

MERMOD & JACCARD'S FINE WEDDING SILVERWARE.

"The World's Grandest Jewelry Establishment." On BROADWAY, Cor. Locust St.

ARE YOU INVITED TO A WEDDING?

In variety of patterns and beauty of designs our wonderful collection of WEDDING SILVERWARE.....

Is without a peer in America. We have everything desirable, from a Teaspoon to a complete bridal outfit.

New and exclusive designs in Sterling Silverware for the spring and summer weddings of 1906 from which you can select exquisite wedding gifts ranging in price from..... $2.50 to $5,000

A SUGGESTION: Solid Silver Ice Cream Forks, one dozen in handsome case, for only..... $19.00

LOWEST PRICED HOUSE IN AMERICA FOR FINE GOODS. BROADWAY CORNER LOCUST ST.

Write for Catalogue—3,000 Engrs.—Mailed Free.

PURE WHISKEY OF SPIRITUALISM. DIRECT DISTILLER TO CONSUMER. $3.20 FOUR FULL QTS. HAYNER DISTILLING CO.

X 23 Years' X EXPERIENCE IN FIRE INSURANCE BUSINESS. HALL & CARROLL, ST. LOUIS, MO.

MONEY TO LOAN. The highest amount loaned on watches, diamonds, jewelry and all rates of interest. S. VAN RAALTE & CO.

SCARS, PILES, NOTARY PUBLIC. SCHWENKER'S PENNSYLVANIA IRON. THE highest amount loaned on watches, diamonds, jewelry and all rates of interest.

NOTARY PUBLIC. CITY ITEMS. THE new spring of the new century has put a good strong boom on the opening business of the season at Crawford's.

WANTED IN KANSAS. George Hufface Charged With Selling Mortgaged Cattle. REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

ORDERED TO STOP DANCING. Cheyenne and Arapahoe Indians Refuse to Obey. REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

SCHOOL FUNDS LOST. Suit to Recover $15,000 From Defunct Sedalia Bank Filed. REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

BUSCH GLASS WORKS FIRE. Damages Estimated at $75,000—New Plant Purchased. The destruction by fire of the St. Louis plant of the Adolphus Busch Glass Works.

WAR ON LANGTRY. Ministers Hope to Bar Her From Toledo, O. REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

RESIGNED HIS PULPIT. Reverend S. A. McKay Will Take Charge of Shurtleff College. REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

PLAGUE HAS RUN ITS COURSE. No New Cases Have Developed for Over a Week at Honolulu. Honolulu, March 21, (Special Cablegram).

FIFTY-TWO YEARS OF SPIRITUALISM.

Anniversary of the Order's Founding Is Celebrated by the St. Louis Association.

DECORATIONS OF OCCULT ART.

Address by T. Grimshaw on the History and Nature of the Doctrines—Exercises by Children.

The First Spiritual Association celebrated the fifty-second anniversary of modern Spiritualism yesterday at Howard's Hall. The anniversary exercises consisted of addresses on Spiritualism by prominent members in St. Louis, songs and recitations by children and exhibitions of spirit paintings.

The exercises opened with an address by T. Grimshaw, the regular speaker of the association. He devoted his attention entirely to the history of Spiritualism. He said: "The spiritualist faith was established in 1854. A little girl named Katy Fox, living in Hydeville, N. Y., was the first recognized medium. A party had gathered at the home of her parents. While they were there a constant knocking was heard at the door. Investigation disclosed that it came from no human agency, and those who heard it were perplexed."

"Finally the little girl spoke and said she had seen a strikingly beautiful man. He seated the speaker's name and his career. Every one knew that the man was dead and all were startled. Following the direction of the speaker, the children were disclosed which had been before them shrouded in mystery."

"By this incident spiritualism was established and the faith in communication between the spiritual and material world was born. It seems when God desires to impress the world with a great truth, he does so through the medium of children. What the infant Jesus in the manger at Bethlehem is to orthodox Christianity, Katy Fox is to Spiritualism. The lovely 'Ninny' came to teach us that there is a future life and Katy Fox came to teach us that there can be communication between the spirit in exile and the spirit that has passed out after the body's dissolution."

The exercises by the children were very creditable. They consisted of singing, recitations and calisthenic exhibitions, and the exercises in which all acquitted themselves demonstrated that they had been thoroughly trained. The children who took part were Annie Hudson, Mamie Heshop, George Hudson, Miss Lewis, Mabel Wright, Francis Reynolds, Olga Post, Melvin Roberts, Leah Watts, Olga Schmidt, Edward Roberts, May Lewis, Arthur Grimshaw, Royce Beckman, Ida Roberts, Harry Fessenden, Clara Price, Daisy Keuthner, and Clara Price. During the evening session addresses were given by Mrs. Sara W. Wells, president of the association, and by Mrs. Sara W. Wells, Mrs. David Fox, former president. Besides these addresses, the children were given "Experiences in Spiritualism" and "The First National Bank here. Hufface expresses a willingness to return to Kansas without a requirement of a bond. Hufface is working for his brother Thomas, who had an interest with other parties in a herd of cattle that pertained to his brother and being unable to make a settlement, his brother sold enough of the cattle to satisfy the claim. Taylor Hufface, father of George and Thomas Hufface, lives in this county, and is a farmer in good circumstances and of good reputation."

Best of All. To cleanse the system in a gentle and truly beneficial manner, when the Springtime comes, in which all ailments remedy, Scrub of Pils, Buy the genuine. Made by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, and available at all druggists at 20 cents per bottle.

WAR ON LANGTRY. Ministers Hope to Bar Her From Toledo, O. Toledo, O., April 1.—If the plans of the Pastors' Union of this city are carried out, Lily Langtry will not be permitted to play "The Degenerates" Wednesday. They will go to Mayor Jones Monday and demand that he refuse to allow the play to be put on at the Valentine Theater. Mayor Jones has stated in a public interview that he will do nothing proper in the matter, and it is reasonably certain that he will permit the production of the piece. The newspapers have adopted a policy of not giving Mrs. Langtry any notice, and they will probably support the Mayor if he decides to close the theater.

Don't Neglect Your Eyes. You can have them examined free of charge by Doctor Bond, expert optician at Mermod & Jaccard's, Broadway and Locust, and eye specialist at 1000 Broadway and Locust. Leather and Pearl Opera Glasses, $2.50 to $5.

MASKED MEN ROB A BREWERY OFFICE.

Three Burglars at Belleville Imprisoned for Stealing Four Star Company Officials.

SHOOT AT HUBERT HARTMANN. Locking the Employees in a Beer Car, They Blew Up the Safe, and Obtained Little Money.

This gave the crackmen undisputed possession of the plant. After drilling the safe, they applied charges, and the outer and inner doors were blown completely open. As Saturday was pay day, they secured a comparatively small sum. The cash on hand had been paid out early in the evening. It is not known just how much they secured, but the amount is thought to be about $100, besides some jewelry and valuable papers, which were in the safe.

After searching the premises for other valuables, the burglars made their escape, leaving a note by way of the Air Line tracks. The confined and handcuffed men remained in the refrigerator car until 4 o'clock, when they were discovered by city delivery drivers and released. An alarm was immediately given and the police notified. Up to last night, however, the criminals had not been apprehended.

The robbery was committed shortly before 12 o'clock, when a delivery man approached Watchman Endres and placed him under cover of their revolvers. Fireman Fritz Conrad also was caught, after which both were escorted to the refrigerator car. Before fastening them up in the car the party of three went through their pockets and secured their work's salary, which had been paid out to them a few hours earlier. While the watchman and fireman were being placed in the car, Hubert Hartmann, whose father, Bernard Hartmann, owns the contracting interest in the brewery, entered the office in company with his brother, Hans Hartmann. They sat down in the room to await the return of Watchman Endres, whom they supposed would bring the money for them. Meanwhile, the three men, having fastened the car doors on the watchman and fireman, walked through the railroad yards and again on the roof of the building to the refrigerator car. At 12 o'clock, when the delivery men approached, the party again produced revolvers and ordered the Messrs. Hartmann to throw up their hands. Hubert Hartmann, thinking that the delivery men were a trick being played upon him, laughingly told them that he couldn't be caught that way.

This angered one member of the party, and without waiting for instructions from the leader, who was described as a heavy, stocky, middle-aged man, he discharged his weapon at the watchman and fireman, almost against his head, and he was warned to move at his peril. At this juncture the leader rebuked the assistant, who discharged his weapon, cautioning him not to lose his presence of mind again. The three men ordered their two prisoners to get out of the car, and the motor car, and upon arriving there, unfastened a side door and shoved the Hartmann boys inside. The door was again fastened, and the party went on their way. Here the crackmen deliberately proceeded to apply gas to a lit fuse, which is six or eight inches long. Explosives were afterwards inserted and the door was blown open. The money and jewelry in the safe, all papers were taken. The criminals then walked out of the building, and the party returned to the car. About 4 o'clock the city delivery men reported for work, and upon finding no one about the door, they began to investigate. They found the door unfastened, and upon entering discovered the robbery. A few minutes after the delivery men returned from the refrigerator car with the imprisoned party. The situation was hurriedly explained, and the robbery made public.

An imported porcelain dinner set of beautiful floral patterns of the men who were at Mermod & Jaccard's, Broadway and Locust. Other styles up to $50. Write for catalog and cut glass catalogue—Mailed free.

BUSCH GLASS WORKS FIRE. Damages Estimated at $75,000—New Plant Purchased. The destruction by fire of the St. Louis plant of the Adolphus Busch Glass Works at Third and Barton streets early yesterday morning entailed a loss of $75,000, which is covered by insurance. The plant was completely gutted. It was a story and a half building with a frame interior, which burned to a shell. Six hundred expert glass blowers were employed in the works, which had a daily capacity of 500 gross of beer, soda and mineral water bottles, and the output for the year was sold in advance. In order that the men remain but a short period in idleness, Adolphus Busch, the president of the company, yesterday bought the old field and erected a new brick building at Dorcas street, which will be started within a fortnight.

The cause of the fire is believed to have been defective electric wires. Busch stated last night that he intended to rebuild at once an absolutely fireproof structure of iron, brick and cement on the site of the ruins. The other branches of the Busch glass works are located at Belleville and Sreator in Illinois. Thousands of spectators visited the scene of the first fire yesterday afternoon, as it was the first big fire in South St. Louis has seen for some time. Captain Schroeder of the Second District had the ruins well roped in and there was a special detail of police on duty.

BIG CATCH REPORTED. Steamer Newfoundland Secured Twenty-One Thousand Seals. St. Johns, Newfoundland, April 1.—The sealing steamer Newfoundland arrived this afternoon with 21,000 seals. She reports that the remainder of the fleet are adding daily to the catches already reported. The steamer Island has already landed the several thousand seals are carried on her deck. She left for the fields yesterday and will possibly arrive to-night. The weather continues good and no casualties are reported.

Mrs. Clara Makemer of Chicago. Of the Florence Childrens' Amusement Mission, in a letter written on 292 Chestnut street, Chicago, says she has had five cases of female irregularities and weak nervous common to the sex and have found it most satisfactory. Pe-ru-na is deserving of the confidence and indorsement of all.

AGED BURGLAR IN A SOLDIER.

Thomas Johnson Declares He Served Through the Civil War in Thirtieth Ohio Infantry.

NOW SIXTY-NINE YEARS OLD. Says He Came to America From England as a Sailor Boy—His Wife and Son in Cincinnati—His Statement.

Chief of Detectives Desmond had David Johnson, the old white-haired man arrested in South St. Louis a few nights ago in act of looting a house, brought before him last night and put him through the "awaiting" process. Johnson was averse to talking at first, but after the chief had questioned him a few minutes, he frankly acknowledged that he went into the house as a burglar. He tried to justify himself by saying he was hungry and had no money to buy food.

Johnson will be 69 years old in June and his hair is as white as snow. There are deep creases and wrinkles in his face which bespeak years of worry and trouble. He totters as he walks with a sort of a limp in his left leg, and has a growth of white whiskers on his face, but they do not into the pallor of his skin. There is nothing about him to indicate that he is a burglar. He is a plain looking, feeble old man, whom no one would pick out as a criminal.

Johnson refuses to tell anything of his family history, but he says he was born in England, but refused to give the name of the county, but he says he was a sailor on a position as a sailor on a steamer coming to this country. While on the voyage an accident made his way in the world. From place to place he drifted until he landed in Cincinnati, Ohio, where he was employed. He refuses to state whether his wife is living, but says he has a son who is leading a respectable life, where he never arrested, nor even suspected of a crime before. If he is shamming he is doing good work in the art of the woodworker and carpenter, but during recent years has done no work.

In the 12 o'clock meeting of the Executive Committee of the Brotherhood of Painters of St. Louis held yesterday afternoon at Druids' Hall, point strongly to a strike of the craft, unless the Master Builders' Association accedes to its demands. The Executive Committee of the Brotherhood of Painters is to meet at Light's Hall this morning at 9 o'clock to take up the action on the subject. Yesterday's meeting was called only to observe what the sentiment of the brotherhood was in regard to a compromise that was offered by the Master Painters' Association. At different times in the afternoon more than 1500 men were in the session, and the expressions of the men and women who were in the meeting were unanimously of opinion that all their demands should be acceded to. The session was held behind closed doors and all reporters and outsiders were excluded.

The men ask that the master painters increase their wages from 21 1/2 to 27 1/2 cents an hour, which is the present rate, to 37 1/2 cents an hour, which would increase their wages from $2.50 to $3 a day. As a compromise the Master Painters' Association offered 35 cents an hour, but the brotherhood is not inclined to accept this. What they will do remains to be seen. An officer of the National Brotherhood of Painters is expected to take part in to-day's proceedings. At yesterday's mass meeting the Grievance committee of the local brotherhood and the Executive Committee of the Association. President James Dunsmore was secretary. Speeches were made in endorsing the actions of the brotherhood of painters and urging them to adhere to their policy.

While the meeting was in progress a disturbance arose in the hall. Almost immediately the door was opened and a man or woman, who had been in the room, looked for a short while as if there would be a fight, but finally peace prevailed and he went down the steps, shouting defiance. About six months ago the new scale was presented to the employer's association by the Brotherhood of Painters and April 1 was set as the day when it was to go into effect. The association promised, it is said, to consider the demand and return an answer within a week. The strike has demanded several weeks ago no settlement could be effected. Then followed a series of conferences between the Master Painters' Association and the Executive Committee of the Brotherhood of Painters. A few days ago the only solution that these conferences could offer was the proffer of 35 cents an hour, which is reached, not a stroke of work will be done by the painters in St. Louis, who are demanding a mass meeting to-day to decide a reality there is a possibility that it may also affect the Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners, which is affiliated with the Brotherhood of Painters. The headquarters of the brotherhood are at No. 1622 Locust street.

CARPENTERS AND JOINERS. May Hold a Mass Meeting to Discuss the Scale. The Carpenters and Joiners of America are talking of holding a mass meeting to decide a uniform scale of wages. They recently asked for 45 cents an hour, instead of the 35 cents which they were getting. Most of the master builders made the demand, but a few held out. As the time for advance designated commenced yesterday, all the men working for those builders who have not added by the scale will be by no means general, though. Harry Blackmore is president of the carpenters and joiners, and is secretary of the Carpenters and Joiners Association. Robert Fueley is secretary and business agent. The headquarters of the union is at No. 64 Market street. To-night or to-morrow afternoon the Master Builders will hold a meeting in Turner building to attempt to settle the differences.

SUNK IN A COLLISION. Schooner Abraham Richardson Went Down in Vineyard Sound. Vineyard Haven, Mass., April 1.—The schooner Abraham Richardson of Bangor, Captain Pomeroy, from South Amboy for Rockland, Me., was sunk by collision with the barge Alaska, off East Chop, Vineyard Sound, at 6 o'clock this morning. All hands were saved, but the schooner is a total loss. She had a cargo of 223 tons of coal.

When Travelling. Take on every trip a bottle of Syrup of Figs, as it acts most pleasantly and effectively on the kidneys, liver, and bowels, preventing fevers, headaches and other forms of sickness. For sale in cent bottles by all leading druggists. Manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only.—Adv.

AGED BURGLAR IN A SOLDIER.

Thomas Johnson Declares He Served Through the Civil War in Thirtieth Ohio Infantry.

NOW SIXTY-NINE YEARS OLD. Says He Came to America From England as a Sailor Boy—His Wife and Son in Cincinnati—His Statement.

Chief of Detectives Desmond had David Johnson, the old white-haired man arrested in South St. Louis a few nights ago in act of looting a house, brought before him last night and put him through the "awaiting" process. Johnson was averse to talking at first, but after the chief had questioned him a few minutes, he frankly acknowledged that he went into the house as a burglar. He tried to justify himself by saying he was hungry and had no money to buy food.

Johnson will be 69 years old in June and his hair is as white as snow. There are deep creases and wrinkles in his face which bespeak years of worry and trouble. He totters as he walks with a sort of a limp in his left leg, and has a growth of white whiskers on his face, but they do not into the pallor of his skin. There is nothing about him to indicate that he is a burglar. He is a plain looking, feeble old man, whom no one would pick out as a criminal.

Johnson refuses to tell anything of his family history, but he says he was born in England, but refused to give the name of the county, but he says he was a sailor on a position as a sailor on a steamer coming to this country. While on the voyage an accident made his way in the world. From place to place he drifted until he landed in Cincinnati, Ohio, where he was employed. He refuses to state whether his wife is living, but says he has a son who is leading a respectable life, where he never arrested, nor even suspected of a crime before. If he is shamming he is doing good work in the art of the woodworker and carpenter, but during recent years has done no work.

In the 12 o'clock meeting of the Executive Committee of the Brotherhood of Painters of St. Louis held yesterday afternoon at Druids' Hall, point strongly to a strike of the craft, unless the Master Builders' Association accedes to its demands. The Executive Committee of the Brotherhood of Painters is to meet at Light's Hall this morning at 9 o'clock to take up the action on the subject. Yesterday's meeting was called only to observe what the sentiment of the brotherhood was in regard to a compromise that was offered by the Master Painters' Association. At different times in the afternoon more than 1500 men were in the session, and the expressions of the men and women who were in the meeting were unanimously of opinion that all their demands should be acceded to. The session was held behind closed doors and all reporters and outsiders were excluded.

The men ask that the master painters increase their wages from 21 1/2 to 27 1/2 cents an hour, which is the present rate, to 37 1/2 cents an hour, which would increase their wages from $2.50 to $3 a day. As a compromise the Master Painters' Association offered 35 cents an hour, but the brotherhood is not inclined to accept this. What they will do remains to be seen. An officer of the National Brotherhood of Painters is expected to take part in to-day's proceedings. At yesterday's mass meeting the Grievance committee of the local brotherhood and the Executive Committee of the Association. President James Dunsmore was secretary. Speeches were made in endorsing the actions of the brotherhood of painters and urging them to adhere to their policy.

While the meeting was in progress a disturbance arose in the hall. Almost immediately the door was opened and a man or woman, who had been in the room, looked for a short while as if there would be a fight, but finally peace prevailed and he went down the steps, shouting defiance. About six months ago the new scale was presented to the employer's association by the Brotherhood of Painters and April 1 was set as the day when it was to go into effect. The association promised, it is said, to consider the demand and return an answer within a week. The strike has demanded several weeks ago no settlement could be effected. Then followed a series of conferences between the Master Painters' Association and the Executive Committee of the Brotherhood of Painters. A few days ago the only solution that these conferences could offer was the proffer of 35 cents an hour, which is reached, not a stroke of work will be done by the painters in St. Louis, who are demanding a mass meeting to-day to decide a reality there is a possibility that it may also affect the Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners, which is affiliated with the Brotherhood of Painters. The headquarters of the brotherhood are at No. 1622 Locust street.

CARPENTERS AND JOINERS. May Hold a Mass Meeting to Discuss the Scale. The Carpenters and Joiners of America are talking of holding a mass meeting to decide a uniform scale of wages. They recently asked for 45 cents an hour, instead of the 35 cents which they were getting. Most of the master builders made the demand, but a few held out. As the time for advance designated commenced yesterday, all the men working for those builders who have not added by the scale will be by no means general, though. Harry Blackmore is president of the carpenters and joiners, and is secretary of the Carpenters and Joiners Association. Robert Fueley is secretary and business agent. The headquarters of the union is at No. 64 Market street. To-night or to-morrow afternoon the Master Builders will hold a meeting in Turner building to attempt to settle the differences.

WOMEN CANDIDATES OPPOSE MEN'S TICKETS.

UNIQUE POLITICAL SITUATION IN KANSAS. Female Officeholders Have Made Beattie a Model Town—Men Fighting for Control.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. Topeka, Kas., April 1.—Municipal elections will be held in all third-class cities in Kansas to-morrow, at which a full set of officials will be chosen. The first and second class cities will hold their elections the following day, to elect members of the Council, members of the Board of Education, Justices of the Peace and Constables. The election in Topeka and Beattie to-morrow will be watched with interest. At Beattie the fight is between the men and women. Last year the women of that town, which is located in the northern part of the State, declared against open saloons and gambling dens, and nominated a ticket composed of women for Mayor and members of the Council. Mrs. Totten, the candidate for Mayor, pledged the people that if she and her associates were elected that these places would be driven out, that streets would be cleaned, new sidewalks built, and Beattie would be made a fit town for people to live in. All these pledges have been fulfilled and to-day Beattie is one of the cleanest and most orderly towns of 500 inhabitants in Kansas. This year the men put up an entire ticket against the women. They claim that the female government, by driving out saloons and gambling dens, also has driven from the town a good place to live and its churches and Sunday schools are in a prosperous condition. The contest is animated, and meetings have been held in the churches and residences of the prominent people. At Topeka, Kansas City, there are two Socialist tickets. J. M. Dunsmore, who was Speaker of the Populist end of the party last year, is the only candidate for Mayor, but the extreme wing of that party don't think he is sufficiently radical in his views. The result is that the Republicans are for Dunsmore.

Notice the beautiful and brilliant collection of candelabra in Mermod & Jaccard's Broadway window, corner Locust.

BELIEVED TO BE INSANE. J. W. McKimm Killed Doctor B. F. Shaw for Imaginary Wrongs. Kansas City, Mo., April 1.—Hurling imaginary wrongs, John W. McKimm, aged 29 years, this afternoon shot and killed Doctor B. F. Shaw, his brother-in-law, as the latter sat reading the Sunday-school lesson to his 5-year-old daughter. Shaw died instantly. McKimm, who had been for some time in a sanitarium and is believed to be insane, threatened to kill the other five members of the family and was only restrained after a struggle. Doctor Shaw is a widower. His mother-in-law, Mrs. McKimm, was married for his child since his wife died, and as was his custom, he spent Sunday at the McKimm house at 1177 Forest avenue. The family had eaten dinner. Shaw seated himself in a chair in the parlor, and with his child before him on the floor, was reading the Sunday-school lesson to her. McKimm, as it developed later, had gone directly to his room from the table and written a rambling statement, saying that he had not been treated right and that he intended writing out the entire family, consisting of Doctor Shaw and his child, his mother, two brothers and a sister. Then descending to the parlor he slipped up behind Shaw and placed the revolver against the latter, firing twice into the chest and killing him. The family could reach his side. As McKimm, as it developed later, had gone directly to his room from the table and written a rambling statement, saying that he had not been treated right and that he intended writing out the entire family, consisting of Doctor Shaw and his child, his mother, two brothers and a sister. Then descending to the parlor he slipped up behind Shaw and placed the revolver against the latter, firing twice into the chest and killing him. The family could reach his side. As McKimm, as it developed later, had gone directly to his room from the table and written a rambling statement, saying that he had not been treated right and that he intended writing out the entire family, consisting of Doctor Shaw and his child, his mother, two brothers and a sister. Then descending to the parlor he slipped up behind Shaw and placed the revolver against the latter, firing twice into the chest and killing him. The family could reach his side. As McKimm, as it developed later, had gone directly to his room from the table and written a rambling statement, saying that he had not been treated right and that he intended writing out the entire family, consisting of Doctor Shaw and his child, his mother, two brothers and a sister. Then descending to the parlor he slipped up behind Shaw and placed the revolver against the latter, firing twice into the chest and killing him. The family could reach his side. As McKimm, as it developed later, had gone directly to his room from the table and written a rambling statement, saying that he had not been treated right and that he intended writing out the entire family, consisting of Doctor Shaw and his child, his mother, two brothers and a sister. Then descending to the parlor he slipped up behind Shaw and placed the revolver against the latter, firing twice into the chest and killing him. The family could reach his side. As McKimm, as it developed later, had gone directly to his room from the table and written a rambling statement, saying that he had not been treated right and that he intended writing out the entire family, consisting of Doctor Shaw and his child, his mother, two brothers and a sister. Then descending to the parlor he slipped up behind Shaw and placed the revolver against the latter, firing twice into the chest and killing him. The family could reach his side. As McKimm, as it developed later, had gone directly to his room from the table and written a rambling statement, saying that he had not been treated right and that he intended writing out the entire family, consisting of Doctor Shaw and his child, his mother, two brothers and a sister. Then descending to the parlor he slipped up behind Shaw and placed the revolver against the latter, firing twice into the chest and killing him. The family could reach his side. As McKimm, as it developed later, had gone directly to his room from the table and written a rambling statement, saying that he had not been treated right and that he intended writing out the entire family, consisting of Doctor Shaw and his child, his mother, two brothers and a sister. Then descending to the parlor he slipped up behind Shaw and placed the revolver against the latter, firing twice into the chest and killing him. The family could reach his side. As McKimm, as it developed later, had gone directly to his room from the table and written a rambling statement, saying that he had not been treated right and that he intended writing out the entire family, consisting of Doctor Shaw and his child, his mother, two brothers and a sister. Then descending to the parlor he slipped up behind Shaw and placed the revolver against the latter, firing twice into the chest and killing him. The family could reach his side. As McKimm, as it developed later, had gone directly to his room from the table and written a rambling statement, saying that he had not been treated right and that he intended writing out the entire family, consisting of Doctor Shaw and his child, his mother, two brothers and a sister. Then descending to the parlor he slipped up behind Shaw and placed the revolver against the latter, firing twice into the chest and killing him. The family could reach his side. As McKimm, as it developed later, had gone directly to his room from the table and written a rambling statement, saying that he had not been treated right and that he intended writing out the entire family, consisting of Doctor Shaw and his child, his mother, two brothers and a sister. Then descending to the parlor he slipped up behind Shaw and placed the revolver against the latter, firing twice into the chest and killing him. The family could reach his side. As McKimm, as it developed later, had gone directly to his room from the table and written a rambling statement, saying that he had not been treated right and that he intended writing out the entire family, consisting of Doctor Shaw and his child, his mother, two brothers and a sister. Then descending to the parlor he slipped up behind Shaw and placed the revolver against the latter, firing twice into the chest and killing him. The family could reach his side. As McKimm, as it developed later, had gone directly to his room from the table and written a rambling statement, saying that he had not been treated right and that he intended writing out the entire family, consisting of Doctor Shaw and his child, his mother, two brothers and a sister. Then descending to the parlor he slipped up behind Shaw and placed the revolver against the latter, firing twice into the chest and killing him. The family could reach his side. As McKimm, as it developed later, had gone directly to his room from the table and written a rambling statement, saying that he had not been treated right and that he intended writing out the entire family, consisting of Doctor Shaw and his child, his mother, two brothers and a sister. Then descending to the parlor he slipped up behind Shaw and placed the revolver against the latter, firing twice into the chest and killing him. The family could reach his side. As McKimm, as it developed later, had gone directly to his room from the table and written a rambling statement, saying that he had not been treated right and that he intended writing out the entire family, consisting of Doctor Shaw and his child, his mother, two brothers and a sister. Then descending to the parlor he slipped up behind Shaw and placed the revolver against the latter, firing twice into the chest and killing him. The family could reach his side. As McKimm, as it developed later, had gone directly to his room from the table and written a rambling statement, saying that he had not been treated right and that he intended writing out the entire family, consisting of Doctor Shaw and his child, his mother, two brothers and a sister. Then descending to the parlor he slipped up behind Shaw and placed the revolver against the latter, firing twice into the chest and killing him. The family could reach his side. As McKimm, as it developed later, had gone directly to his room from the table and written a rambling statement, saying that he had not been treated right and that he intended writing out the entire family, consisting of Doctor Shaw and his child, his mother, two brothers and a sister. Then descending to the parlor he slipped up behind Shaw and placed the revolver against the latter, firing twice into the chest and killing him. The family could reach his side. As McKimm, as it developed later, had gone directly to his room from the table and written a rambling statement, saying that he had not been treated right and that he intended writing out the entire family, consisting of Doctor Shaw and his child, his mother, two brothers and a sister. Then descending to the parlor he slipped up behind Shaw and placed the revolver against the latter, firing twice into the chest and killing him. The family could reach his side. As McKimm, as it developed later, had gone directly to his room from the table and written a rambling statement, saying that he had not been treated right and that he intended writing out the entire family, consisting of Doctor Shaw and his child, his mother, two brothers and a sister. Then descending to the parlor he slipped up behind Shaw and placed the revolver against the latter, firing twice into the chest and killing him. The family could reach his side. As McKimm, as it developed later, had gone directly to his room from the table and written a rambling statement, saying that he had not been treated right and that he intended writing out the entire family, consisting of Doctor Shaw and his child, his mother, two brothers and a sister. Then descending to the parlor he slipped up behind Shaw and placed the revolver against the latter, firing twice into the chest and killing him. The family could reach his side. As McKimm, as it developed later, had gone directly to his room from the table and written a rambling statement, saying that he had not been treated right and that he intended writing out the entire family, consisting of Doctor Shaw and his child, his mother, two brothers and a sister. Then descending to the parlor he slipped up behind Shaw and placed the revolver against the latter, firing twice into the chest and killing him. The family could reach his side. As McKimm, as it developed later, had gone directly to his room from the table and written a rambling statement, saying that he had not been treated right and that he intended writing out the entire family, consisting of Doctor Shaw and his child, his mother, two brothers and a sister. Then descending to the parlor he slipped up behind Shaw and placed the revolver against the latter, firing twice into the chest and killing him. The family could reach his side. As McKimm, as it developed later, had gone directly to his room from the table and written a rambling statement, saying that he had not been treated right and that he intended writing out the entire family, consisting of Doctor Shaw and his child, his mother, two brothers and a sister. Then descending to the parlor he slipped up behind Shaw and placed the revolver against the latter, firing twice into the chest and killing him. The family could reach his side. As McKimm, as it developed later, had gone directly to his room from the table and written a rambling statement, saying that he had not been treated right and that he intended writing out the entire family, consisting of Doctor Shaw and his child, his mother, two brothers and a sister. Then descending to the parlor he slipped up behind Shaw and placed the revolver against the latter, firing twice into the chest and killing him. The family could reach his side. As McKimm, as it developed later, had gone directly to his room from the table and written a rambling statement, saying that he had not been treated right and that he intended writing out the entire family, consisting of Doctor Shaw and his child, his mother, two brothers and a sister. Then descending to the parlor he slipped up behind Shaw and placed the revolver against the latter, firing twice into the chest and killing him. The family could reach his side. As McKimm, as it developed later, had gone directly to his room from the table and written a rambling statement, saying that he had not been treated right and that he intended writing out the entire family, consisting of Doctor Shaw and his child, his mother, two brothers and a sister. Then descending to the parlor he slipped up behind Shaw and placed the revolver against the latter, firing twice into the chest and killing him. The family could reach his side. As McKimm, as it developed later, had gone directly to his room from the table and written a rambling statement, saying that he had not been treated right and that he intended writing out the entire family, consisting of Doctor Shaw and his child, his mother, two brothers and a sister. Then descending to the parlor he slipped up behind Shaw and placed the revolver against the latter, firing twice into the chest and killing him. The family could reach his side. As McKimm, as it developed later, had gone directly to his room from the table and written a rambling statement, saying that he had not been treated right and that he intended writing out the entire family, consisting of Doctor Shaw and his child, his mother, two brothers and a sister. Then descending to the parlor he slipped up behind Shaw and placed the revolver against the latter, firing twice into the chest and killing him. The family could reach his side. As McKimm, as it developed later, had gone directly to his room from the table and written a rambling statement, saying that he had not been treated right and that he intended writing out the entire family, consisting of Doctor Shaw and his child, his mother, two brothers and a sister. Then descending to the parlor he slipped up behind Shaw and placed the revolver against the latter, firing twice into the chest and killing him. The family could reach his side. As McKimm, as it developed later, had gone directly to his room from the table and written a rambling statement, saying that he had not been treated right and that he intended writing out the entire family, consisting of Doctor Shaw and his child, his mother, two brothers and a sister. Then descending to the parlor he slipped up behind Shaw and placed the revolver against the latter, firing twice into the chest and killing him. The family could reach his side. As McKimm, as it developed later, had gone directly to his room from the table and written a rambling statement, saying that he had not been treated right and that he intended writing out the entire family, consisting of Doctor Shaw and his child, his mother, two brothers and a sister. Then descending to the parlor he slipped up behind Shaw and placed the revolver against the latter, firing twice into the chest and killing him. The family could reach his side. As McKimm, as it developed later, had gone directly to his room from the table and written a rambling statement, saying that he had not been treated right and that he intended writing out the entire family, consisting of Doctor Shaw and his child, his mother, two brothers and a sister. Then descending to the parlor he slipped up behind Shaw and placed the revolver against the latter, firing twice into the chest and killing him. The family could reach his side. As McKimm, as it developed later, had gone directly to his room from the table and written a rambling statement, saying that he had not been treated right and that he intended writing out the entire family, consisting of Doctor Shaw and his child, his mother, two brothers and a sister. Then descending to the parlor he slipped up behind Shaw and placed the revolver against the latter, firing twice into the chest and killing him. The family could reach his side. As McKimm, as it developed later, had gone directly to his room from the table and written a rambling statement, saying that he had not been treated right and that he intended writing out the entire family, consisting of Doctor Shaw and his child, his mother, two brothers and a sister. Then descending to the parlor he slipped up behind Shaw and placed the revolver against the latter, firing twice into the chest and killing him. The family could reach his side. As McKimm, as it developed later, had gone directly to his room from the table and written a rambling statement, saying that he had not been treated right and that he intended writing out the entire family, consisting of Doctor Shaw and his child, his mother, two brothers and a sister. Then descending to the parlor he slipped up behind Shaw and placed the revolver against the latter, firing twice into the chest and killing him. The family could reach his side. As McKimm, as it developed later, had gone directly to his room from the table and written a rambling statement, saying that he had not been treated right and that he intended writing out the entire family, consisting of Doctor Shaw and his child, his mother, two brothers and a sister. Then descending to the parlor he slipped up behind Shaw and placed the revolver against the latter, firing twice into the chest and killing him. The family could reach his side. As McKimm, as it developed later, had gone directly to his room from the table and written a rambling statement, saying that he had not been treated right and that he intended writing out the entire family, consisting of Doctor Shaw and his child, his mother, two brothers and a sister. Then descending to the parlor he slipped up behind Shaw and placed the revolver against the latter, firing twice into the chest and killing him. The family could reach his side. As McKimm, as it developed later, had gone directly to his room from the table and written a rambling statement, saying that he had not been treated right and that he intended writing out the entire family, consisting of Doctor Shaw and his child, his mother, two brothers and a sister. Then descending to the parlor he slipped up behind Shaw and placed the revolver against the latter, firing twice into the chest and killing him. The family could reach his side. As McKimm, as it developed later, had gone directly to his room from the table and written a rambling statement, saying that he had not been treated right and that he intended writing out the entire family, consisting of Doctor Shaw and his child, his mother, two brothers and a sister. Then descending to the parlor he slipped up behind Shaw and placed the revolver against the latter, firing twice into the chest and killing him. The family could reach his side. As McKimm, as it developed later, had gone directly to his room from the table and written a rambling statement, saying that he had not been treated right and that he intended writing out the entire family, consisting of Doctor Shaw and his child, his mother, two brothers and a sister. Then descending to the parlor he slipped up behind Shaw and placed the revolver against the latter, firing twice into the chest and killing him. The family