The Cabinet. We understand Mr. Lincoln is busily engaged in looking up material out of which to compose his Cabinet. This is a matter of no small labor, and occupies all of Mr. Lincoln's time.

Simon Cameron. We are told this distinguished son of Pennsylvania who has always stood by her interests, is about to be rewarded for his life-long devotion to the Keystone by being placed in Mr. Lincoln's Cabinet.

The Democrat, says the Lebanon Courier, are uneasy because the 'good times' which were promised under Lincoln's administration do not come.

CALIFORNIA AND OREGON.—The latest news by pony express states that the election returns for California were nearly all in, and that Lincoln is still from 500 to 800 ahead of Douglas, and all parties concede the State to him.

STATES TO ELECT CONGRESSMEN.—The following States, which have not chosen members of Congress, will do so at their State elections next year, at the dates here given: Alabama, August 5, 1861

Central American Union. The expedition of Walker against the feeble and disunited republic of South America has borne good fruit in the suggestion of an union of their interests.

Reduced by Dyspepsia to a mere skeleton.—CURED by "BORHAVE'S HOLLAND BITTERS."—Mr. A. Matchette, a trader probably as well known as any man in Western Pennsylvania, states as follows: "I met with a farmer in Armstrong county who was reduced by Dyspepsia to a mere skeleton."

PARSON BROWN DEFIES THE SECESSIONISTS.—HE WILL FIGHT ON ANY DAY BY SUNDAY.—W. G. Brownlow, well known as Parson Brownlow and the editor of the Knoxville Whig, a leading Bell and Everett organ of Tennessee, prints the following card in the last issue: "I have been told that some persons belonging to the Breckinridge party have said that I have disappeared from the streets of Knoxville since the election, whether on account of defeat or fear of others, I have not heard suggested. It does not occur to me that my defeat is more overwhelmingly than that of every Breckinridge man in Knoxville."

Oh, Dear! Where's the Cam-fire? The returns from this State come pouring along like buck-wheat from the tail-end of a fanning mill, and just about as comfortable to read as that triangular grain is to sit on!

South Carolina. Gov. Gist of South Carolina, sent in his message to the Legislature, on the 27th. It chiefly relates to the local affairs of the State. He advises, in view of the proposed secession, efforts for a direct trade to Europe.

Persecution in Spain. News has been received in Scotland, of an outbreak of religious persecution, against the Spanish Protestants in Granada. The Spanish Evangelical Society of Scotland, to whom this intelligence has come, has remitted such sums of money as were at its command, for the relief of the sufferers; and calls for special contributions for this purpose.

Railroad Accident. A Passenger Car thrown into the Lehigh River. THE CONDUCTOR AND FOUR LADY PASSENGERS DROWNED. MAUCH CHUNK, Nov. 29. The Beaver Meadow Passenger train, which left here at 11.15, this morning was thrown from the track at Bear Creek Dam by the breaking of a rail, and the passenger car containing some 28 persons, was precipitated into the Lehigh River a distance of about fifteen feet.

Secession as affecting the Seceding States. South Carolina says she will go out of the Union, and for the following reasons: First: The existence, in certain Free States, of laws tending to obstruct the execution of the Fugitive Slave Law, and rendering it difficult or impossible for her to recover her slaves escaping into such States.

Burning of the Pacific. A Thousand Animals Burned Alive. We have announced the burning of the Pacific, at Uniontown, Kentucky, one of the best steamers on the western waters. She had a very large quantity of live stock on board, and the burning of these poor creatures must have been a sickening sight.

IMPORTANT. AFTER suffering severely for three years with tooth ache, neuralgia, sick-head, ache, and a slight disturbance of the healthy functions of the body, without manifest disease, finally became alarmed at my condition, and called on Dr. White, Dentist, at Bardsburg, he extracted all my offending teeth and inserted a set of artificial teeth that gives perfect satisfaction, and I am again restored to perfect health, comfort and happiness, and would not part with my artificial teeth under any consideration. CHAS. ECKENROTII.

An American Fights a Duel in Italy. The last correspondence from Florence, Italy, mentions a duel which has taken place in the island of Corsica between the Marquis Niccolini and Mr. Wilson, a New Yorker, in their former military careers, when Mr. Wilson had made himself justly odious to the Italians, by the avowal of his sympathies for the Austrians during the campaign of Lombardy.

MISCELLANEOUS. THE AMALGAMATION OF LANGUAGES.—There is a growing tendency in the age to appropriate the most expressive words of other languages, and after a while to incorporate them into our own; thus the word Cephalic, which is from the Greek, signifying "for the head," is now becoming popular in the medical circles as a synonyme for Headache remedy, but it will soon be used in a more general way, and the word Cephalic will become as common as Electricity and many others whose etymology is of a foreign origin, and has been worn away by common usage until they seem "native and to the marrow bone."

DRUGS.—MISSUS wants you to send her a box of Cephalic Pills, no, a bottle of Prepared Pills, but she's thinking that's not just it matter; but perhaps you'll be able to find out what it is. Yes, she's a high head and gone with the Sick Headache, and wants more of that same as she's relieved her before. Druggist.—You must mean Spalding's Cephalic Pills. Cephalic—Oh! sure now you've said it, here's the quarter and give me the Pills and she'll be all day about it either.

FACTS WORTH KNOWING.—Spalding's Cephalic Pills are a certain cure for Sick Headache, Cephalic Headache, Nervous Headache, Costiveness and General Debility. Twenty Millions of Dollars saved.—Mr. Spalding has sold two millions of bottles of his celebrated Prepared Pills, and at the same time sold more than a million dollars worth of broken furniture, thus making an aggregate of twenty millions of dollars realized from total ruin, and the loss of a household, and the ruin of a household, he has now proposed to do the world still greater service by curing all the aching heads with his Cephalic Pills, and if they are as good as his other Remedies will soon rank away like snow in July.

CEPHALIC PILLS CURE Sick Headache CURE Nervous Headache All kinds of Headache. By the use of the Pills the periodic attacks of Nervous or Sick Headache may be prevented; and if taken at the commencement of an attack immediate relief from pain and sickness will be obtained. They seldom fail in removing the Nausea and Headache to which female are so subject. They act gently upon the bowels, removing Costiveness. They liberate Men, Students, Delicate Females, and all persons of sedentary habits, they are valuable as a Laxative, improving the appetite, giving tone and vigor to the digestive organs, and restoring the natural elasticity and strength of the whole system. The CEPHALIC PILLS are the result of long investigation and carefully conducted experiments. Boys and children should be given them when they have prevented and relieved a vast amount of pain and suffering from Headache, whether originating in the nervous system or from a deranged state of the bowels. They are entirely vegetable in their composition, and may be taken at all times with perfect safety without making any change of diet, and the absence of any dangerous cathartic renders it easy to administer them to children. BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS! The genuine have five signatures of Henry C. Spalding, a Circular Box. Sold by Druggists and all other Dealers in Medicines. A box will be sent by mail prepaid on receipt of the PRICE 25 CENTS. All orders should be addressed to HENRY C. SPALDING, 44 Cedar Street, New-York. Nov. 29, 1860.—47.
