WEBSTER'S DICTIONARY. LATEST and most complete edition. Price reduced. In two large octavo volumes, in full leather binding, for twelve dollars; being the most full and comprehensive edition issued, and containing much more matter than the original edition, which was issued (unbound) for twenty-five dollars.

From Chancellor Kent's Eulogy on the author. "The American Dictionary of the English Language, is a work of profound investigation, and does infinite honor to the philological learning and general literature of this country. Happy the man who can thus honorably identify his name with the existence of our venacular tongue."

The Publishers of the foregoing work respectfully announce that they have made arrangements with Mr. F. Taylor, Bookbinder, of Washington city, to furnish the American Dictionary, in two large volumes, at the very reduced price of twelve dollars.

It is to be understood that for this price the best paper and type, and the best binding, will be supplied—the best copies, that is to say, in all respects.

The work is now therefore in a finished and complete state, it is not to be supposed that any thing more can or will be added to it, the present edition defining and illustrating twenty thousand more words than the edition which, when first issued from the hands of Dr. Webster, was acknowledged by the English philologists to be the best dictionary in the world.
