SUIT AGAINST EXECUTOR.

Bernardina Andrews Seeks Share of Harber's Estate.

Bernardina Andrews filed suit yesterday against Henry Spunhorst, executor of the will of Johanna Harber and others, to have certain property of the estate declared to be the property of the plaintiff. The plaintiff claims that when she was 13 years old, which was in 1859, Frederick Harber and his wife Johanna, being childless, stated to her that she was to inherit to herself, that if she would live with them they would treat her as if she were their own child, and that Frederick Harber in their will, she went to live with them and performed the duties of the household until her marriage to Frederick Harber, who died August 8, 1886, and willed his property to his wife, making no mention of the plaintiff. It is alleged that Harber died May 18, 1889, and also failed to provide for the plaintiff.

LESS DISEASE AT NOME.

Lack of Rain Prevents Work on the Creeks.

Seattle, Wash., Aug. 1.—The steamer Cleveland arrived from Nome at midnight, having sailed July 29. She is quarantined in the harbor here, but has a clear bill of health and no smallpox cases. The disease was about at its height, and the steamer was being known when she sailed. Lack of rain prevents work on the creeks, and men on beach make only small wages. The Cleveland may be ordered back to Port Townsend quarantine station for inspection.

OLD CITY RECORDS TO BE REMOVED.

Repose of Generations Will Be Broken When They Are Taken to New City Hall.

TO BEGIN WORK IN FEW DAYS.

Attempt to Secure Injunction, It Is Understood, Has Been Abandoned—No Further Delay Is Expected.

Ancient and musty records that have lain mouldering in the vaults of the Courthouse for generations will be rudely disturbed very soon, for the whole collection is to be moved bodily from its present location to one more commodious at the new City Hall. The attempt to legally prevent the Recorder of Deeds from making the change has been abandoned, it is stated, and no further opposition is now expected from this source. The work of removal likely will begin the last of the present week or early in the next.

Labor and care will be required in high degree to effect the change. The loss of a record would not necessarily invalidate the title to the property recorded, but the expense and trouble of reproducing it would be very great. Several firms have copies of the records, so that it would be possible to reproduce almost any of them, though with much difficulty in some cases. The documents will be kept under the most rigid surveillance during their trip from the Courthouse to the new City Hall.

There will be much of human interest in the work. Books which have not been opened for generations will be moved for the first time in scores of years. In date, they extend back to the time when St. Louis was an Indian trading post, when sales of property were advertised by reading the notices from the steps of the village church as the worshippers were departing for home. Some of the documents were originally written in Spanish and French, and have been supplemented with translations in English. The pages are brown with age and the ink marks have become so dim as almost to be indistinguishable.

When Recorder Hays proposed to move to the new City Hall, Attorney George Webster applied to Circuit Judge Klett for an injunction. After this was refused he declared that he would carry the case to the supreme court, but nothing further has been heard about the matter. Yesterday, it was decided to wait no longer, but to move as soon as the new quarters are in shape.

MOTORMAN DIES ON STREET.

William Hubertz Was a Confirmed Cigarette Smoker.

William Hubertz, a motorman, employed by the St. Louis Transit Company, while on his way to work at 7 o'clock yesterday morning, fell to the pavement in front of No. 312 Laclede avenue, where he expired a few minutes afterwards.

It is supposed that he died of heart disease, induced by the excessive use of cigarettes and morphine.

Hubertz was 35 years old. He came to St. Louis two weeks ago from New Orleans, La., where he leaves a widow and family living at No. 1000 St. Ann street, corner of Regency street. He secured board at No. 310 Laclede avenue and went to work for the transit company on the Laclede avenue line.

A few minutes after 7 o'clock yesterday morning he left the house for the car barn, walking west on Laclede avenue. He had gone but a short distance when he toppled over on the sidewalk. A Brinkman, who lives at No. 218 Laclede avenue, ran to see what was the matter with him.

"Get me a doctor," he said, "I am gone." Doctor Taber of No. 218 Laclede avenue responded, but he could do nothing for Hubertz, as he was dying. An ambulance was called, but he was dead when it arrived. It conveyed his body to the morgue. In his pockets were found a two-ounce phial of morphine solution, a pocketbook containing $4.90, a key and a receipt on the American Cigarette Company, and a letter from his wife. Doctor Wolford held a post-mortem examination on the body yesterday, finding that death was due to heart failure.

Hubertz smoked cigarettes all through the day, often consuming a dozen packages. Only the night before he died he was awakened by his appetite for cigarettes and could not go to sleep until he had smoked four. Coroner Lloyd has telegraphed Mrs. Hubertz, and will hold the body subject to her orders.

POLICE CAPTAIN BOYD'S TRIAL BEGUN BEFORE SPECIAL JURY.

Story of the Arrest and Detention of Mrs. Aimee Buckley Told on the Stand.

CAPTAIN SAM BOYD, Charged With Oppression in Office.

The trial of Police Captain Samuel J. Boyd of the First District, on the charge of oppression in office, which grew out of the arrest of Mrs. Aimee Buckley on June 17, was commenced yesterday before Judge Clark in the Court of Criminal Correction. The court adjourned at 5:25 o'clock and will convene this morning at 11 o'clock.

Mrs. Buckley was arrested on June 17 by Officer Bridwell in the southern section of the city. Captain Boyd said that witnesses claimed that Mrs. Buckley was inciting riot by riding through that part of the city and getting on and off the transit company cars, and caused her to be incarcerated. The indictment was the result.

The following jury was impaneled to try the case: Sullivan B. Cuddy, clerk Wabash Railroad Company, No. 453 West Belle place; Con P. Curran, printer, No. 308 Vine Grove avenue; Charles C. Curry, lumber merchant, No. 512 Fairmount avenue; Charles C. Curtice, passenger agent, Vandallia Railroad Company, No. 403 Page boulevard; Edwin F. Dunker, clerk, William Barr Dry Goods Company, No. 317 Rauschenbach avenue; Francis M. Dunn, insurance agent, No. 371 Indian avenue; E. S. Fritz of G. J. Fritz Machinery Company, No. 317 Lafayette avenue; M. E.

Green, Green Millinery Company, No. 434 Delmar avenue; Arthur Gissel, bookkeeper, No. 458 Cote Brillante avenue; George M. Guerdan, Guerdan Hat Company, No. 207 Albion place; F. W. Guerin, photographer, No. 394 Washington avenue; Felix E. Gunn, real estate, No. 614 Suburban avenue. Captain Boyd was represented by C. O. Bishop, John I. Martin, John Gernez and Thomas B. Estop, Judge Thomas B. Harvey was special counsel for the prosecution.

Witnesses testified to hearing Captain Boyd and the other witnesses testified to the jury and the case went to trial at 2:20 o'clock.

The witnesses called yesterday were: H. R. Crosswell, clerk in the office of Chief of Police Campbell; George F. Mocker, assistant secretary of Board of Police Commissioners; W. G. Walters, A. R. Dowell and W. R. Harlow, former members of the posse comitatus.

The first two witnesses testified that Captain Boyd was in charge of the First District Station. The other witnesses testified that Mrs. Buckley had been arrested by Officer Bridwell and taken before Captain Boyd, who ordered her to be locked up. Witnesses testified to hearing Captain Boyd say that he ordered Mrs. Buckley's arrest on complaint of several of the best citizens of his district, and that he could not release her unless bond was furnished or from the Chief of Police.

Mrs. Buckley and other witnesses will be called to testify this morning at 11 o'clock.

ST. LOUIS BOY WILL SERVE IN THE CAMPAIGN IN CHINA.

Lieutenant Ernest E. Allen Receives Orders to Join His Regiment.

JUST OUT OF WEST POINT.

His Command, Fourteenth Infantry, Goes From Manila to Celestial Kingdom.

Lieutenant Ernest E. Allen of this city, who was graduated from West Point Military Academy in June, will participate in the campaign in China with his regiment, the Fourteenth Infantry. Lieutenant Allen departed for the barracks at Columbus, O., on Tuesday evening, and probably will receive orders in a few days to meet his regiment in China with a detail of recruits.

The regiment is now in the Philippines, but has received orders to proceed to China. Since July 1 Lieutenant Allen has been visiting his mother, Mrs. M. B. Allen, at No. 214 Pine street. He has many friends in St. Louis, who entertained him in his short stay here.

After Lieutenant Allen's graduation he visited Fort Monroe and Lexington, Ky., before coming to St. Louis. When he departed from West Point he had selected the artillery as the branch of the service in which he wished to serve, and had obtained his trainings for that department. But he was advised by friends in the Military Academy that there was a larger field for work and promotion in the infantry.

GRANITOID WORKERS QUIT.

Certain Contractors Wouldn't Pay Union Wages to Mixers.

Ninety members of the Granitoid and Cement Workers' Union quit work yesterday because the contractors by whom they were employed refused to pay the scale of wages adopted by the union on June 15, as follows: Foremen, 45 cents an hour; finishers and frame setters, 37 1/2 cents; blockmen, 28 1/2 cents; mixers, 25 cents. The union will substitute a day; every hour overtime to be paid for at the rate of an hour and a half; double pay for Sunday work.

There was no complaint by the contractors on any portion of the scale except so far as it applied to mixers. It is contended that they are not in any sense skilled laborers, and that 25 cents an hour, or $1.00 a day, was a fair wage for their work.

There are about 100 contractors in St. Louis engaged in granitoid work, of this number all but twenty-one have agreed to pay the union scale, and the twenty-one who refuse to do so are engaged in the craft except the mixers.

The action of the men who quit only affects the contractors who refuse to pay the union scale.

AID FOR FRESH AIR MISSION.

Benefit Performances at Highlands Arranged.

Arrangements for the benefit performances of the Fresh Air Mission at the Forest Park Highlands on Saturday afternoon and evening have been completed and the indications are that a large crowd will be present. No advance will be made in the charge of admission. The proceeds will be used as a fund to complete the work of the society.

The Fresh Air Mission was organized in 1881, its purpose being to give weekly excursions on the river and on the railroads for the children and invalids in the city who were too poor to indulge in such outings on their own account. The excursions have been greatly beneficial in improving the health of the city's poor, according to one Health Commissioner, and it is to be stowed much praise upon the work. For many years the Republic raised the funds for the excursions, but latterly it was undertaken entirely by the Fresh Air Mission Committee for the protection of women and children. Donations to further the work may be sent to room 717 Holland building.

Elopement in Illinois.

Waterloo, Ill., Aug. 1.—Henry Schifferdecker and Miss Edna Lillian Starr, popular young people of Redbud, Ill., eloped to Waterloo today and were solemnly married by Judge A. C. Douglass. The parents of the bride objected to the marriage on account of the fact that she is a Baptist and the bridegroom is a Catholic. They drove here in a carriage and made every effort to keep the wedding a secret. Mr. Schifferdecker is a business man of Redbud and is said to be wealthy.

LOCAL TRADERS ARE INDEPENDENT.

Activity of Merchants' Exchange Unhindered by Lack of Chicago Quotations.

BUSINESS LARGER THAN USUAL.

Much That Would Have Gone to the Windy City Transacted in St. Louis—Conditions in Other Cities.

Traders at the St. Louis Merchants' Exchange yesterday demonstrated their ability to act independently of the Chicago Board of Trade, and a larger volume of business was transacted in the pit than for several months.

When the market opened the telegraph operators at the blackboards where Chicago quotations are usually posted, instead of the usual figures, wrote the following notice:

"No Chicago quotations will be posted." This applied not only to grain quotations, but also to provisions, seeds and other things.

At first the announcement had a quieting effect upon the local market, as traders had believed that the injunction issued Saturday by Judge Bishop restraining the Chicago Board of Trade from cutting off their quotations from the Central Grain and Stock Exchange would also prevent the quotations from being cut off from the St. Louis Merchants' Exchange when they realized, however, that St. Louis must rely upon her own resources, they promptly got down to business and trading in the pit became very active. Outside orders began to pour in, and much of the business that would have gone to Chicago was transacted in the local pit.

The various Chicago houses with St. Louis connections, by mutual agreement, used one private wire for continuous quotations exclusively, and these quotations were furnished to all of the houses in this city. Some of the local bucket shops also received continuous quotations, and others used the New York quotations instead of Chicago.

President C. H. Spencer, Tom Francis, Vice President Daniel E. Smith, Nat Moffitt, Bert Lang and other prominent traders all reported a larger day's business than usual, and all expressed themselves as being well satisfied with the present condition of affairs.

New York, Toledo, Minneapolis and other quotations were posted as usual.

Dispatches from Milwaukee state that very little regular trading was done there, Chicago quotations being supplied by the Chicago Board of Trade. The Chicago Telegraph Company, in Cincinnati there were no Chicago quotations. In Chicago Western Union Telegraph telegraph carriers carried quotations from New York, Minneapolis, Duluth, St. Louis and other exchanges.

NEW TELEGRAPH LINE PROJECT.

Has Not Received Support From Local Exchange.

S. W. Cobb and Corwin H. Spencer, the committee appointed by the St. Louis Merchants' Exchange to attend the conference of the leading exchanges of the country at Chicago, Monday, returned yesterday morning.

Both gentlemen said that nothing definite was done at the meeting, but that the subject of establishing independent telegraph line between the various exchanges of the country was thoroughly discussed.

Mr. Spencer said:

"The Chicago Board of Trade has determined to crush out the bucket shops at a cost, and will be a fight to the finish. Members of the board declare that the telegraph project is entirely feasible, and there is plenty of capital guaranteed to carry it through.

It is proposed to have the new line built by a private company, but the stockholders will all be members of the different exchanges of the country, and hence it will be under the control of the exchanges.

"Under the proposed plan each exchange will give the other an exclusive control of exchange business, and other telegraph companies will be excluded from the floor. Some of the stockholders in Chicago are back of the scheme, and guarantee to take all stock not subscribed for by members of the exchange.

The St. Louis exchange has promised no support to the new enterprise.
