GOOD RESULTS FOR THE FAIR.

St. Louis Delegation's Visit to Washington Is Considered Highly Successful.

President, Senators and Representatives Are Favorably Impressed—National Character of the Enterprise Is Recognized.

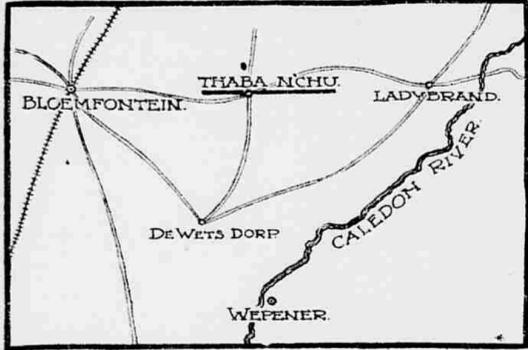

Washington, April 28.—When the members of the St. Louis World's Fair delegation finished their work this evening it was with the consciousness of time well spent and confidence in final success. From the moment they arrived at the national capital until late this evening all the members of the party have been vigilant and untiring. They have called on the leaders in Congress and the President of the United States and have enlisted every influence which could help to make success certain. Today has been a busy one for the visitors. After an early breakfast they all visited the small committee and sought the influential men of the House and Senate for the purpose of making a final appeal for their measure, and then at 10:30 reassembled at their hotel in order to call in a body upon President McKinley, to accompany with his invitation of yesterday. They reached the Executive mansion at the time appointed and the President received each member with great cordiality. Business at the White House was suspended for a time, and the President shook hands with all his callers in the Cabinet-room. Former Governor Francis, in a few apt words, introduced each of his associates, and for them the President had a word of welcome and good cheer. He expressed unqualified pleasure at meeting such a large delegation, and assured them of his interest in their mission. "I am highly in favor of the great celebration to be held in St. Louis," he said. He talked briefly with each member of the delegation, and when the reception was concluded remarked to Governor Francis: "I hope you will be successful in securing the object of your visit to Washington."

LOUISIANA PURCHASE SUPPLIES THE WORLD.

Washington, April 28.—The surplus products of the States comprising the Louisiana Purchase furnish the food supply for the United States and for the great nations of Europe. An exposition of the products and resources of this wonderful region—the most wonderful in the world from an agricultural standpoint—now is being held in St. Louis, an interesting and instructive object lesson. This was the comment of Secretary of Agriculture Wilson upon the project to hold a World's Fair in St. Louis, which commemorates the centennial anniversary of the Louisiana Purchase. Secretary Wilson comes from Iowa, one of the most thickly settled and agriculturally rich States in the Union. He is an enthusiast upon the subject of the marvelous resources of this remarkable territory. Through his position which he occupies he has become more fully acquainted with the great agricultural capacity of this section of the United States than probably any man in the country, and he is ever ready to discourse upon the development and the promise of the States included in what he is pleased to term "the great food supply center of the world."

DEWEY SAYS HE WILL OPPOSE BRYAN AT KANSAS CITY.

New York, April 28.—A special to the World from Washington says: Admiral and Mrs. Dewey, accompanied by the Admiral's secretaries and some of the household servants, will leave Washington at noon to-morrow on a special train over the Baltimore and Ohio. No representative of the press will accompany the party. The Admiral does not desire to give any color of political significance to his trip. "This is purely a social visit," he said to-day. "I am but filling engagements made months ago and long before I gave any thought to being a candidate."

NO INTERFERENCE EXPECTED.

Washington, April 28.—The United States Government has not received the slightest intimation from any European nation of a disposition on its part to interfere in any manner in the present dispute between the United States and Turkey over the American indemnity claims. Nor does our Government anticipate any interference by third parties in this matter so long as our claims are confined to their present position.

EUROPEAN VIEW.

London, April 28.—The American complications with Turkey continue the topic of the day. The Outlook after declining the Sultan and Isaac Gordon, the notorious money-lender, who died recently, were own brothers in matters of money, says: "The Sultan has now fallen from the desperate debtors' list of buyers, and has offered to place an order for a warship with an American firm, if only the American Government will accommodate him with a loan of $1,000,000."

FOR CAMPAIGN PURPOSES.

Washington, April 28.—Secretary Root's speech is regarded by Democratic national leaders as a mere political ruse to frighten the public into contemplating the immense military appropriation bill to present a Senator Vest says that the Monroe Doctrine never has been, and is not now, in danger, and that no contingency can arise that will induce any European Power to seek to violate it. He adds that Root and the administration know that the military budget will be attacked during the campaign and that the speech was made only for campaign purposes. "It is political, rather than patriotic," says the Missouriian. Others, including Senator Jones and Senator Cockrell, take a similar view. Senator Cockrell says that Mr. Root made practically the same statement before the Senate Committee on Military Affairs. Senator Money of Mississippi says that the speech is designed to create a scare in order that the department can carry through its plans. Senator Harris of Kansas said: "The Monroe Doctrine is a limitation upon ourselves as well as Europe. At present we are not profiting what it preaches. We must watch ourselves."

SENOR PATERNO CAPTURED.

Man Who Shot the Sheriff's Wife at Marshall Hanged. Marshall, Mo., April 28.—One of the negroes who broke jail here Thursday night and shot Sheriff Wilson's wife, was captured Friday night and placed in the county jail. A mob took him from the jail at 11 o'clock to-night and hanged him to a tree in the Courthouse yard. The mob forced an entrance to the jail and took the prisoner from his cell. The mob was quiet and orderly. The other negro has not been caught. The negro lynched was Mingo, and the evidence is that he shot the Sheriff's wife. The mob first demanded the keys. The Sheriff refused to give them up, but the mob was determined. They told him they did not want to frighten his wife, but have the black man they would, if he had to break the door with the huge sledgehammer they carried with them. The Sheriff then was forced to give up the keys. The leaders entered the jail and beat the negro into almost insensibility. Then they rushed with him to the Courthouse yard and hanged him to the limb of a large tree. Very little was made. Some of those in the crowd were indignant at the procedure. Very few, if any, of the townspeople engaged in the riot. Mrs. Wilson is resting easy to-night.

GOES TO FACE HIS ACCUSERS.

Republican Governor Taylor Returns to Frankfort.

HE EXPECTS ARREST.

The Indictment Probably Will be Made Public To-Morrow.

SAW THE PRESIDENT.

A Foreign Appointment Promised if He Is Acquitted.

Frankfort, Ky., April 28.—W. S. Taylor will return from Washington to-morrow, and it is expected that the indictment against him will be officially reported Monday, when he will be arrested on the charge of being an accessory to the murder of William Goebel. Taylor is said to have abandoned what little hope he may have had of winning his case before the Supreme Court. That his presence in Washington was not in connection with the suit and for the purpose of personally appearing before the court to argue the case his departure to-day shows. Instead, it is stated in Republican circles that Taylor will not be a candidate for Governor this fall. He has discovered that the party is divided against him, a great many of the staunch Republicans having come to the conclusion that Taylor was really cognizant of the plot to kill Goebel, and though he may not have been directly connected with the assassination, as charged, that he could have prevented it, or, falling in that, could have delivered over the assassin. As a result of Taylor's visit to Washington, it is stated, he has promised a foreign appointment, which will enable him and his family to live abroad for three or four years. It is said President McKinley refused to make an immediate appointment, so Taylor will be compelled to answer to the indictment. High Republican leaders have expressed an opinion to the effect that Taylor, but to meet the charge against him. LEE'S WASHINGTON. Washington, April 28.—Republican Governor Taylor of Kentucky left this city at 10 o'clock for Frankfort, where he is expected to arrive to-morrow. He is accompanied by his wife, Mrs. Taylor, and his children. He had a short interview with the President before leaving. Taylor and his friends expect that he will be arrested soon, if not immediately after reaching Frankfort, and his friends declare that the country can be prepared for "one of the most bitter persecutions of a public man ever known."

REPUBLICAN SPECIAL. New York, April 28.—The Journal will to-morrow publish the following as a verbatim copy of the indictment of William S. Taylor, Republican claimant to the governorship of Kentucky. "The Grand Jury of the County of Franklin, in the name of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, accuse William S. Taylor, of the crime of being accessory before the fact to the willful murder of William Goebel, committed as follows: "The said William S. Taylor, in the said county of Franklin, on the 20th day of January, 1900, and before the finding of this indictment, unlawfully, willfully, feloniously and of their malice aforethought, to kill and murder William Goebel, which one of the last five above-named persons or another person acting with them, but who is to this Grand Jury unknown, as aforesaid, then and thereafter by the said William S. Taylor, before the fact, counseled, advised, encouraged, aided and procured, did, by shooting and wounding the said Goebel, with a gun or pistol loaded with powder and other explosives, and leaden and steel ball and other hard substances, and from which shot shooting and wounding the said Goebel died on the 23 day of February, 1900; but which of said last above mentioned persons as aforesaid actually fired the shot that killed the said Goebel is to this Grand Jury unknown; against the peace and dignity of the Commonwealth of Kentucky."
