruse to ascertain whether or not whiskey is being sold in the place.

CLERK HOLT RETURNS FROM ROCKBRIDGE ALUM

Valuable Jewelry Supposed to Have Been Lost by Mrs. Holt Found in Book.

Clerk of the Courts Harry H. Holt, who spent ten days at the Rockbridge Alum Springs, returned to the city yesterday. Mrs. Holt and Master H. H. Holt, Jr., will remain at the springs several weeks longer.

Mr. Holt brought back the good news that Mrs. Holt has recovered her valuable jewelry, which was believed to have been lost several days ago by Master H. H. Holt, who was keeping the jewelry while his mother was enjoying the swimming pool.

It turns out that the little fellow placed the rings and other valuables in a book, which Mrs. Holt had been reading and the book was carried to Mrs. Holt's room without her knowledge. Two days after discovering the loss of her jewels, Mrs. Holt was made happy by finding them safely hidden in the pages of the book.

GRIFFIN ARRESTED HERE.

Cape Charles Negro is Charged With Assaulting Frank Banks.

Frank Banks, a negro from Cape Charles, is in the Dixie hospital hovering between life and death as the result of an assault made upon him last Saturday by his cousin, Arthur Griffin, who is a prisoner in Hampton jail. Banks was brought to the hospital here Sunday and it is thought that he has a fractured skull.

Griffin was arrested yesterday morning by Deputy Sheriff T. S. Curtis as he was walking along Queen street. Officers from Cape Charles will reach here today to take Griffin back tonight.

Lap Robe in Blaze.

While going from his residence to his store in Queen street at noon yesterday, A. Tyler Hull discovered smoke issuing from the buggy of C. D. Parker, which was in the rear of Mr. Parker's store. Going to the buggy, Mr. Hull discovered that the lap robe was in a blaze and with some difficulty succeeded in extinguishing it. Mr. Parker had brought a friend down town, who probably let a spark from his pipe drop in the robe.

Death of Young Man.

Gardner Tyler Hamilton, 17 years old, a well known young man around Fox Hill, died at the home of his parents at 3 o'clock yesterday morning. He had been ill several months with rheumatism. Funeral services will be held from the upper Fox Hill Methodist church this afternoon at 3 o'clock and will be in charge of Rev. Gordon Bates. Mr. Hamilton was the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hamilton.

Sent to Reformatory.

Thomas Russell and Edward Baker, negro boys, charged with stealing a set of harness from F. K. Nickolopoulos, were held for the reformatory by Mayor Thornton F. Jones yesterday.

For the Children

Katie Frick a Bright Little Blind Girl.

Little folks who possess all their senses will surely sympathize with Katie Frick, a little deaf, dumb and blind girl, who is making wonderful progress in acquiring an education. Katie lives in Pennsylvania and the state has given money that she may be educated. When Katie was six she lost the use of eyes, ears and voice and the fact that she was not born in that condition has been a great help to her teacher, as she remembers many things she saw before becoming blind. Katie was taught to count by means of wooden blocks, learning quickly and easily. Her greatest triumph and pleasure came, however, when she learned to write and was able to send a letter to her parents. It is believed that in time she may be taught to speak. At present she converses by placing her fingers on the lips of those speaking, as shown in the picture above.

Chicago Grain Market.

CHICAGO, ILLS., Aug. 23.—Wheat and corn were strong all through the session today, closing within a fraction of the top, wheat being 3/8% to 1% up, and corn, 1/4% higher. In spite of the strength of wheat and corn, oats dragged much of the time and closed 1/4% off to 1/8% up, while provisions, after advancing sharply, fell away even more acutely and finished from 10 to 20 cents down.
