Infant Rolled Off a Bed Into the Water.

Gertrude Bogan, 5 months old, rolled off a bed at the home of Mrs. Addle Scruggs at No. 521 Spruce street yesterday evening into a tub of water and was drowned.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bogan of No. 515 Clark avenue, the parents of the child, were visiting at the Scruggs home, and had put the baby to sleep on a bed in an inner room. A tub used in washing had been left bear the bed, and the child is supposed to have rolled off in its sleep into the water. It was not discovered until some time after it had fallen into the tub and life was extinct.

Cincinnati at St. Louis. Pittsburg at Chlergo.

Its belated advent upon its own grounds did not seem to help the battle-worn St. Louis Baseball Club yesterday, After eleven innings of play, Cincinnati won the came-9 to 2 Six runs were made in the eleventh inning by the tailenders. From the pinth to the eleventh inning the game was a tie-3 to 2. Jones, who succeeded Powell in the ninth, gave three bases on bails, allowed one hit and forced in a ren in that inning. Then, with the bases full, Hughey was sent in without any warming up. He was hit freely, as might have been expected.

Poweil and Hahn started pitching proseedings. Both were very effective, But eight hits had been made off Powell when he gave way to McGraw at the bat. On these eight hits three runs, all made in one finning, had been scored. Up to the seventh Cincinnati did not get a man over the plate. In that inning a base on balls to Steinfeldt, a single by Pietz and a home-run drive into the right-field segts by Hahn made the score 3 to 1 in Cincinnati's favor. In the first inning St. Louis scored one run on Burkett's single and Keister's double to right. In the first half of the ninth the fun be gan. Donovan led off with a two-base hit to left, Corcoran threw McGann out. Robinson batted for Dillard and got a base on balls. Sudhoff was put in to run for him. Then Mr. Joseph Quinn, who was playing his last game with St. Louis, came up. He turned out as pretty and timely a hit, past Beckley, as you ever saw in your life, This scored Donovan. Then Criger hit in the same spot and the score was tied. McGraw hit for Powell and got a base on balls. With the bases full and one run needed to win, Burkett struck out. Keister sent t fly to center field. Cincinnati did nothing in her half of the ninth.

St. Louis got two men to base in th tenth, Donovan getting another single and McGann a base on balls. This brought "Old Reliable" Joe Quina up again. The crowd was with him, but even Quinn could not deliver the goods twice in succession. He struck out. Jones took Powell's place in the box in the tenth and get through that inn-He Is Busy Catching Game Fish in | ing all right. In the eleventh Bert lost control. He started out with a base on balls home on the out, but Burkett's supero throw caught him at the plate. McGraw singled in the St. Louis balf, but Burkett, Criger and Kelster could not do anything and was forced at third when he might have been over the plate.

Jesse muffed the ball, though it was fair

No fault could be found with the work of the St. Louis team. With McGraw, Wallace and Heidrick out of the game, Quinn, under notice of release; Keister and Dillard out of position, it is a very sad looking aggregation, indeed. McGraw batted for Powell in the ninth, and played three innings in the fleid. He ran very lame when made his hit in the eleventh. Buelow ad to get on first and run for him. Heldrick injured his weak leg in Philadelphia and will be out of the game for some time. It is rumored in the East that the incomparable Wallace is badly hurt; that his knee

This would, indeed, be a calamity. The way in which the team was handled in the rally during the ninth inning was admirable. Excellent judgment was used in sending up Robinson and McGraw. sirts from the outfield, which is a season's record. In the sixth inning, with Corcoran on third, he caught McBride's fly. The throw was a long one, but he laid the ball in Criger's hands in lovely style, well ahead of the runner. In the eleventh he did the same thing on Steinfeldt's fly and got Mc-Bride at home. In the ninth he muffed Corcoran's liner, but threw Hahn, who ran bases badly, out at third. In the eleventh inning Burkett had five hard chases after hits. He gave two doubles a home run, and two singles hard, but hopeless runs. When the game was over he was willing

When the game was over he was whing to eat his cap.

Quinn will help the Reds immensely. He is piaying fine ball just now. Leaving St. Louis, he takes with him the very heat wishes of the thousands to whom his clever exhibitions have given a great deal of pleasure and to whom he never has, in thought, word or deed, given offense.

Bobby Wallace, the great shortstop of the St. Louis club, who, as Joe Quinn says, makes them all look slow, rejoined the St. Louis club yesterday. Wallace has been at his heme in Bennet, Pa., since June 1, when he was injured in collision with Lave Cross at Brooklyn. Wallace enjoys the rare distinction of being about the only man Cross ever hurt in his life. Bob's knee is not yet perfectly well, but he hopes to be in the game in a short time.

Emmett Heidrick renewed his "charley horse" in the last game at Philadelphia, and is laid up for repairs at his home at Brookville, Pa It is stated that he will join the St. Louis club next Friday.

Powell pitched fine ball yesterday. The game was lost, but not by bad pitching, not by any means.

Gentlemen's Driving Matinec. Gentlemen's Driving Matinee.

Counter attractions and threatening weather kept many away from yesterday's matinee races of the Gentlemen's Driving Club. Those present saw some interesting heats, but on the whole the sport was not up to the average. It was a banker day for the Colman Stock Farm, there entries winsing first in three races and second in the fourth event. The winners were Mongirl, Momunta and Monaut. The other trotter landing in first place was Ray Bates, owned by Lanritz Petersen and driven by Mr. Edwards. Carl Rothenbeber drove all the Colman Fatm entries. The track was good, but the time in most least was very slow. The summaries.

All exhibition, mile heats, Entries to close Friday at noon.

The Executive Beard of the Driving Club, at its regular meeting yesterday, decided not to hold a matinee on the afternoon of July 4. That holiday fulling on Wedinesday, it was deemed best to have only one day's sport that week, and that on Saturday the Th of July, when the great match race for a purse of fl.60 is to take place between Dave Wing, 2175, and Hippolite, 2:20%, the former owned by Cox & Conrad and the latter by Edward Curnet, president of the Driving Club. The programme for that day, other than the big race, has not yet been arranged, but the club will give two or more money races, the classes to be agreed upon later.

Walter Smith's Wonderful Performance on the Berkeley Track.

New York, June 15-lin a private trial at Berkeley, Walter W. Smith, a young member of the King's County Wheelmen of Brooklyn, broke two world's amateur cycling records.

Paced by a motor cycle, Smith made a half mile, with a flying start, in 35, and a mile in 1:28. This lops 4½ seconds from the former motor-paced flying-start record of 1:32:2-5, made by A. W. Ross at Washington, D. C., on November 22, 1899, and ½ second from the former half-mile record of 45%, made by George Fuller at San Jose, Cal., on December 3, 1889.

Duckworth, But when the veterans, Clinch and Murray, got together they fairly collared the bowling and ran the score up to 58. Then "Old Joe" came in and played out time with the dector, making a draw, slightly in their favor. The fielding of the Carter boys was a noticeable feature, and Schrapps distinguished himself by a well-judged catch, which disposed of the hard-hitting captain. Doctor Murray has evidently been studying cricket while pulling teeth during the winter.

Live Bird Shoot.

There will be a live-bird shoot at Dupon Park to-day. There will be fifty birds, with a $20 entrance fee. The number of moneys will depend on the number of entries. A Monte Carlo boundary will rule. This boundary differs from the Aurerican in that the outer circle is only twenty-one yards from the traps instead of fifty yards, which is generally used hereabouts.

to Steinfeldt, Peltz made his second hit, Habn worked Jones for a base on bails Barrett did the same thing, forcing in a run. Then Jones gave way to Hughey. Corcoran's out at first scored Pettz, Keifter fumbling too long to permit a play at the plate; Beckley hit to left center for two bags. Crawford hit a huge fly over Burkett's head for a home run. McBride singled and Irwin doubled. Steinfeldt came up for the second time in the inning and sent a long fly to Burkett, McBride tried to go to help him. Up to the tenth inning the game was very well played, if " was a bit listless and tame. Powell pitched great ball. But three hits were made off him in the first six int-ings. His support was very good. Burkett and Keister made some fine plays, Hahn emed to find Powell easier than any of his compeers. Though he is but a .130 hitter, he got three hits off Red John.

The first, in the third inning, was a double hat came within a bair's scant breadth of bounding over the right field fence for a home run. Then, with two men on bases in the goventh, Hahn took two strikes on the arst two balls pitched, then took three bails, and then gave the deciding ball a wallop that landed it in the right field seats. The fly went a mile in the air. In the ninth Hahn got his third hit, a sin-gle, took second on Barrett's single, and was forced at third because he did not run on Eurkett's muft of Corcoran's line drive.
