THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 4, 1878. - Ague Cure, at McCreery's. - Bath wagons are in demand.

- Go to Willings' for your fruit cake. - All the best brands of flour at Jones'.

- Our County Fair will open Wednesday 15th inst. - Hawley & Douglas pay the highest price for all kinds of grain.

- If your horse is sick, Josh Rogers can cure him, if he can be cured. - Go to Willings' for all kinds of tinware, at the old Decker building.

- Read the new advertisements, and you may learn something of advantage to you. - Bath and Nebraska Wagons. STEVENSON & CROSS.

- Nice lot of shawl straps—splendid or school children to carry books with—15 cents each, at Huddart's. - The Democratic Mail is the name of a new paper just started at Rockport, Missouri, by Briggs, Kelso & Co.

- Pictures and Brackets—cheap. STEVENSON & CROSS. - The railroad bridge is finished across the washout near the depot, and now the road may drive along down to Nemaha without hindrance.

- Nebraska City News: Nemaha county being one of the most productive counties of the State, the fair will be a good one, and a great many of our Otoe county farmers will be in attendance. - The Chicago Lumber Co. are receiving at their Yard cor. Main and Levee streets an immense stock of all kinds of Lumber which they propose sell less than any one in Nebraska. Bring on your bids and prices from any where and save money.

- Everybody get ready for the Fair, and let Nemaha have a creditable one this year. None of us want visitors to go away saying "Nemaha's fair was a failure. No county in the State could have a better fair if everybody would take hold and help, and exhibit the product of their fields, their garden, their stock, etc.

- Lookport Journal: Clear the track.—A letter from Harvey Shires, proprietor of the Villisca House, Villisca, Iowa, dated August 28, says: "The surveying party sent out by the C. B. & Q. people to make the survey of the Clarinda Branch road from Clarinda to the Nemaha river, left my house on Monday night for the field of operations. The surveying party is headed by Charles W. Tracy. The railroad company intend to go to work on the road this fall.

- We have said enough, and the people know enough, by experience and otherwise, for them to be well on their guard against the devilment of traps. Here is another outrage, reported by the Seward Reporter, occurring at the west end of our railroad: On last Saturday evening Thomas Skillman, who resides near Lincoln creek a few miles west of this city, took in a trap and gave him supper and lodging. Very early on Sunday morning, Mr. Trap came early and made preparations to depart. Before leaving, he paid Mr. Skillman 25 cts.; but shortly after his departure Mr. S. discovered that $35.00 and some small change had disappeared with the trap. On spreading the news several men went in search of the thief. Near Milford he was discovered wandering along the road, but on seeing that he was pursued, he ran into a cornfield and escaped.

- Policeman Love, this city, one day last week received the following, printed on a postal card: FOUND MURDERED!—On Friday, August 23rd, 1878, near Caboka, Clark county, Missouri, a man of medium size, 35 or 40 years old; considerably bald; dark hair; weight about 150 lbs.; light side whiskers; false teeth in upper jaw, eye teeth on left side gone out of false teeth; dark gray pants, white drawers. He is supposed to be an emigrant. Suspicion rests upon an emigrant—a man going to Kansas or Nebraska, about 30 years old, average size, auburn hair, and mustache, heavy set; considerable of a talker; driving two good mules, off one a light bay or sorrel, near one a dark brown, leather flynets on mules, with a two-horse wagon with cover on and a cultivator on top tied on side of bed, said to have fallen in wagon with a two-horse wagon heavy built with cover on common sheeting; had a double-barrel shotgun and revolver; said that a young man started with him but left him on the road and went around by Jackson, Mo. to see his girl and was to meet him at Elvoston, Ill., on Wednesday, Aug. 21st, but failed to come. It is supposed that he murdered his partner.
