THE KNICKERBOCKER MAGAZINE.
EDITED BY LEWIS GAYLORD CLARKE.

This is pronounced, by the press of America and England, "the best Magazine in America." It has now completed its thirty-fourth volume, and in its list of upward of a hundred contributors, are found the names of every distinguished writer, male and female, in America, with several equally prominent of Great Britain, Turkey, Sweden, etc. A new volume will commence with the first day of January, 1850.— The following notices of the KNICKER-BOCKER are from the American and English press, to which might be added hundreds of others.
"The last Knickerbocker is exceedingly good. Some of the articles are worthy of Blackwood's palmist days. The Editor's table is in Mr. Clark's happiest vein; varied and taut in a remarkable degree."—N. Y. Commercial Adv.
"The Knickerbocker seems to increase in attraction as it advances in age. It exhibits a monthly variety of contributions unsurpassed in number or ability."—Nat. Intelligencer.
"The Knickerbocker is one of the most valuable Magazines of the day, and outstrips all competition in the higher walks of literature." Albany Argus.
"The Knickerbocker Magazine is now beyond a question the magazine of the country.
Whoever wishes his money's worth, and something over, let him subscribe now to 'Old Knick,' and our word for it, the Editor's Table alone will amply satisfy his expectations. It is not a periodical to be lightly glanced over and thrown by, but it forms a library book to save and re-read. A set of the Knickerbocker, bound up in volumes, on the shelves of one of our popular libraries, is more consulted (so the librarian has often told us) than any other similar work."—Boston Daily Transcript.
"THE LONDON EXAMINER.—This very clever Magazine is the pleasantest periodical in the United States. Its articles, which are numerous and short, various and interesting, are well worthy of imitation by our Magazines on this side of the Atlantic." LONDON 'MORNING CHRONICLE'—Judging from the numbers before us, we are inclined to consider this the best of all the American literary periodicals. Its contents are highly interesting, instructive and amusing."

Reduction in price to Clubs.
The publisher has determined to do every thing in his power to bring the Knickerböcker within the means of all, and invites the attention of those who feel an interest in circulating the best American literature, to the following terms to clubs, viz:
For 5 copies to one address, $20 00
" 10 " " " 35 00
" 20 " " " 60 00

Post Masters throughout the United States are invited and requested to act as agents. To all those who may interest themselves in getting up clubs, we will send a copy free so long as they keep up, and remit regularly the yearly payment.
To the Subscribers and all interested in our Work.

The publisher desires to avail himself of this opportunity to thank those who have manifested their unabated interest in the Knickerbocker, by sending subscribers. Quite a number have done so, and no doubt with a very slight effort on the part of some friends, our list might be doubled. As a further inducement for this effort on the part of our patrons, we wish to say, that no pains or expense will be spared to enhance the value of the work, and our pages will prove that our readers will receive at least as large a share of benefit from our increased means as we could expect ourselves.

Enterprising, active agents are wanted in every town and city in the United States, to procure subscribers for Book of the Nation.

THE OLDEST MAGAZINE IN AMERICA.
Published by the present Proprietors for Twenty Years.
EDITED BY MRS. SARAH J. HALE.
Compared with "Godey's" and the other Philadelphia Monthly.
In 1829 the Lady's Book gave 916 pages—which is 125 more than one, and 125 pages more than the other Philadelphia monthly.
It gave 234 engravings—among which were 20 colored, and 93 full page—which is 125 more than one, and 125 more than the other.
We have, in each number, a piece of music, printed separately on tinted paper, making 24 pages, of 12 pieces in a year. To show the cheapness of the Lady's Book, this same music, if bought separately at the music stores, would cost exactly the price of the whole year's subscription—$5.

Some of our peculiar Embellishments: Ladies' Work Table—which comprises every kind of Needlework, Embroidery, Knitting, Netting, Crochet, Patterns for Caps, Chemises, Children's clothes, Wedding Dresses, In-door and Out-door costumes; Birds of America; Colored Flower Prints; Model Cottages and Furniture; Fashionable do; Lace-Work; Vignette Plates at the head of articles, etc. etc. All the above are illustrated by engravings.
The Costumes of all Nations.
With descriptions by Mrs. Hale. Most of the old features of this Book that were so popular last year, will be retained, and new ones added as they may suggest themselves to the publisher.
A New Novel, by W. Gilmore Simms, will be one of the features for 1850.

OUR READING MATTER.
We have long stood at the head of the magazine world for our contributions; they are always moral and instructive, and such as may be placed before a family without hesitation. This department is under the control of Mrs. SARAH JOSEPH HALE, whose name alone is a sufficient guarantee for the propriety of the Lady's Book. We may say the same of our engravings. We will never, as is done by a cotemporary, publish indecent model-artist pictures, such as no parent would allow a child to look at.
Godey's Lady's Book for 1850 shall surpass that of 1849, and exceed all magazines—past, present and to come.

Terms, Cash in advance, postage paid.
Magnificent and Expensive Premiums.
Subscribers to a Club, or single Subscribers, may choose different Engravings.
One copy 1 year $3, with any two of the following splendid premium plates: "Death-Bed of the Rev. John Wesley," "Wesley Preaching in the Gwapan Amphitheatre," "America Guided by Wisdom," "General Taylor and Old Whitey," "Likeness of the Rev. John Wesley," "Do. of his co-laborer, the Rev. John Fletcher"—the last two, though separate engravings, we count only as one premium.
Two copies for $5, and any two of the above prints to each subscriber.
Five copies for $10, and an extra copy of the Book, and any two of the above engravings to the person sending the club.
Eleven copies for $20, and an extra copy of the Book, and any three of the above engravings to the person sending the club.
Any person sending $5 in advance, subscription for 1850 and '51, will be entitled to any four of the above engravings.

More and most Liberal Offers.
For $20 in advance, ten copies of the Lady's Book will be sent, and a copy of either of the above magnificent prints sent to each subscriber, and an extra copy of the "Book" and an engraving to the person sending the club.
They can, in all cases, select which they prefer.
For $30, we will send ten copies of the Book, and thirty copies of any of the above engravings.
Single number of the Lady's Book, 25 cents.
The above are large-sized parlor prints.— The "Death-Bed of Wesley" contains many portraits; "Wesley Preaching in the Amphitheatre" contains hundreds of figures, and cost $1500 to engrave it. "America Guided by Wisdom," is a very large line engraving, and cost $1800 to engrave. "General Taylor and Old Whitey," is one of the largest of the General Taylor prints, and is engraved from an original painting, at a cost of $1000. The heads of Wesley and Fletcher are of a good size for framing.
These Plates cannot be purchased at the Stores at less than $3 each.

ANOTHER OFFER TO CLUBS.
Should any of the club subscribers prefer to have a copy of the following beautiful and appropriate engravings, "Christ's Rebuke," "Christ Weeping over Jerusalem," "The Two Marys at the Sepulchre," and "The Difference of St. Peter," in place of any of the offers made above, they can have them.
Premiums are only sent when the Subscriptions are remitted direct to the Publisher.
The Lady's Book for 1850 will contain several hundred good engravings.

Postmasters and others sending clubs, will oblige us very much by having them all addressed to one name. It is no inconvenience to them, and will be a great favor to us.
Premiums to the Towns sending the largest number of Subscribers.
The town sending us the largest number of mail subscribers for 1850, will be entitled to the Lady's Book for 1851 gratis; and the next in number, each subscriber shall receive any of the above prints.
