

14 ST. LOUIS HOLDS THE MILLINERY TRADE.

Fall Meeting Closes Tuesday and Many Visiting Buyers and Merchants Are Expected Here.

BIG BUSINESS IN NECKWEAR.

Goods Made in This City Obtain Excellent Reputation—Factories Being Enlarged—Orders for Shirts.

Yesterday was the first day of the last fall meeting of the Interstate Neckwear Association, and although the registration was not quite so heavy as it has been heretofore, it was quite large for the opening day.

A number of visiting buyers are expected next week as the last fall opening of the different wholesale millinery houses will be given Tuesday. On this occasion in everything that is new up to date in the line of feminine headgear will be shown.

Quite a number of visiting milliners who were present at the last opening remained in the city to attend Tuesday's opening. Several new shapes and styles, designed since then, will be shown.

The sales of trimmed hats have been unusually large this year. Many milliners in the smaller towns prefer to buy their hats trimmed, as they find it not only cheaper and more convenient, but say they get better results, as a rule.

Manufacturers of neckwear report a very brisk trade. They say that the number of styles and shapes is greater this year than ever before. St. Louis is rapidly becoming one of the largest neckwear manufacturing centers in the country, and the reputation its goods have attained is unequalled.

Another industry which is fast assuming large proportions in this city is the manufacture of ladies' skirts, cloaks and shirt waists. All of the local manufacturers in these lines are overrun with orders, and are constantly capturing trade from Chicago and other cities.

A large party of visiting merchants went to the Anheuser-Busch brewery yesterday, and were entertained by the manager.

After a trip through the establishment they were taken for a drive in Forest Park. The present meeting will continue until September 24, but tickets will be on sale at the different points on the various lines of railroads only until September 11.

Among those who registered with Secretary Singer yesterday were the following: Mrs. W. C. O'Connell, Wood, Wash, D. C.; Mrs. J. H. O'Connell, Wood, Wash, D. C.; Mrs. J. H. O'Connell, Wood, Wash, D. C.; Mrs. J. H. O'Connell, Wood, Wash, D. C.

WORK RESUMED FOR THE WORLD.

Committeemen Hope to Complete Five Million Dollar Fund in Month of September.

THEN TALK FOR AMENDMENTS.

All the World Interested in St. Louis's Effort to Celebrate Louisiana Purchase Centennial.

Beginning yesterday, September 1, preliminary work in behalf of the Louisiana Purchase centennial was renewed with vim. The day being a half-holiday, little was accomplished in the way of taking subscriptions to stock; but the leading committeemen put their heads together and worked out plans whereby it is hoped that the $5,000,000 fund will be completed before the end of the month.

Chairman William H. Thompson of the Finance Committee departed for the East on Friday and D. R. Francis, chairman of the Executive Committee, followed him at noon yesterday. Neither will be absent more than about a week, and it is expected that the work will be prosecuted with highly gratifying results. In their absence Mr. Charles H. Huttig, who was so successful as chairman of the Committee on Reorganization and Plan, will be at the helm. The work mapped out by the chairman of the two leading standing committees to be accomplished during their absence will keep them at home active, and as Governor Francis has determined to accept the Louisiana Purchase centennial as a Paris some sensational work may be looked for immediately upon his return.

The plans agreed upon for the financial management of the centennial are of a certain amount of expenditure. A quick as well as a thorough canvass will have to be made, and it will be necessary to send representatives to the city to call upon corporations and firms having branch offices here, or having a monopoly of trade in certain lines of business, to induce them to contribute to date the total expenditures in St. Louis's Fair preliminary fund.

These expenditures include two banquets at Washington, D. C., one at the expense of the Louisiana Purchase Association, the other at the expense of the Louisiana Purchase Association, the expenses of two large dinners at St. Louis, one at the expense of the Louisiana Purchase Association, the other at the expense of the Louisiana Purchase Association.

Under the terms of the subscription the first 10 per cent is not legally due and payable until the centennial is proclaimed, and hence all voluntary payments on account of stock have been held in abeyance. The expenditures have been met by voluntary contributions to the preliminary fund. It is understood that each contributor should be credited in full in reduction of the total bill of the preliminary fund.

Up to date there has been no preliminary canvass for subscriptions to the preliminary fund. The Louisiana Purchase Association has received and the amount has been expended. CITIZENS PAY TAXES TO GET THE REBATE.

Collector's Receipts Yesterday Were $306,035.79, an Excess of $163,779.42 Over Last Year.

MAYOR WAS IN THE THROG.

Paid His Bill in a Check for $6,321.12—Mississippi Valley Trust Company Made the Largest Payment.

The rebate offered to citizens who pay their taxes before October 1 attracted immense crowds to Collector C. F. Wenner's office yesterday, and the clerks had all the time they could spare in dealing with the throng.

The total receipts yesterday from 3 until 5 o'clock, were $306,035.79. Last year they were $142,256.37. The increase of the first day's collections this year over September 1, last year, is $163,779.42. There were many large checks in the receipts, going well into amounts of five figures.

The largest was presented by the Mississippi Valley Trust Company for $33,311.20. The St. Louis Brewing Association tendered a check for $3,311.20. The smallest amount of money paid was $1.00. The first check handed over the counter came from the Lincoln Trust Company. It was for $1,000.00.

The second check, for $6,321.12, was Mayor Ziegenhals'. The mayor usually gets into the crowd and tries to be first. Each year on the 1st of September the same scene is enacted in the Collector's office, as the rebate which is granted on payments made prior to October 1 is well worth the effort to be prompt. The taxes must eventually be paid, no matter what transpires, and taxpayers endeavor, therefore, to get the reduction. In many cases the rebate is virtually insignificant, but to large concerns, who pay big taxes, it is a large item.

The rebate given is at the rate of 3 per cent per annum, and it may be procured at any time between the present date and October 1. The office will be closed Monday, but there still remain nearly four weeks in which to receive the reduction, and taxpayers who were not in yesterday's throng may yet reap the advantage they could have secured on the first day. On and after October 1 no rebate will be given, and taxpayers will have to tender the full amount of their bills.
