COURT RECORD.

Very Interesting Items from the Clerk's Office.

SEVERAL NEW LAWYERS.

Judge Whiting has approved the accounts of W. F. Allen, assignee of F. H. Redward, bankrupt, and ordered his discharge upon filing receipts. A first dividend of 15 per cent. and a second one of 10 per cent were paid.

George E. Boardman, assignee of Tai Wo Chan Co., in bankruptcy, has also had his accounts approved and himself discharged. He received $1123.40, and after paying rent, law expenses, advertising, etc., had $528.23 for distribution among creditors. Parks for petitioner.

Attorney-General Smith has filed a plea to the jurisdiction in the suit of Pablo Artime against the Hawaiian Government for $500, being the amount of a reward offered by Charles B. Wilson, Marshal of the Kingdom, for information that would lead to the conviction of the person who murdered a Chinaman on the barkentine W. H. Dimond and threw his body into the harbor.

The murderer was arrested in San Francisco and the United States authorities refused to extradite him, on the ground that the crime was committed within that country's jurisdiction, viz., on board an American vessel.

Robert Waialeale, who was formerly on the police force, and G. B. Keawehaku have been admitted to the practice of law in the inferior courts of the republic.

F. A. Schaefer, administrator of the estate of C. P. von Mengersen, late of Hamakua, has had his accounts approved and himself discharged by Judge Whiting. There was $4651.95 balance for the widow.

Annie E. Spencer, executrix of the will of her husband, the late Charles N. Spencer, has had her accounts approved and been granted her discharge. The balance on hand is $11,183.50.

Argument on demurrer was heard by Judge Whiting yesterday in Edna G. Trouseau vs. B. Cartwright and H. E. McIntyre, executors of the estate of the late Dr. Trouseau. Hartwell for plaintiff; Hatch and Dickey for defendants.

Rep. Geo. P. Kamaooha has filed an application to practice law in all the courts. He is now a practitioner in the inferior courts.

Sidney Miller Ballou's application for license to practice law in all the courts has been favorably considered by the Supreme Court Justices, and the license will be issued today. He is a native of Providence, R. I., and a graduate of Harvard college and law school with the degree of A. B.
