The Aloha barge of the Myrtles will probably take a pull to Waikiki next Sunday.

The name of Cornwell's sorrel mare is Minnie ola, not Miowers as insinuated in this paper

Knights Templar and school teachers will crowd the steamer Australia on her return trip.

Mrs. W. M. Giffard returned after a prolonged stay at the coast, looking in the pink of health.

Mr. Colby, who arrived with wife and daughters yesterday, is a college professor on the Coast.

Judge Cooper was slightly improved yesterday, and held down the bench with the fortitude of a Stoic.

Forty bags of mail were landed from the Mariposa, which is not bad for five days since last steamer.

One Chinaman was arrested for stealing a quilt, and four Chinese were arrested for vagrancy, yesterday.

Purser Thos. C. Smith of the Mariposa has the cordial thanks of this paper for courtesies received.

The regular meeting of the F. and E. O. K. P. has been postponed to the 11th and will take place after the races.

The Weinbergs of Aldershot, Queensland, who are in the Hotel list, are through passengers by the Mariposa.

Besides vessels leaving today, in our shipping notes on first page, the steamer Keavhou sails for Kauai at 4 p. m.

Last night's band concert at the hotel was largely attended, and passed off merrily in the brilliancy of colored electric lights.

F. J. Kruger, practical watchmaker, Corner of Fort and Merchant streets. Repairing watches a specialty. The celebrated Wiener Regulators. Just the thing for an appropriate present to your friends.

Mrs. Eleanor Graham nee Coney returned in the Mariposa after a visit to the coast. Mrs. Graham brought her son with her.

Mr. Harvey, a young through passenger by the Mariposa, had to leave the steamer here and go to the Queen's Hospital for treatment.

If you are tired of the hot and dusty town, there is no better place for rest and recuperation than at Hanauiwa Baths. Smooth bathing beach and fine surf. Waikiki cars pass the door.

If you come in from a hunting expedition, over the pali, tired and hungry, after midnight, you get good eating at Yee Chong Co.'s restaurant on Hotel street.

Testa has an excellent piano for sale. Experts here pronounce it one of the best instruments in town—and will prove it to anybody desiring to buy a piano.

Miss A. Cahill, Arlington Block, Hotel street has received by the "Mariposa" an invoice of the "Knox" Sailor Hat, the latest fashion in hats. The style is very becoming and just the thing for the races.

C. W. Ashford is ready with his filibustering expedition and he now asks for information in regard to the movements of the Lehua. Who can give it?

Captain Thomas of the U. S. S. Bennington, accompanied by Captain Cotton of the U. S. S. Philadelphia, called on Minister Hatch at the Foreign Office yesterday.

A letter has been received from Capt. E. W. Langley, formerly of the customs and police here, dated Hongkong, April 30. He was fairly well after a severe attack of rheumatism. There is no sequah in Hongkong.

Tomorrow's game of baseball will be between the Unknown and Kamehameha teams. The former will be somewhat known after the ninth inning if it does not play decent ball.

Mr. Gassman, who arrived by the Mariposa, is father of Josie Gassman, the popular young danseuse who was here with the Dailey company in its first season. Mrs. Gassman is her step-mother.

Well, well, well! That's what Thompson will be yelling tomorrow to scare the Kamehamehas, but every lady in the land will be saying, "My goodness, aren't those splendid bargains at Jack Egan's special sale today?"

J. Mort Oat, Postmaster General, returned yesterday with Mrs. Oat from a brief visit to California. The genial and hardworking postal chief looks robust enough from the change of climate to wrestle with a grizzly bear.

"290" is the number most frequently called over the telephone wires. It rings up the UNITED CARRIAGE COMPANY's stand, where Superior Buggies with safe and courteous drivers, are always to be found. A complete livery outfit, including buggies and wagoettes, furnished at the shortest notice.

In consequence of the death of Secretary Gresham, the reception which was to have been given on board the U. S. F. S. Philadelphia, by Captain and Mrs. Cotton on Monday evening, June 10, is indefinitely postponed.

Miss Wright was thrown out of her buggy last Wednesday evening on the Waikiki bridge. The carriages and cars coming from Makee Island crowded the narrow road and the young lady's buggy unavoidably collided with a car. She escaped unhurt.

A French waiter of the S. S. Mariposa was found in the house of Halemano Meek, mauka side of Merchant at Alakea street, at 1 o'clock this morning. He didn't know the steamship had sailed, therefore took quarters in Hitchcock's fore-castle.

Mrs. Thos. C. Smith, wife of the genial purser of the Mariposa, arrived by that steamer for a short stay in the islands. She will visit Judge Austin's family in Hilo by the first steamer, and on returning will stay in Honolulu until the return of the Mariposa.

Mrs. Higgins, who was the relic of the late Justice McCully of the Supreme Court, arrived by the Mariposa after a long absence in America and Europe. It was in this absence that she married. She is accompanied by her adopted daughter, Miss Alice McCully, and both are looking well.

The steamer Mariposa pursued her voyage to the Colonies at 4:15 yesterday afternoon. A select programme, including sentimental and different national airs, was played by the band on the Oceanic wharf. The passengers gave three cheers as the steamer was swinging out.

The Hawaiian National Band was not getting such large houses in San Francisco latterly as at the beginning of its engagements. On the Sunday after the Mariposa sailed it was to play at Sato's baths, the auditorium of which holds ten thousand people. The band is engaged to play at Los Angeles.

A Jubilee.

The concert to-night is No. 200 given at Thomas Square. Prof. Berger has stood there through rain, moon and fog, and made the boys blow the pleasant notes. Sometimes the beautiful square has been filled, and at other times only trees and benches listened to the sweet music. In spite of all the concerts went on and to-night Berger wields the baton for the 200th time. Aloha Professor!

Race Track Notes.

The entries for the 11th of June races closed yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the office of secretary S. G. Wilder. The entries will appear in full in the program which as usual will be issued the day before the races. An evening paper attempts to publish a programme which is, to say the least, insane.

A meeting of the executive committee will be held tonight to discuss the feasibility of allowing the one mile dash race (No. 9) to go on, although only two entries have been made. Billy C. and Magnate have been entered, but according to rules, three horses should be entered before a start can take place. There is no doubt that the committee will suspend the rules to prevent a most interesting event from being dropped from the programme.

As other papers seem to be doubtful in regard to the ownership of the horses now entered a list of them is here published.

W. H. Cornwell: Minnieola, Billy C. and Lord Brock.
Ballentyne: Amario and Silky.

Mokuleia Ranch: Autonomy, Antidote and Stanford.

Halstead: Kahuku Boy, Trilby and Magnate.

Club Stables, Creole, Bert Lee, Mendosa, Duke Spencer.

C. W. Macfarlane, Fred Mac, Humbert, Billy Button.

J. A. Cummins, Elean, J. Tinker, Mascot.

S. G. Wilder, Little Johnny, Jim Carty, Unknown.

R. Dexter, Daylight.

H. Focke, McGinty.

Closing Concert By The Seminary Girls.

The schoolroom of the Kawai- aho Seminary was crowded last evening with friends and well-wishers of the popular and useful institution on the occasion of the closing entertainment given by the pupils. There was not standing room to be had within the range of sight to the platform, where the participants rendered their parts, and consequently this report could not be given in details, as our reporter arrived on the scene when every available seat and post of observation was occupied. However, every piece on the program must have been well rendered, as was evidenced by the applause that succeeded each rendition. The cantata, "Father Time," occupied nearly an hour in execution, the different costumes worn by the girls being very pretty and striking in contrast.

The schoolroom on this occasion was lacking in profuse floral decorations; the only place adorned, (as could be seen from behind heads and shoulders of visitors who were compelled to stand at the entrance), was a small space on the wall behind the platform. Flags and ferns were here discernible, the word "aloha" in woven evergreens being prominent. Through the courtesy of the lady principal and assistants, this paper is enabled to give the program as rendered:

Hawaiian Hotel, June 6—Mrs. G McCully Higgins, Alice L McCully, W Irving Colby and wife, Misses Colby (2), Oakland, Cal., Mrs. M B Lothrop, Honolulu; Mrs. C F Mullins, Miss Maud Mullins, Mrs. C S Moses, Mr and Mrs. J F Gassman, Miss Emma L Kreling, Mrs. Thos. C Smith, San Francisco; C C Robertson, J. E Gouan, Sacramento, Cal., Mr. and Mrs. E A Weinberg, Aldershot, Queensland.
Arlington House—F W McClesney and wife, E E Rosecrans and wife, Boston, Mass., T B Deane, Los Angeles, Cal., Chas. B Wells, New York City.

An Old Friend.

Chas. B. Wells, who arrived by the Mariposa and is staying at the Arlington, was in Honolulu as an actor in the old Metropolitan theatre, that was situated at the corner of Hotel and Alakea streets, where the Masonic Temple now stands. Mr. Wells was also the head of the company that opened the Hawaiian Opera House, lately burned down. He was called upon yesterday by many acquaintances of those days, including Mr. Robert Lewers, Mrs. McWayne, some of the Wilders, Henry Williams and others. Mr. Wells will go to Kona, Hawaii, to see his old friend Dr. McWayne, an old time theatrical manager in Honolulu.

More Toads.

Commissioner Jos. Marsden received for the Agricultural Bureau by the Mariposa a colony of horned toads. Two hundred of them reached here alive and hearty. They came from San Diego and are imported to gobble up noxious insects. It is hoped they will mitigate the ravages and reduce the numbers of the adoretus umbrosus, or, in plain English, the Japanese bug.

Red Men.

There is to be a meeting at the K. of P. Hall on Fort street this evening, to take steps for reviving the Order of Red Men which once flourished here. The late King Kalakaua was a patron of the society and held the office of Sachem for these islands. It is desired that all members in the city attend this meeting.

Tourists.

JUNE 5th, 1895.

It is the object of all good citizens to draw as many tourists to the country as possible. The people who travel for pleasure are, as a rule, well supplied with money, and wherever they go they leave money behind. All classes benefit the more money is set in circulation. But to get tourists here, it is necessary to hold out inducements to them. They must know that they can get first class accommodation, and that they will find a first class table. A good table can be set in every hotel, boarding house and private house if those in charge know what and where to buy. I can recommend choice block butter which I receive by every Australia. It is of an excellent and uniform quality from one creamery. Fresh island butter I get by every W.G. Hall. I can also recommend superior family hams, and I always keep a full assortment of everything in the grocery line. My prices are as low as the lowest, and island orders are promptly attended to.
